Thoughts from Fr. Tom

Today's Gospel tells the story of the ten lepers being cleansed by Jesus. The lepers were considered outcasts and had to live separate from others. They trusted in the healing Jesus could bring and they followed his instructions to go show yourselves to the priests so they could once again belong. But the story goes further when one of the lepers, a Samaritan, returns to thank Jesus. He was an outcast as both a leper and a foreigner. Yet, Jesus singles him out for his gratitude and his faith. We separate ourselves from the community when we choose to sin and turn away from God. But we do not have to remain outcasts if we trust in the healing Jesus brings to our lives. With faith, we can experience the healing that comes through Christ and always have reason to be grateful. We could all probably take a little more time thanking God and showing our gratitude for all the wonderful ways God is at work in our lives. May this story always stand as a reminder to turn to God with a grateful heart.

This month the Diocese kicks off the Annual Catholic Appeal (ACA). If you are a registered parishioner, you will be receiving a mailing in the coming weeks from the diocese with information about the ACA and ways you can support it. The ACA provides funding for various ministries in our diocese, including outreach ministries, faith formation for all ages, and all the programs administered by the diocese. The ACA also directly benefits the parishes of our diocese through the services we receive throughout the year. We are all asked to prayerfully consider making a contribution in support of the ACA. Every parish is given a goal for the ACA appeal. If all of us give something, we can easily reach our goal. Please help us do that by making a contribution. Your generosity is appreciated.

Thanks to those who attended our Just Disciple (and Pray) event on September 27. There was great energy and meaningful conversation as we focused on our parish-wide theme for the year. Whenever you see our Just Disciple logo in the bulletin, on signs, or in our various communications, let it serve as a reminder of our call to be faith-filled disciples. When we commit to Just Disciple every day, we help make other disciples through our example.

This weekend there is a second collection For the Poor. This collection helps us provide assistance to those in need throughout the year. As we approach the holidays and winter months, we encounter more requests for assistance. Please be generous. Remember, you can also give to this fund through Online Giving on our website.

The Knights of Columbus are having their annual Tootsie Roll Drive this weekend after all the Masses. The Knights designate all proceeds for the inclusive education program at our grade school called Team Lab. We thank the Knights for their generosity and encourage you to be generous.

Many Blessings!

Stewardship

Jesus healed ten lepers in today's Gospel. Only one (ten percent) came back to say thank you. I, too, have received many blessings from the Lord — indeed, all I am and all I have is gift! How and how often have I remembered to thank Him? - Stewardship by the Book

OLP School

Each week students gather and celebrate Mass together. It is wonderful to have the school staff and students all together. Fr. Tom issues a challenge each week to students that follows the Just Disciple theme for the year. Recently the issued challenge was to spread the spirit of Thanksgiving by thanking those in your life who have helped you get where you are today. Fifth grade students got right to it, writing letters to those who have guided them and helped them grow.

Loaves & Fish: Practical Ways to Help the Poor

Tom Turner was the Director of Bishop Sullivan Center, a social service agency, for 28 years. He retired from there a year ago and now works part-time at Morning Glory Ministries, a service to people who are homeless that operates out of the Cathedral. He was an adjunct teacher in Philosophy of Ethics at Avila University for 27 years. He holds Master degrees in Philosophy and Theology from the Catholic University of America.

La clave para sanar.

A lo largo de mis años en los Estados Unidos he visitado muchos restaurantes de diferentes pases para probar sus platillos típicos. Lamentablemente en casi todos los restaurantes latinos me he encontrado que venden o incluso en algunos lugares regalan amuletos de la buena suerte. Por ejemplo el medallón de la suerte y lo anuncian como la solución a todos los problemas. Creo que Dios nos regalo mas de dos neuronas para poder darnos cuenta de que eso es imposible, humanamente solucionar todos los problemas es imposible porque como dijo monseñor Blaset "La vida es un misterio que hay que vivir y no un misterio que hay que resolver".

Pero como dijo Naaman este es el único Dios al que debemos rendirle honor y gloria, se supone que si estamos aquí es por que creemos o queremos creer plenamente en el Dios verdadero. Si ustedes ya creen en Dios no necesitan un medallón de la suerte lo que necesitan es acercarse mas a Dios y si lo que andan buscando es que Dios les incremente su fe están en el mejor Lugar.

Antropológicamente el ser humano es un ser religioso, que busca tener una divinidad un ser supremo a quien adorar, fuimos hechos de esta manera, por lo tanto, si no adoramos a Dios, vamos a sentir la necesidad de crearnos un dios. Es por eso que muchas personas adoran diferentes cosas en la vida, y peor aun no sabe que esas cosas se han convertido en su deidad.

Queridos hermanos y hermanas mi invitación hoy y siempre es abandonarnos en las manos poderosas de nuestro Dios porque como dice el salmo 97 El Señor nos ha mostrado su amor y su lealtad.

NEWS FROM EL SALVADOR

A Letter From Esmeralda

Dear people of the church:

I hope you are very well, it is a pleasure for me to greet you. I am the student Esmeralda. I am a Second year high school student studying health at the National Institute San Rafael Cedros. I am a 17 year-old girl who wants all her goals.

First and foremost, thank you for keeping an eye on us, the young participants of the scholarship program, and also thank you for the help and new opportunities they give us students.

I am proud of myself and of you the people of the church at knowing that you are looking out for us, the students, gives me encouragement and a lot of motivation to move forward. I know that by putting my faith in God, I will achieve my goals. Thank you very much and wish you from me that our Lord Jesus Christ bless you and take care of you.
