HUMAN TRAFFICKING

WHAT IS HUMAN TRAFFICKING?

Human trafficking involves the use of force, fraud, or coercion to obtain some type of labor or commercial sex act. Every year, millions of men, women, and children are trafficked worldwide – including right here in the United States. It can happen in any community and victims can be any age, race, gender, or nationality.

WHY SHOULD I HELP?

Modern-day slavery—where men, women, and children are bought and sold like merchandise— inherently rejects this principle, showing absolute contempt for human beings. For this reason, eliminating human trafficking and empowering survivors has been a historic concern of the Catholic Church.

We each have a responsibility to fight against the violation and degradation of our brothers and sisters. Commitment to end slavery in all its forms is rooted in the Catechism of the Church, which forbids any act leading to the enslavement of humans—a sin against a person's dignity and fundamental human rights (2414). This commitment was reaffirmed during the Second Vatican Council, when the Church stated that "slavery, prostitution, the selling of women and children, [and] disgraceful working conditions where [people] are treated as mere tools for profit" are "infamies" and a "supreme dishonor to the creator."

Thoughts from Fr. Tom

The Gospel we hear today shares the story of Jesus calming the storm and walking on the water. While the disciples respond in fear when they see Jesus, his response to them is: Take courage, it is I; do not be afraid. Then Peter asks Jesus: Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water. When Jesus says – Come! - Peter ventures out on the water but becomes frightened and begins to sink. Jesus saves him and says: O you of little faith, why did you doubt? Peter reminds us that when we keep our eyes on Jesus and trust him, anything is possible. But when we become frightened and shift our focus to the storms that come our way in life, we will falter and sink. Jesus is always there to save us, so as we journey through life, let's place our trust in him and allow the Lord of heaven and earth to calm the storms.

This is Back-to-School week for the students in our parish grade school as well as many other schools in the area. This Monday, August 14, is our Back-to-School Open House from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m. Classes begin on Wednesday, August 16. This is always an exciting time of year as the students return for a new school year. We are blessed to be in a parish community that is committed to providing a quality, Catholic education for those in our area desiring a Catholic school. We are especially grateful for the continued support of our parishioners, which makes our school possible.

Although our Early Childhood Center stays open all year, many of our Pre-K children will also be starting another school year. The ECC "Meet the Teacher" Open House is this Monday, August 14, from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m.

We have been blessed with growth in our grade school, especially the last few years and have maintained full capacity for our ECC the last several years. Between our grade school and ECC we will have nearly 800 children on our campus during the week this year. This is a big undertaking as well as an incredible blessing. Please keep our students, ECC children, teachers, and staff in your prayers as they embark on another year of learning and growing.

This Tuesday, August 15, we will celebrate the Feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Masses for the holy day are at 6:30 a.m., 8:15a.m., and 6:00 p.m. Our grade school will not be in session yet, so all of our Masses for the holy day should have plenty of seating. Please join us as we honor our Blessed Mother and ask

Dios viene a nuestro encuentro

A la largo de varias semanas emos venido escuchando varias parábolas que tratan de explicarnos o comparar el reino de Dios. La semana pasada escuchamos como Jesús invita a sus tres discípulos elegidos a subir a la montaña y se trasfiguro ante ellos y con eso les confirmo su misión en la tierra. Es

Jesús quine viene a nosotros y se encuentra con nosotros e nuestra realidad y diario vivir.

En todas las parábolas es Jesús el autor principal, no podemos alardear de que nosotros ya nos hemos encontrado con Jesús porque es el que ha tomado la iniciativa, es él que se mueve hacia a nosotros. En la primera lectura del día de hoy tenemos otro claro ejemplo como Dios pasa frente a el profeta Elías, el solo salió de su cueva y vio pasar al Dios.

Hoy el Señor nos recuerda en su manifestación al profeta Elías que Dios es suavidad, calma como un rocío de la mañana y que muchas veces no lo encontramos porque lo buscamos en el lugar y momento equivocado. El viene a nosotros en el murmullo de una brisa suave.

Si nos dejamos encontrar por él, el viene a nosotros incluso caminando sobre el agua y hasta le podemos pedir que nos mande a nosotros a caminar sobre el agua hacia él. Pero eso requiere de fe y una fe fuerte concentrada y arraigada solo en el mismo Jesús que es el camino la verdad y la vida por lo tanto su palabra tiene poder.

Mis queridos hermanos y hermanas escuchen el mandato de Dios y no dudemos, él nos llama como llamo a Pedro, “ven” ven a mí, ven si estas cansado, ven si quieres experimentar mi amor. Dios nos invita vallamos a él y no dudemos más de su palabra.

Padre Angel
