CATHOLIC CHURCH

Second Sunday of Ordinary Time - January 17, 2021

Share a Gift of Your Time through Prayer This New Year

Are you filled with joy?

Or are you struggling due to life's challenges?

Perhaps God is calling you to share your joys and your struggles with him each week by committing to an hour of prayer through

Eucharistic Adoration

Adoration is currently on Wednesdays only 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. in the church.

Beginning February 1

Adoration will resume in the St. Ann Chapel
Mondays, Wednesdays, Fridays - 9:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m.

There is a need to fill time slots so that we have TWO PEOPLE praying during each hour of Adoration.

Due to COVID-19 protocols, only 4 people will be allowed in the chapel at one time. Masks must be worn at all times in the church and chapel.

For more information about Presentation's Adoration Ministry contact:

This weekend we enter a stretch of Ordinary Time that falls between the Christmas season and the beginning of Lent. A resource I read recently put it this way: After the lights and carols of Christmas, Ordinary Time – which actually means counted time (we number the weeks) – can seem so, well, ordinary. But it is in the ordinary days of our ordinary lives that God asks us to build his Kingdom. This weekend we hear about the importance of being called. First, Samuel is called by the Lord and answers readily with: Here I am. You called me. In the Gospel, John the Baptist identifies Jesus as the Lamb of God and immediately two of John's disciples begin to follow Jesus. Andrew, one of the two, finds his own brother Simon Peter and tells him: We have found the Messiah. The call of God comes in different ways, sometimes dramatic and sometimes in the ordinary events of our day to day experiences. Regardless of how we are called, it should lead us to respond with our lives and share the good news of Jesus with others. And, like Andrew, we all have a duty to assist our brothers and sisters on their journey of faith.

This is an exciting time of year as many children, teens, and adults are preparing to receive Sacraments. We have nearly 100 children preparing for their First Eucharist and many of them received their First Reconciliation earlier this month. Our high school teens preparing for the Sacrament of Confirmation will begin their formation sessions later this month. We also have a number of adults and their families preparing to be received into the Catholic Church at Easter. Please keep all of them in your prayers.

At the end of January each year, we kick-off the annual celebration of Catholic Schools Week. For several years now, we have also been using this as a time to highlight our OLP Endowment Fund for Catholic Education. Contributions to this Fund allow us to provide scholarships to students who would not otherwise be able to attend a Catholic school. Please make a contribution by using the designated envelope in your January packet, by going to our website to give OnLine, or by placing your contribution in your own envelope clearly marked for the Endowment. We appreciate your support of our parish grade school.

This week there are several observances that need our prayer and attention. This Monday, January 18, is the national observance of Martin Luther King, Jr. More than ever, we need prayers to end the racial hatred and division in our nation. Let us use MLK Day to reflect on ways we can unite instead of divide.

Stewardship

In today's first reading, we hear Samuel respond eagerly, "Here I am!" each time the Lord calls him. May we, too, be listening for the call of God in our lives and be ready to say like the psalmist, "Here am I, Lord; I come to do your will." -Stewardship by the Book

- Mail or drop off your contribution to the Parish Office using the secure drop boxes located in the office entryway or inside the church entrance

Stewardship is...

*a little bit you, a forward path, a privilege, a way, a choice,
a pleasure, a helping hand, a promise, a connection,
a right, a responsibility, a thank you, an awareness,
a commitment, a gift, a crossroad decision,
a connection to each other, a little bit of you for God.*

-Author Unknown

Everything we are and everything we have is a gift from God.

What are the gifts God has given to me?

What am I most grateful for?

Do I spend time in prayer each day thanking God for my blessings and gifts?

Do I express my gratitude to God through the sharing of my gifts in such a way that I make a positive difference in the lives of others?

We reflect God's presence to those we encounter through the sharing of our gifts. As an expression of our gratitude, we nurture our gifts and return them with increase to our faith community and the world in which we live.

Year of St. Joseph

Pope Francis recently announced a Year of St. Joseph, in honor of the 150th Anniversary of the saint's proclamation as patron of the Universal Church. The Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph has established a page on its website where it will be posting resources for prayer, celebration and ideas to achieve plenary indulgences throughout the year, ending on December 8, 2021.

January 24 - Am I Saved?

What Jesus did for us through his life, death and resurrection was the greatest act of love in history. He saved us. He did this for each one of us. Personally. But some might not feel worth of this gift of love. We may feel we have too much baggage. We may feel unlovable. But God didn't come to reveal himself to us on a pedestal, he came to enter into our messy human condition. To fix us from within. To transform us from the inside out. Some might be surprised by how generous the love of God really is. We don't deserve God's love, but that's the amazing reality of God's mercy. This relationship with God isn't all about our love for Him. It's about His love for us that changes our lives forever.

