Thoughts from Fr. Tom

This weekend we celebrate the Feast of the Ascension of the Lord. For several years now, in most dioceses in the United States it is no longer celebrated as a holy day on a Thursday but now takes the place of the Seventh Sunday of Easter so that more people can share in this important feast. The Ascension reminds us that Jesus returned to his rightful place in heaven but his Ascension also makes possible a new way for him to be present to the disciples through the promised gift of the Holy Spirit. The first reading from the Acts of the Apostles provides some details of the event as he was lifted up, and a cloud took him from their sight. But the reading ends with the promise that Jesus will return. The Gospel from Matthew makes no mention of Jesus' Ascension but highlights his great commission as he tells the disciples to Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations... He then ends by saying: I am with you always, until the end of the age. As we celebrate Jesus' Ascension, let us ascend with him through the ways we live and share our faith and trust that he is with us always.

Thanks to everyone who supported the Detergent & Diaper Drive this weekend which provides these needed items to the families served by our service partner, Operation Breakthrough. Our supply of items will help them keep things stocked throughout the critical summer months. In past years, they have been so appreciative of our efforts. We are grateful for all the ways you live the spirit of service and share with others. If you didn't get a chance to donate items, you can make a monetary donation to help Operation Breakthrough purchase items.

This weekend is one of our Celebrating Stewardship weekends. These designated weekends throughout the year are a way to learn about many of our ministries and ways you can get involved. This is also a time for us to build community and gather with others for refreshments and drinks. We hope you take advantage of these opportunities to foster the spirit of stewardship in our parish. We are grateful to Jane O'Brien and our Hospitality Committee who make these weekends possible. Our next Celebrating Stewardship weekend will be in August. Be sure to check out ways you can share your gifts in our parish.

Next weekend is the Feast of Pentecost. The word Pentecost in Greek literally means "fiftieth", so it marks the end of the 50 days of the Easter season. I hope this has been a fruitful 50 days for you filled with joy and new life. The Feast of Pentecost calls us to continue sharing the joy of Christ's Resurrection every day of our life. The liturgical color for Pentecost is red. We invite you to WEAR RED next weekend to get in the spirit of the feast day and enhance our worship environment.

Many Blessings!

Stewardship

Jesus ascended into heaven, blessing His disciples and promising that they would soon receive the power of the Holy Spirit. We who have received that promised gift of the Spirit are now empowered to be His witnesses to the ends of the earth — to use our time and talents to spread the good news of salvation. - Stewardship by the Book

Ministerio Hispano

La ascensión del Señor y el séptimo domingo de pascua

Oficialmente la ascensión del señor se celebró el jueves de esta semana y hoy celebramos el séptimo domingo del tiempo pascual; en ambos evangelios Jesús da gracias a Dios Padre por la misión que le encomendó es esta tierra. Primero da gracias a Dios padre no necesariamente por el mundo, pero por los que están en el mundo, por las personas. La misión llegó a su final, su presencia física se acabó, de ahora en adelante habrá una forma más fácil de invocar su presencia.

Nuestro Redentor Jesucristo regresó a la presencia del padre donde se encontraba antes de venir a salvarnos, ese es el lugar del Hijo por la eternidad. Ahora que Jesús está a la derecha del padre su omnipresencia es más fácil de entender porque con una oración hecha con fe él estará presente en cualquier lugar inmediatamente y en múltiples lugares a la misma vez.
