A Journey to Joy

In today's Second Reading,
St. Paul tells us: Rejoice always! Pray without ceasing.

The season of Advent moves us
to seek joy in our daily lives.
Our commitment to prayer helps us share this joy with others.

Who needs you to be a source of joy this week?

I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and your joy may be complete.
John 15:11

The O Antiphons

Beginning December 17, the Church prays the O Antiphons each evening. Use these antiphons in your prayer this week. The O Antiphons inspired many Advent hymns, the most familiar of which is O Come, O Come, Emmanuel.

December 17: O Sapientia

O Wisdom, O holy Word of God, you govern all creation with your strong yet tender care. Come and show your people the way to salvation.

December 18: O Adonai

O Sacred Lord of ancient Israel, who showed yourself to Moses in the burning bush, who gave him the holy law on Sinai mountain: Come, stretch out your strong hand to set us free.

December 19: O Radix Jesse

O Flower of Jesse's stem, you have been raised up as a sign for all peoples; kings stand silent in your presence; the nations bow down in worship before you. Come, let nothing keep you from coming to our aid.

December 20: O Clavis David

O Key of David, O royal Power of Israel controlling at your will the gate of heaven: Come, break down the prison walls of death for those who dwell in darkness and the shadow of death, and lead your captive people into freedom.

December 21: O Oriens

O Radiant Dawn, splendor of eternal light, sun of justice: Come, shine on those who dwell in darkness and the shadow of death.

December 22: O Rex Gentium

O King of all the Nations, the only joy of every human heart; O keystone of the mighty arch of man, come and save the creature you fashioned from the dust.

December 23: O Emmanuel

O Emmanuel, king and lawgiver, desire of the nations, Savior of all people, come and set us free, Lord our God.

Merry Christmas! ¡Feliz Navidad!

May the joy of Christ's birth bring you and your family the gift of peace and hope throughout the year.

Father Tom, Father Angel and the Staff of Presentation Parish invite you to join us for Christmas Masses.

Thoughts from Fr. Tom

Today we hear from the Gospel of John and his introduction of John the Baptist: A man named John was sent from God. He came for testimony, to testify to the light, so that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but came to testify to the light. Once again, it is clear that John knew who he was and did not come seeking his own glory but rather to prepare the way for Christ so that others might know him. In a reflection about John the Baptist, St. Augustine wrote: To prepare the way means to pray well; it means thinking humbly of oneself. We should take our lesson from John the Baptist. He is thought to be the Christ; he declares he is not what they think. He does not take advantage of their mistake to further himself. May we continue to prepare the way for Christ this Advent season by praying well and humbling ourselves so that others may know the light of Christ through us.

If you have not done so already, please consider a financial gift to the diocese through the Annual Catholic Appeal (ACA). The ACA benefits all parishes of the diocese through various services and ministries. Every parish is given a goal to reach for the ACA based on the annual giving to the parish. Our parish goal this year is $87,581. We are about two-thirds of the way to our goal. As of last week, we have had 140 parish households donate about $56,000. Any amount you can give is appreciated. The new policy this year is that if a parish does not meet its goal, the parish will need to pay the difference. You can send your contribution directly to the diocese using the envelope mailed to all registered households or by picking one up in the Gathering space. Thank you for your support of the ACA.

I mentioned at the beginning of Advent that this year the season is as short as it can be – only 22 days. We are in the home stretch, but there is still time to make Advent meaningful. Take some extra time for prayer this week. Use our Encounter Great Joy prayer booklet. Or in this season of gift giving, make a Year-End Gift or special Christmas Offering to the parish to give thanks for God's blessings.

Please take note of the Mass schedule for next weekend. Because Christmas Eve falls on a Sunday and that Sunday is also the Fourth Sunday of Advent, we will need to make some adjustments to the schedule. We will have Masses on Saturday, December 23 at 4:30 p.m. and Sunday, December 24, at 8:00 a.m. to celebrate the Fourth Sunday of Advent. There will be NO 10:00am or NOON MASS NEXT SUNDAY.

Christmas Eve Masses begin at 2:00 p.m. on Sunday, December 24. Please see the bulletin for all the Christmas Mass times.

As I know many will be traveling next weekend, please stay safe and have a blessed Christmas.

Many Blessings!

Book Fair Week

Acts of the Apostles says that Stephen was a man filled with grace and power, who worked great wonders among the people. Certain Jews, members of the Synagogue of Roman Freedmen, debated with Stephen, but proved no match for the wisdom and spirit with which he spoke. They persuaded others to make the charge of blasphemy against him. He was seized and carried before the Sanhedrin.

For his joyful witness to Jesus, he was stoned to death.

Saint Stephen's feast day is celebrated on December 26.

He is the patron of deacons.

How Does BeFriender Ministry Make A Difference? by Chaplain Kay Sorvik

"We have a resident nearing 100 years old. For many years she lived in the Independent Living part of our campus. Now she lives in Skilled Care in order to have the daily care and support she needs. Progressing from Independent Living to Skilled Care is hard. The resident realized she needed the support of others, that she had become more dependent on others. That can be isolating as daily interactions with friends also decreases. Fortunately, with BeFrienders in our community, she was connected with a BeFriender. Now the resident can hardly wait for her BeFriender to visit. Personal interaction is so important. Even if there are times our resident and BeFriender don't talk much, the gift of presence is something she is grateful for."

Consider this way of strengthening your "joy muscle:" Light a candle and take some time alone every night to reflect back on the day, asking: "Was joy offered to me today? Was it so subtle and simple that I missed it? Where