INSTILLING IN STUDENTS THE VALUE OF SERVICE TO OTHERS

OLP's 6th Grade was able to contribute $2,000 to their service partner, Uplift Organization, Inc. as a result of their recent service project selling KC sports teams and holiday signage. It was a huge success as the students were eager to help this wonderful organization they have learned so much about.

Uplift Organization, Inc. is a local, volunteer-managed organization helping to feed and cloth the homeless of our community. We are proud to help local organizations like Uplift, Little Sisters of the Poor, Operation Breakthrough and many more while engaging students in service to others and instilling a love of community that will serve them well throughout their lives.

Early Childhood Center

We are off to a quiet start for the New Year. Many students were gone for the Christmas and New Year holidays so everyone is easing back into their regular daily schedules. Coming up we will be getting ready for our Catholic Schools Week celebrations and new family registration in March.

Presentation ECC Job Openings

We are currently looking for afternoon TA's to work in ages 3-5. Must be 18 years old and love working with children and available to work M-F, 2:30-6:00pm. If interested please call Catherine Koob, 251-1140 or check out our listing on Indeed.com

Ministerio Hispano

Hermanos en el evangelio de hoy, se nos presentan dos momentos en la vida de Juan y Andrés, discípulos del Bautista. El primero: su encuentro con Jesús; y el segundo: la respuesta natural que nace de este encuentro.

Juan y Andrés siguen a Jesús, en un momento. Éste se vuelve y les pregunta ¿Qué buscan? Los discípulos después le responden con otra pregunta. Pero la respuesta que Cristo les da parece que no resuelve su interrogante. Sin embargo, la pedagogía de Jesús es diferente a la nuestra. Les invita a que ellos mismos hagan la experiencia de convivir con Él. No los fuerza. Respeta profundamente su libertad. Hasta el punto que ellos mismos vieron dónde vivía y decidieron permanecer con Él. Lo que les atrajo no era tanto el lugar donde vivía el Maestro, eso más bien era un pretexto para acercarse a Él y conocerlo más íntimamente. Su testimonio les impactó tanto que interiormente lo único que deseaban era quedarse a su lado.

Nadie puede hacer una verdadera experiencia de Cristo y no quedar con alguna huella visible. En este evangelio, se nos muestra cómo el conocimiento de Cristo les lleva a tener una necesidad muy grande de transmitirlo a los demás. El mismo Andrés no duda en llevar la buena noticia de que han encontrado al Mesías a su hermano Simón, para después presentarlo con el Señor y que Cristo lo escoja para seguirlo también. El apostolado brota en todo corazón como una exigencia de quien ha experimentado el amor de Dios en su alma y desea ardientemente que los demás también puedan gozar de este maravilloso encuentro. sepan buscar y encontrar.

El papa Benedicto XVI nos recuerda que la palabra "Cristo" (Mesías) significa "el Ungido". La humanidad de Jesús está insertada, mediante la unidad del Hijo con el Padre, en la comunión con el Espíritu Santo y, así, es "ungida" de una manera única, y penetrada por el Espíritu Santo. Lo que había sucedido en los reyes y sacerdotes del Antiguo Testamento de modo simbólico en la unción con aceite, con la que se les establecía en su ministerio, sucede en Jesús en toda su realidad: su humanidad es penetrada por la fuerza del Espíritu Santo. Cuanto más nos unimos a Cristo, más somos colmados por su Espíritu, por el Espíritu Santo. Nos llamamos "cristianos", "ungidos", personas que pertenecen a Cristo y por eso participan en su unción, son tocadas por su Espíritu. No quiero sólo llamarme cristiano, sino que quiero serlo, decía san Ignacio de Antioquía. Dejemos que precisamente estos santos óleos, que ahora son consagrados, nos recuerden esta tarea inherente a la palabra "cristiano", y pidamos al Señor para que no sólo nos llamemos cristianos, sino que lo seamos verdaderamente cada vez más.

En Cristo, Padre Emmanuel López

NEWS FROM EL SALVADOR: A Letter from Sandy – Part 2

My hobbies include exercising. I like to stay healthy and fit. Another hobby I have is having good conversations on different topics with people. Even if they do not have a professional career, have a lot of wisdom and things that we are not taught in school we learn from life.

I am drawn to extreme sports such as: climbing, amusement parks such as roller coasters, parachuting, camping, among others. I have only done the last, and I have done it because the university has taken us to some places due to evaluative activities. I really like nature.

Support Our Seminarians Virtual Benefit January 29

We need your help to make this year's Support Our Seminarians (SOS) event the best yet. This will be our final SOS event, and sadly due to the pandemic, we won't be able to gather in person; we will be gathering virtually. We need your help to make this final SOS event our most successful ever! You can support our seminarians and the future of the Church by making a donation, purchasing raffle tickets, praying for vocations, and joining us online at 6:00 p.m. on Friday, January 29, 2021, for the final SOS event. To donate or purchase raffle tickets go to:
