This weekend we celebrate the Feast of the Ascension of the Lord. Since this event in Scripture connects closely with Christ's Resurrection and the Feast of Pentecost, many dioceses now celebrate the Ascension on a Sunday so that more people can take part. The Ascension reminds us that after Jesus appeared to the disciples following his Resurrection, he then was taken up into heaven and took his seat at the right hand of God. Before Jesus ascends, he tells his disciples: Go into the whole world and proclaim the gospel to every creature. He tells them that signs will accompany the good works they do in his name. These signs remind them that they have protection against evil and harm, as long as they trust in Christ's presence. While Jesus will no longer be with his disciples in a bodily way, he is still with them as they witness to his love and truth in the world and become his presence for others. Like the first disciples, our primary task is to proclaim the gospel (Good News) of Jesus to all those we encounter and to help make disciples through our example. This can be done in simple, everyday ways. How is God calling each of us to share our faith today?

This Tuesday evening many of the leaders from our parish ministries, committees, and organizations will be gathering for our annual Leadership Dinner. This is a time for us to thank them for their service to our parish, give thanks for the blessings in our parish over the past year, and share any initiatives for the future. We are grateful for all those who give of their time as leaders. Please keep them in your prayers.

A little update on our Portico covering for our north church entrance. The project did receive approval from the city and our contractor has been moving forward with all the specific details. But you may have heard that lumber is in short supply and high demand right now with all the building going on and has also gone up significantly in price. So this has slowed the process. We hope that things will come together very soon and the project will get started. Say a prayer.

This is a Celebrating Stewardship weekend. You can get information and sign up for our June Vacation Bible School for all ages and get your free tickets to our outdoor Spaghetti Dinner & Variety Show on June 5. Check these things out and join the fun as we celebrate our faith and community.

Next weekend we will bring the Easter season to a close with the Feast of Pentecost. This feast reminds us of the powerful gift of the Holy Spirit shared with each of us and our call to use the gifts of the Spirit to build up God's presence in our world. The liturgical color for this feast is red. We invite you to WEAR RED clothing to Mass next weekend as a way to share in the spirit of the Feast.

Many Blessings!

Ministerio Hispano

Hermanos que Jesús nos muestre el camino al cielo para poder alcanzar esta gloria que él nos ganó con su cruz y resurrección.

Nos encontramos en el Monte de los Olivos, en el mismo lugar donde cuarenta días antes, Jesús era entregado por uno de sus discípulos y donde todos los demás le abandonaron. Pero las cosas han cambiado y ya no son los mismos apóstoles de antes, la Resurrección los ha cambiado. Y Jesús se da cuenta de esto, por eso, les da una nueva misión: predicar el evangelio a todos los hombres, suscitar la fe, transmitir la salvación mediante el bautismo: he aquí la misión de los apóstoles después de la Resurrección de salir y encontrar a los hijos de Dios y predicar la fe. Y nosotros católicos somos hoy en día esos apóstoles resucitados.

Es verdad que en nuestras vidas hemos abandonado a Cristo muchas veces, pero eso a Jesús no le importa. Él nos llama a predicar el evangelio con un ardor de caridad que nos obliga a transmitir a los demás la verdad que hemos encontrado; nos dará la fuerza para ser tanto de palabra como de obra un ferviente testimonio del evangelio. Ahora bien, ¿qué nos diferencia a nosotros de los apóstoles? Tenemos la misma fe, la misma caridad, la misma doctrina, el mismo Dios... Pero a veces nos falta su amor apasionado por Cristo, que les llevó a considerar todo basura y nada comparado con Cristo. La experiencia quizá sea diferente entre nosotros y los apóstoles, pero definitivamente nos debe de llevar al mismo fin: La proclamación de su reino y la adherencia a éste.

Hoy es un día de conversión. Hoy es un día de seguir a los apóstoles en su testimonio de vida nueva. Hoy es un día de predicar. Hoy es un día de dar gloria a Jesús por su caridad ardiente y por la salvación que nos dio. No esperemos más, convirtámonos en esos apóstoles resucitados y pidamos esa fe y ese amor que nos convierta también a nosotros en luz y fuego en medio de la oscuridad del mundo.

Bendiciones, Padre Emmanuel López
