Thoughts from Fr. Tom

This weekend we gather for Palm/Passion Sunday and begin our celebrations of Holy Week with the procession of palms and the reading of the story of Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem. We recall the excitement of the crowd as we wave our palms and sing our hosannas. But the mood quickly changes as the readings for Mass begin. We hear the story of our Lord's Passion and remember that his entry into Jerusalem ultimately led to his condemnation and death. This Holy Week, we are invited to journey with Jesus so that we can experience the fullness of his Resurrection at Easter. As St. Andrew of Crete once wrote: Let us spread before his feet, not garments or soulless olive branches, which delight the eye for a few hours and then wither, but ourselves, clothed in his grace, or rather, clothed completely in him. Are we willing to journey with Jesus and give ourselves completely to Him?

As we enter into Holy Week, we are reminded that this is the most sacred time of the church year. We gather several times during the week to enter more fully into the dying and rising of Jesus. Our liturgies for these days are full of ritual and symbol that point to the deep meaning of our Christian faith. On Holy Thursday, we gather for the Mass of the Lord's Supper and hear the story of Jesus giving himself to his disciples at the Last Supper. We remember that our faith is rooted in service as we imitate Jesus in the washing of feet. On Good Friday, we gather for Stations of the Cross at 3:00 p.m. and then again in the evening for Veneration of the Cross. This is a powerful ritual which reminds us that the Cross is not just an instrument of death, but also the means of our salvation. On Holy Saturday night we gather around the fire for the great Easter Vigil as we prepare to hear the stories of our faith and celebrate the Sacraments of Initiation with those joining our faith. These three days are called the sacred Triduum (which means three) and are really one celebration that leads us to the light of Easter morning. Although we are all busy and there are many things that get our attention, I encourage you to set aside time in your schedule to be with us this week. It is definitely life changing and will make your celebration of Easter more meaningful. Please take note of the Holy Week schedule included in this bulletin and posted online and plan to join us.

Please keep the elect and candidates, who will be officially joining our church at the Easter Vigil, in your prayers.

News From El Salvador

A letter from Josue

I am writing to you to express my most sincere gratitude for your support of students in continuing their studies so that they can achieve their dreams and become professionals in the future. Thank you for the help you provide us. It is an honor for me to be in the CIS Scholarship program to be able to achieve my dreams with the help of CIS and, thanks to God, I can overcome obstacles and be someone in life.

I have no words to express how grateful I am to you, without your help my dreams would not have been possible. I would also like to thank everyone that helps the students so that they can achieve what they want on this path. We always meet unique people who teach us through their acts of kindness. If you bless someone with words, you will reap more blessings. God will multiply what you are doing for these students. It will leave a beautiful imprint on their minds that will never be erased. I am happy I have learned a lot from you. Thank you for your support.

Pray. Fast. Give.

“¡Hosanna! ¡Viva el Hijo de David!
¡Bendito el que viene en nombre del
Señor! ¡Hosanna en el cielo!”

Cuarenta días y cuarenta noches hemos venido acompañando con nuestra oración, penitencia, y limosnas a Jesús con su cruz acuestas para que el nos rescate de la muerte eterna.

Bendito el que viene en nombre del Señor, muchas veces aceptamos a Dios en nuestras vidas con este mismo entusiasmo que los Israelitas recibieron a Jesús en su ciudad; pero luego lo negamos o lo sacamos de nuestras vidas. Como lo hicieron esos mismo Israelitas que lo recibieron el domingo de ramos y tres a cuatro diez después gritaban a todo pulmón crucifiquenlo.

Que triste es ver que personas muy entregadas a la Iglesia y muy perseverantes a la oración griten con sus acciones crucifiquenlo. Cuando deberíamos de ser las personas que nos lamentarnos por el sufrimiento que el tuvo que padecer para rescatarnos de la muerte. El suplicio del barón de dolores no acaba aquí hoy apenas acaba de entrar a la ciudad santa lo mas doloroso esta por venir. Acompañémoslo esta Semana Santa con nuestro ayuno de comida, malas palabras, enojos, regaños, odios, he indiferencias.

A las tres de la tarde el viernes santo elevemos una oración porque el momento mas importante en nuestra salvación es ese momento en que nuestro salvador inhala su ultimo respiro, entregando todo su ser en la cruz nos compra a la nueva vida. La vida que no esta contaminada por la muerte y que solo le pertenecemos a Dios. Esta es la vida por la que vale la pena luchar, por la vida que no se acaba y donde no hay sufrimiento pena ni dolor.

Mas que buscar una religión que nos entretenga y nos haga pasar un momento alegre, perseveremos aquí donde estamos ahora pero cada día intentando y esforzándonos de ser mas humanos, mas cristianos y mas católicos.
