Fr. Tom's thoughts

Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while. These words of Jesus in today's Gospel sound very inviting. Jesus intended to spend time with his apostles as they returned from their missionary work. He was offering them the opportunity to get away from all the activity and reflect on their experience. But the people are hungry for more and continue to follow them. Jesus has pity on the crowd and acknowledges that they are like sheep without a shepherd. Jesus speaks from a place of abundant love for those God has put in his path. So he reaches out to them in their need. Jesus models for the apostles and for us that service to others is at the heart of discipleship. In the busyness of our lives, may we find quiet time with our Lord that will renew us for service. And with the events of this past year, may we take time to reflect on the ways God was with us amidst the challenges and disruptions.

As being disciples of Jesus is the call of our faith, I wanted to share with you an excerpt from an article by Dr. Dan R. Ebener. It really focuses on the role each of us play in sharing our faith so that the parish is a fertile ground for forming disciples. I hope you enjoy it.
If the purpose of the parish is to form disciples, we need leaders who can breathe new life into our parishes. Such leadership can emerge from anyone, anywhere. The Church needs leadership because we need "adaptive change", that which cannot happen with an easy fix.

What kind of adaptive change? Spiritual revitalization of the hearts and minds of our people. A deeper sense of lay engagement and conscious participation. Joyful celebrations of the liturgy. A warmer sense of hospitality. A burning passion to share the mission of Jesus. A clearer vision of the Kingdom of God. Dialogue about what matters most. These are challenges in search of leadership. Challenges seek leaders. Leaders seek challenges. The Church needs servant leaders to take up these challenges.

Every summer the parishes of our diocese participate in the annual Missionary Appeal. This is a way for Catholics around the world to share in the important missionary work of the Church. This year our parish was assigned the Andhra Pradesh Social Service Forum from Telangana State in South India. A priest from this group was scheduled to be here next weekend to preach at the Masses for the appeal. We received word last week that because of the pandemic, there is a travel ban from India so the priest will not be able to be here. The group has sent a video that we have made available through our Constant Contacts and on our website. Please take time to view it. We will still take up a second collection next weekend, July 24-25, for the Missionary Appeal. Please be generous.
Many Blessings!

Stewardship

Today's readings are about being chosen and sent. The prophet Amos was chosen by the Lord and sent to use his talents for the people of God. The Gospel recounts the story of the sending of the twelve. In the second reading, St. Paul reminds us that we, too, are chosen. For what have I been chosen? To whom have I been sent? - Stewardship by the Book

Annual Missionary Appeal
Collection Next Weekend July 24-25

Due to the pandemic, the missionary priest from India, Father Kanapala Kiran Kumnar is unable to travel to the U.S. to talk about the work of the Andhra Pradesh Social Service Forum (APSSF). Through a remote appeal, information about the APSSF is provided below. Also, there is a video on our parish website: www.olpls.org

APSSF consists of 15 Diocesan Social Service Societies in the region of Andhra Pradesh and Telangana State, operating and promoting socio-economic development of people and functions as a federation of these service societies. The APSSF promotes and coordinates developmental activities among the dioceses for integrated development of target areas, irrespective of caste, creed and religion. It also voices regional issues to dialogue with the government, donor agencies and other organizations.

The project area is mostly agricultural and is India's main rice producing area. According to the 2011 Census, more than 8 million people live in poverty in Andhra Pradesh and 3 million in Telangana. The APSSF offers training and workshops to the 15 diocesan partners who in turn deliver social services to the poor and marginalized and develop policies and systems to enhance the institutional capacity building of the partner organization and coordinate disaster relief efforts.

I humbly request all the faithful in the parish to help us serve better in taking Christ through our social services to the poor and marginalized of the Telugu region.

-Father Kanapala Kiran Kumnar, Executive Director

Ministerio Hispano

Hermanos el Santo Padre nos recuerda la experiencia de los apóstoles después de la misión en el Evangelio de hoy, en donde ellos están contentos pero cansados. Y Jesús lleno de comprensión quiere darles un poco de alivio. Entonces les lleva a aparte, a un lugar apartado para que puedan reposar un poco. "Muchos entretanto los vieron partir y entendieron... y se les adelantaron". A este punto el evangelista nos ofrece una imagen de Jesús de particular intensidad, 'fotografiando' por así decir sus ojos y recogiendo los sentimientos de su corazón. Pues dice: "Al desembarcar, Jesús vio una gran muchedumbre y se compadeció de ella, porque eran como ovejas sin pastor, y estuvo enseñándoles largo rato".

Continua el Papa Francisco, retomemos los tres verbos de este sugestivo fotograma: VER, TENER COMPASION, Y ENSENAR. Los podemos llamar los "verbos del Pastor" o las acciones de Jesús.

El primero y el segundo están siempre asociados a la actitud de Jesús: de hecho, su mirada no es la de un sociólogo o la de un fotorreportero, porque Él mira siempre "con los ojos de corazón". Estos dos verbos: "ver" y "tener compasión", configuran a Jesús como el Buen Pastor. También su compasión no es solo un sentimiento humano, pero es la conmoción del Mesías en la que se hizo carne la ternura de Dios. Y de esta compasión nace el deseo de Jesús de nutrir a la multitud con el pan de su palabra. O sea, enseñar la palabra de Dios a la gente. Jesús ve; Jesús tiene compasión; Jesús enseña.

Por lo tanto, la caridad de Jesucristo no conoce el ensimismamiento en los propios problemas o dificultades. Jesús no es egoísta, sino que sale de sí mismo para ayudar al otro por amor. Él nos enseña a salir del círculo estrecho del "yo y mis circunstancias", ya sean situaciones o penosas. Él nos ensena a ver la necesidad de los demás y responder con generosidad. Por eso, cuando más queramos encerrarnos en nosotros mismos, levantemos la mirada del corazón y veamos a Cristo en la barca, predicando sin descanso a la humanidad. Imitemos su ejemplo y extendamos su Reino con generosidad y pensemos en lo que realmente vale la pena: la salvación de las almas a nosotros encomendadas. Finalmente, recuerda los verbos o acciones de Jesús para que los practiques esta semana y toda tu vida: Ver, Tener compasión y enseñar a cerca del Reino de los cielos.

En Cristo, Padre Emmanuel Lopez
