Thoughts from Fr. Tom

The Gospel for this Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time contains warnings from Jesus about the total commitment required to be his follower and to proclaim the Gospel message. Jesus goes as far as to say, whoever loves father or mother...son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. And whoever does not take up his cross and follow after me is not worthy of me. Following Jesus is to come before any other priorities in life. While this may seem harsh at first, what Jesus is telling us is that if we put him first in our lives then when we love family and neighbors or welcome friends and strangers, we experience Christ himself. This is a reward beyond anything we can imagine and leads us to a share in eternal life. As we gather to receive the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist, let us remember our call to bring his presence to others and always bear the good fruit of our faith.

This Tuesday is the Fourth of July holiday in our nation. Many of us will be gathering with friends and family and enjoying fun activities, food, and fireworks. But this is also an important time for us to give thanks for our nation and all the freedoms we enjoy as a people. While often times our country seems divided, we should all be grateful for the fact we can express our opinion, worship freely, and have a say in how our country is run. And we should all unite in an effort to make things better. Be sure to take time to pray for our country, our elected officials, those who serve in the military to protect our freedoms, and all citizens of the United States. As disciples of Jesus, we also remember our call to care for one another, especially the most vulnerable among us. Let us also pray for those around the world who are denied freedom or oppressed by war and persecution. We can only achieve greatness through our willingness to serve one another. In celebration of the 4th of July, we will have a special Mass on the holiday this Tuesday at 9:00 a.m. Please join us as we give thanks to God for all our blessings. Happy 4th!

A group of teens and adult chaperones from our parish will be leaving later this week for the Steubenville Youth Conference in Springfield. This will be a great opportunity for them to hear dynamic speakers and join with other youth from around the region for faith enrichment. Please keep them in your prayers.

Can you believe that it is already July? The summer goes fast. I hope you are getting a chance for some rest and relaxation. We all need to step away – retreat – from the busyness of our lives and the summer months are a

Stewardship

Both the first reading and the Gospel today speak of hospitality and welcome. Our ministers of hospitality are a most visible example of using one's time and talents to welcome the people of God. But the Gospel assures us that all who give even just "a cup of cold water" to one of His lowliest ones will be rewarded. - Stewardship by the Book

Dar sin mirar a quien y con el todo poderoso tendrás un cien.

Pareciera que las lecturas de hoy se centran en el compartir las bendiciones que hemos recibido de parte de Dios. Pero mas que solo compartir es darle el tiempo a Dios, pero sin olvidar al pobre y al necesitado.

Vemos que esta familia que hospedaba a Eliseo lo hacia con amor y un amor desinteresado, sin pedir nada a cambio, pero como las mismas lecturas nos revelarán hoy por hospedar a un profeta recibieron recompensa de profeta. Otro aspecto intuitivo de esta familia es que tenían una solvencia económica estable, no parece que fueran de los mas pobres. Lo que si vemos es que les faltaba algo que ellos no podían solución o comprar y era la felicidad de la familia, un hijo. EL profeta se da cuenta que no tienen hijos y es eso lo que el les anuncia dentro de un año tendrán un bebe.

La familia es un regalo que Dios nos da para amarla, cuidarla y protegerla. Jesús viene y nos exhorta a seguir la jerarquía del amor. Si, amar a la familia pero que no se vuelva un obstáculo para poner primero a nuestro creador Dios. Primero amar a Dios sobre todas las cosas. Dios creo el mundo en seis días y el séptimo descanso. Podemos y debemos trabajar por seis días para vivir una vida digna y mantener nuestra familia, pero sin olvidar a nuestro creador y el séptimo día ir a su casa a visitarlo y darle

Queridos hermanos y hermanas que las bendiciones materiales, espirituales, ni la familia misma se vuelvan un obstáculo en nuestro camino a la salvación. Debería de ser todo lo contrario que los que Dios me a dado me sirva como instrumentos para facilitar mi cercanía con Dios y reforzar mi conexión con mi creador.
