We all have a nature that comes with some pre-packaged habits of thinking, feeling, acting and reacting which is defined as our temperament. In this retreat, participants gain insights to their primary and secondary temperaments and how they influence communication styles, interactions and responses to those we love. We will discover more of the woman God created us to be by claiming and taming the common strengths, weaknesses, motivators, and contributions of our temperament so it can be aimed towards growth in our relationships, including our relationship with God and with ourselves.

Meet our Presenter: Hannah Dustman

Hannah is a Certified Catholic Coach, trained Clifton Strengths and temperaments coach, and workshop facilitator. She also serves as a course instructor for coaches-in-training and as the Director of Client Engagement for Metanoia Catholic. Coming to Metanoia Catholic with a background in college campus ministry as a FOCUS (Fellowship of Catholic University Students) alum, Hannah finds great joy and purpose in helping others discern and understand the origin of their dreams and how the Lord might be speaking to them through their unique motivations and desires.

Thoughts from Fr. Tom

In the Gospel today, Jesus shares a parable that many people have a hard time swallowing. In our modern world, we value fairness and equality. But even in Jesus' time, those hearing this parable would have thought it unfair that the laborers who only worked one hour at the end of the day would get paid the same wage as those who worked all day and bore the day's burden and the heat. By comparing God to the landowner in this parable, Jesus is reminding us of the generosity of God. The landowner did not cheat those who worked all day because he paid them the agreed upon wage. He was only being generous to those who were hired at the end of the day. They have the same needs as all the others and in God's world they should not be deprived of what they need so that others can have more. In the end, we should all be grateful that we are recipients of God's generosity.

This coming Thursday, September 28, is our "Encounter Joy" Parish Evening of Reflection at 6:30 p.m. in the church. We will focus on our parish-wide theme for the year and reflect on ways we can encounter joy through our relationship with Jesus so that we can be sources of joy in our encounters with others. We invite and really encourage everyone in the parish to attend. Please take time to join us as we grow in our faith together. Your presence will make a difference!

Next weekend begins the month of October. In the Catholic Church, October is traditionally dedicated to our Blessed Mother. We will be praying the Rosary before each weekend Mass during October in honor of our Blessed Mother. Please try to arrive earlier to Mass so you can join in the prayer. In praying the Rosary, we unite with our Blessed Mother in contemplating the mysteries of Christ's life and our call to be faithful disciples. The Rosary is a great prayer to say each day individually, with others, or as a family.

October is also designated Respect Life Month in the Catholic Church and next weekend, the first Sunday of the month, is Respect Life Sunday. This is an opportunity for us to focus on our call to recognize the sacredness and dignity of all human life. As we pray to end all the destructive ways life is threatened, please keep in your prayers the unborn, poor, elderly, sick, imprisoned, immigrants, persecuted Christians and other religious or ethnic groups, and those affected by war and violence. Our Life & Justice Committee is also helping raise awareness about various life issues by focusing on monthly topics and activities.

Thanks to all those who generously responded to the second collection last weekend for our sister community in

La misericordia

La distribución de cualquier cosa lo que sue-na más justo es la distribución igualitaria, pero en realidad la más justa es la distribución equitativa porque esa le da a cada miembro de acuerdo con su necesidad.

La vida es un misterio sobre todo en la medida que fallamos y queremos no ser tratados justa o equitati-vamente sino con misericordia y compasión. Pero es normal que seamos castigados por nuestras faltas y recompensados por nuestros logros.

Las parábolas que Jesús uso durante su vida pública son para que la gente local entienda mejor el mensaje que él que-ría transmitir. Como por ejemplo esta que utilizo el día de hoy del propietario que salió al amanecer, a media mañana, al caer la tarde, a buscar trabajadores para su viña. El propietario de la viña acordó un pago generoso con todas las personas que el contrato y envió a trabajar a su viña y ellos todos aceptaron.

El inconveniente o la inconformidad surgió al atardecer en el momento del pago; a pesar de que el dueño de la viña les está pagando lo acordado con cada uno de ellos por la labor del día; pero pareciera que lo que les molesta no es pago sino la generosidad del dueño de la viña.

Esta actitud de los trabajadores que escuchamos o leemos en el evangelio de hoy es algo como dice la expresión “es pan década en la sociedad”. Muchas personas no son agradecidas con Dios por que se comparan con lo que el vecino o el hermano tiene y esto parece que les ciega o impide la posibilidad de ver que ellos de una u otra manera han recibido de la misericordia de Dios más de lo que merecen en esta vida.

Mejor como dice la parábola tomemos lo que nos corresponde y demos gracias por lo que ya emos recibido que es más de lo que nuestro trabajo o actitud merece.

News From El Salvador

Meet Sayra

Sayra is a third year university student. It is her dream to be able to provide a pharmacy and health education in her community so people don't have to travel such a great distance to receive the service they need. When asked “what impact has the scholarship program has on your life?”
Sayra responded:

“If I hadn't been able to continue my university studies, I would have had to look for a trade or informal job to be able to survive and help my father. I give thanks for the opportunity that allows me to be part of the scholarship program as I've learned many new things and developed new abilities and knowledge that will serve me in life. Equally, my family thanks you because you're allowing me to create a good future for myself. I'm giving my best effort so that all the people who are supporting me in this moment of my life will be proud.”
