CATHOLIC CHURCH

Fourth Sunday of Lent - March 14, 2021

THE YEAR OF ST. JOSEPH

Learn more at <https://www.olpls.org/year-of-st-joseph>.

Join us in praying the Litany of St. Joseph before all weekend Masses during March.

Do you recognize these images of St. Joseph from our church & school?

The Gospel for this Fourth Sunday of Lent contains the famous passage from John 3:16 – For God so loved the world.... but it also has Jesus saying to Nicodemus: Just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the desert, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, so that everyone who believes in him may have eternal life. Jesus is making a connection to his own death on the Cross and the fact that he will be lifted up for the salvation of all, a true example of God's great love for us. We are also reminded in this passage that through our belief in Jesus we will share in the gift of eternal life, for God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him. Through Jesus, the true light has been revealed to us and we are invited to turn away from darkness and live in the light.

This Fourth Sunday of Lent is also known as Laetare Sunday. Laetare means "Rejoice" and helps set a tone of joyful anticipation in a season that is otherwise focused on repentance and preparation. As we get closer to the celebration of the Easter mystery, let us always remember that there is reason for us to rejoice!

Thanks to everyone who supported our recent Hope-In-Motion service project, Crazy Cash Giveaway, and second collection to support those in need through our partnership with Catholic Charities. We are grateful for your generosity and participation.

We also continue our "Blessing Box" Lenten service project to support education scholarships for young people in our sister community in El Salvador. The contributions to your home blessing box can be combined into one check written to Presentation at the end of Lent. All contributions help support the scholarship students throughout the year. Please be generous.

This week we celebrate two great models of faith, St. Patrick (March 17) and St. Joseph (March 19). St. Patrick was an imprisoned slave who escaped back to his native Britain. But he felt called to go back and convert the Irish people to Christianity. He became a priest and bishop and died on March 17, 461. Whether we are Irish or not, may we be inspired by St. Patrick's example of faith and missionary zeal.

On the Feast of St. Joseph, we celebrate Joseph as the earthly father of Jesus and the righteous man who upheld the dignity of Mary. As protector and provider for the Holy Family, Joseph is a model of humility and faith. St. Joseph is the patron of the Universal Church, workers, fathers, and one of the patrons of our diocese. In this Year of St. Joseph, let us especially call upon his intercession. Please check out all the information about St. Joseph on our website.

We are not able to hold our large St. Joseph's Table this year, but next weekend you will be given special prayer cards and Italian treats as you leave Mass and invited to make a donation to support our service partner, Uplift. Please come prepared. Many Blessings!

Ministerio Hispano

Hermanos, que Cristo nos ayude a nacer de nuevo a través de su Santo Espíritu.

En el evangelio de hoy vemos que Jesús se encuentra con un fariseo llamado Nicodemo y éste es quien busca a Jesús, presiente que Jesús viene de Dios. Nicodemo pueden ser todas aquellas personas que buscan de corazón a Jesús, y llegan a encontrarlo, por ello en la narración del evangelista aparece Jesús con largo monólogo donde nos invita a vivir buscando la luz y alejándonos de la oscuridad.

Jesús dice que «Dios amó tanto al mundo que entregó a su Hijo para que todos nos salvemos y tengamos vida eterna». Estamos tan acostumbrados a vivir estresados, a presumir de fe y de amor, que no caemos en la cuenta que la mayoría de las veces lo que hacemos es simplemente una rutina, porque creer en Jesús es poner nuestra mirada en Él en los momentos buenos, pero también en los difíciles y duros, porque si miramos hacia Él nuestra vida será realmente luz. Por eso movidos por el amor de Cristo estamos llamados a compartir nuestro tiempo, espacio y servicio con los hermanos, de otra manera solo creemos que creemos en Dios.

Jesús nos manda continuamente señales de amor, de vida y también de esperanza. Cuando veamos a Cristo en la cruz no pensemos que ha terminado su amor, que ya no puede abrazar, ni acoger, sino que, recordemos que el Padre sigue con sus brazos extendidos para acoger, mecer, abrazar y sostener a todos a aquellos que lo necesiten. Dios ha mandado su Hijo al mundo para que todos podamos acogernos a su amor, nadie nos lo impone, es un acto voluntario, nosotros tenemos que tomar la decisión en libertad, pero cada vez más personas rechazan la luz que viene de Jesús muerto en la cruz y resucitado. Pensemos si buscamos la luz en nuestra vida o nos escondemos en la oscuridad.

En Cristo, Padre Emmanuel Lopez
