Silent Auction Bidding Begins April 19.

The Gospel for this Fourth Sunday of Lent begins with the Pharisees and scribes complaining about Jesus by saying: This man welcomes sinners and eats with them. This complaint leads Jesus to tell the parable of the Prodigal Son. This is one of the most widely known stories in the Gospels. Everyone can relate to the story in some way. Whether we have felt like the younger son who squandered his inheritance but then longed to return home or the older son who was resentful of his younger brother, we can all find hope in the unconditional love of the father. No one is outside the wideness of God's mercy. We are reminded that God always welcomes us back with open arms. In God's eyes, what is lost must be found. As we cherish the mercy and forgiveness extended to us, let us imitate the way of the Father and extend mercy and forgiveness to one another.

This Fourth Sunday of Lent is also known as Laetare Sunday. Laetare means "Rejoice" and helps set a tone of joyful anticipation in a season that is otherwise focused on repentance and preparation. As Easter draws nearer, let us always remember that there is reason for us to rejoice as we look forward to the fullness of new life offered to us by Christ. Go out and do something joyful today to celebrate!

This time of year includes a lot of things that can get our attention – spring weather, spring break, spring training (looks like baseball is going to happen), and March Madness! In the midst of all of this, let's remember that nothing can impact and change our lives like a meaningful Lent. Stay focused, take advantage of our Lenten offerings, and finish strong!

Our annual OLP Auction is Saturday, April 23. This is the largest fundraiser in our community and helps support the ongoing needs of our parish school. While the Auction supports the school, anyone can attend the event, bid on Silent Auction items, or donate items. Please help ensure the success of the Auction by participating in some way. If you own a business or have connections to items of value, please consider donating something for the Auction. Contact the School Office for more information. We are grateful for your support!

Our Parish Synod Listening Session is this Tuesday, March 29, at 6:30 p.m. in the church. We need your input! Please be there.

This weekend there is a second collection for Catholic Relief Services (CRS). CRS is the international service arm of the Catholic Church and is currently responding to the needs of the people in Ukraine. Your support will help provide continued assistance in the midst of this tragedy. You can give directly at www.crs.org.

Stewardship

The stewardship message in the parable of the prodigal son is that it is never too late to become a good steward. Blessed is the elder brother who had been a good steward all along, but blessed, too, is the prodigal, who had to lose all he had in order to understand the value of what he'd been given.

Join us for refreshments and fellowship afterward in the Mulligan Room. Hosted by the Pastoral Council & Stewardship Committee.

What is a synod?

A synod is a meeting or assembly of church leaders and laity of the church. It is a model that includes listening to a broad range of people and then discussing the issues together with the goal of hearing where the Holy Spirit is calling the church. Pope Francis began this two-year global synodal process "Communion, Participation, and Mission" with a Mass at the Vatican on October 10. Every diocese and parish around the world has been invited to participate by holding their own local synod listening session.

Lent

Students are greeted each morning during Lent and throughout the school day by these crosses in the main hallway of the school. They have the opportunity to tie a string on one of the crosses for their special intention. It is a special way to offer up prayers this Lenten season.

Mark your calendars for Stations of the Cross, Friday, April 1 at 6:30 p.m. in the church. OLP School's 7th grade students will lead us in this moving Lenten tradition.

Early Childhood Center

We are looking for some great people who would like to work with young children. If you are interested or know someone who would be good addition to our team give us a call at 816-251-1140. You can also email Catherine Koob, ckoob@olpls.org. We have full-time and part-time positions available.

Why the Stations of the Cross?

Along with icons, stained glass, and statues, it's easy to overlook the other collection of images that decorate most Catholic Churches: the Stations of the Cross. "The Way of the Cross" (in Latin, Via Crucis; or the Via Dolorosa, the "Way of Sorrows") is a devotion that traces the last stage of the journey that Jesus walked in his earthly life: from the Garden of Olives through his death on the Cross.

Where did this practice come from?

Traditions tell of the early Christians retracing the steps of Christ and pilgrims walking this way in Jerusalem. Around the 17th century, knowing that many Christians couldn't travel to the Holy Land, permission was given to local parishes to start creating their own "Stations" of the Cross. We have practiced this tradition (especially during Lent) ever since!

Hermanos la llamada de Jesús nos impulsa a cada uno de nosotros a no detenerse jamás en la superficie de las cosas, sobre todo cuando estamos ante una persona. Estamos llamados a mirar más allá, a centrarnos en el corazón para ver de cuánta generosidad es capaz cada uno. La misericordia de Dios es infinita y se expresa en esta parábola que bien podría llamarse “el Padre misericordioso” pues el mensaje central no está en el hijo que se pierde así mismo y regresa, aunque es de vital importancia, sino, en el padre que ama sin reservas y perdona todo lo que su hijo ha hecho y le regala su misericordia.

Nadie puede ser excluido de la misericordia de Dios. Todos conocen el camino para acceder a ella y la Iglesia es la casa que acoge a todos y no rechaza a nadie. Sus puertas permanecen abiertas de par en par, para que quienes son tocados por la gracia puedan encontrar la certeza del perdón. Cuanto más grande es el pecado, mayor debe ser el amor que la Iglesia expresa hacia quienes se convierten. ¡Con cuánto amor nos mira Jesús! ¡Con cuánto amor cura nuestro corazón pecador! Jamás se asusta de nuestros pecados.

Pensemos en el hijo pródigo que, cuando decidió volver al padre, pensaba hacerle un discurso, pero el padre no lo dejó hablar, lo abrazó. Así es Jesús con nosotros, nos encuentra donde estamos, nos abraza con misericordia y nos purifica con su amor, y finalmente nos recibe en su casa, llamándonos a ser heraldos del evangelio para contar a las naciones todo lo que hemos experimentado de parte de Cristo. Aprendamos pues hermanos a acercarnos a Dios con confianza y recibamos su misericordia.

En Cristo Padre Emmanuel Lopez

Parish Lenten Blessing Box

A Letter from Javier

Warm greetings to all members of Our Lady of the Presentation Parish. I'm enthusiastic about having the opportunity to write to you so that I can thank you for the effort you make to help young people and their families. Without a doubt, I'm amazed by the kindness and graciousness of your hearts to help us the most in need. It fills me with joy to know that the unconditional support you give to young people in San Rafael Cedros is felt everyday. It thrills me so much that I've been able to meet some members of the Parish who have come in several delegations throughout the time I've been a part of the scholarship program. I hope we can see each other here in El Salvador very soon, since we will be waiting for you with so much appreciation. I also hope that we can continue having more sessions in zoom so that we can see you and talk to you. Thanks to all your support, my life has changed significantly, because through your support you're changing the stories of so many people, who have given me their support even though they don't know me, so I want to thank you for that. You've become a light beam that brightens my day-to-day life and which involves everyone who surrounds me. You've shown me the right path, and that has helped me become a good person. It would be hard for me to pay you back all the support you've given me, but without any doubt, you're a role model. There are no words to describe my feelings or the gratitude I feel for all the good moments you've given me. Once again, a million thanks, and may God bless you and your families.

March 27 - Pray for those in El Salvador and around the world who struggle with loss due to violence.
March 28 - Give joy to others by doing something beautiful with a mess today.
March 29 - Give 50¢ to your Blessing Box if you have access to clean drinking water.
March 30 - Pray Dear Jesus, I give you my heart with my acts of love today. Amen.
March 31 - Give 25¢ to your Blessing Box each time you say something nice to others today.
April 1 - Place the money you saved by eating simply today in your Blessing Box .
April 2 - Give as you can today. A year of high school is $300 and $1,050 for college in our Sister Community.
