Thoughts from Fr. Tom

This weekend we enter a stretch of Ordinary Time that falls between the Christmas season and the beginning of Lent. A resource I read recently put it this way: After the lights and carols of Christmas, Ordinary Time – which actually means counted time (we number the weeks) – can seem so, well, ordinary. But it is in the ordinary days of our ordinary lives that God asks us to build his Kingdom. This weekend we hear about the importance of being called. First, Samuel is called by the Lord and answers readily with: Here I am. You called me. In the Gospel, John the Baptist identifies Jesus as the Lamb of God and immediately two of John's disciples begin to follow Jesus. Andrew, one of the two, finds his own brother Simon Peter and tells him: We have found the Messiah. The call of God comes in different ways, sometimes dramatic and sometimes in the ordinary events of our day to day experiences. Regardless of how we are called, it should lead us to respond with our lives and share the good news of Jesus with others.

The season of "Winter" Ordinary Time is short this year with Lent only a month away. But as we begin a new year, there are also new opportunities to grow in our faith. In the next couple of weeks, you can join a 3-session scripture study of John's Gospel and take part in discussion groups for the Matthew Kelly book we handed out at Christmas – The Rocking Chair Prophet. I encourage you to participate. And mark your calendars now for our 3-evening Lenten Mission – February 26, 27, and 28. See the bulletin for more details.

This is an exciting time of year as many of our children and teens are preparing to receive Sacraments and those adults in the RCIA are entering a more committed time in preparation for joining the Catholic faith at Easter. We have over 100 children preparing for their First Eucharist. We have over 70 high school youth preparing for the Sacrament of Confirmation. And we have about 20 adults and their children preparing to be received in the Church at Easter. Those preparing to receive these sacraments are wonderful signs of God's presence. Please keep all of them in your prayers.

This week there are several observances that need our prayer and attention. This Monday, January 15, is the national observance of Martin Luther King, Jr. Let us continue praying for an end to the racial hatred and division in our nation. January 18-25 is the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. Say a prayer that the division between Christians can be healed. Next Monday, January 22, is the anniversary of the Roe v. Wade decision. With the overturning of that decision, this is now marked as a day of prayer for the full restoration of the legal guarantee of the right to life and of penance for the violations to the dignity of the human person. Our prayers make a difference.
Many Blessings!

Stewardship

In today's first reading, we hear Samuel respond eagerly, "Here I am!" each time the Lord calls him. May we, too, be listening for the call of God in our lives and be ready to say like the psalmist, "Here am I, Lord; I come to do your will." - Stewardship by the Book

May you "Encounter Joy" in the new year!

I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and your joy may be complete.
John 15:11.

THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN JOY AND HAPPINESS

And what is the difference between joy and happiness?

- Happiness is on the face. Joy is in the heart.
- Happiness is of the moment. Joy is of the soul.
- Happiness reacts. Joy transcends.
- Happiness hugs hello. Joy runs deep and overflows.
- Happiness comes and goes blithely along its way. Joy is a practice and a behavior. It's deliberate and intentional.
- Happiness is a balm. "Don't worry, be happy." Joy is profound and Scriptural. "Don't worry, rejoice."
- Happiness is an outward expression. Joy is an inner feeling.
- Joy endures hardship and trials and connects with meaning and purpose. Joy embraces peace and contentment, joy is a fruit of the Spirit rooted in faith.

A person pursues happiness but chooses joy. The difference between joy and happiness lives in the mind and heart.

Practice joy. Know joy. Live joy. Encounter Joy!

Benedict corrected the friars with humility and charity. Once he corrected a novice and assigned him penance only to learn that the novice was not the guilty party. Benedict immediately knelt down before the novice and asked his pardon.

His gifts for prayer and the guidance of souls earned him throughout Sicily a reputation for holiness.

After Benedict's death, King Philip III of Spain paid for a special tomb for this holy friar. Canonized in 1807, he is honored as a patron saint by African Americans.

A Listening Presence

BeFriender Information Night January 16

"Thank you for listening." This phrase is the best compliment a BeFriender can receive.

I ran in to a friend after church and asked, "How's it going for you?"

This was not the usual "Hi, how are you?" greeting, so she obviously felt I was expecting more than a "I'm fine" answer. After 10 minutes of hearing about a concern in her life, she said, "Thank you for listening."

BeFrienders experience this often. Whether it's an official BeFriender visit or a friend or family member, we are equipped to know when to keep quiet and when to speak; how to realize that the person I am with needs to talk, when to put on my BeFriender hat and say, "Tell me more." BeFrienders are trained volunteer ministers who provide a caring, listening presence to people in difficult and transitional situations, such as illness, loneliness, or loss of a loved one.

Learn more about becoming a BeFriender at our Information Night this Tuesday, January 16 at 6:30 p.m. in the Etue room. To RSVP, contact Shelli Lange, 816-251-1102.

Ministerio Hispano

Jesús es el Cordero de Dios

Después del tiempo de adviento, la navidad, y la octava de la navidad celebramos la epifanía o manifestación del Señor y también ya emmo celebrados el bautismo del Señor con el que él se embarca en su ministerio publico.

Con el llamado del profeta Samuel iniciamos el segundo domingo del tiempo Ordinario o cotidiano sin restarle importancia a las celebraciones de los santos que celebraremos durante este tiempo y mucho menos restarle solemnidad a cada domingo día del Señor Jesús.

Samuel, Samuel, Samuel, tres veces lo llama el señor y Samuel va a donde Eli a preguntarle que quieres y Eli le dice que él no lo ha llamado y que se vuelva a dormir. Samuel servía al sacerdote Eli y estaba cerca de Dios. Primero, Dios nos puede llamar en cualquier momento y en cualquier circunstancia de la vida, pero el prefiere llamarnos cuando estamos cerca de él.

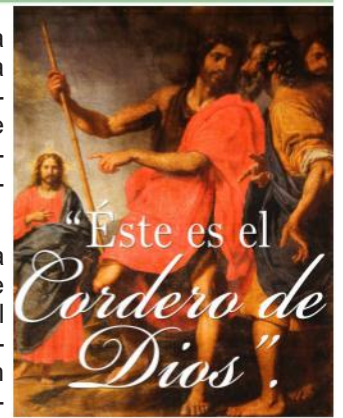

Segundo, él Señor llama cuando quiere, a quien él quiere, el problema está con nosotros que muchas veces no sabemos distinguir la voz de Dios y necesitamos de la ayuda de un director o un acompañante espiritual.

Samuel no savia quien lo llamaba por eso le respondía a la persona equivocada. Pero Eli con su experiencia y como conocía la voz de Dios le dijo a Samuel que responder. "Habla, Señor tu siervo te escucha".

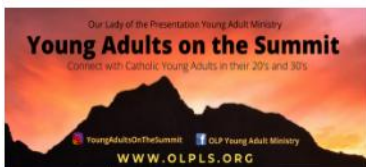

Juan el Bautista que fue enviado a preparar el camino del Señor, ve pasar a Jesús y dice, "Este es el cordero de Dios", y dos de los discipulos de Juan lo dejaron y se van siguiendo a Jesús; Jesús les pregunta, "¿Qué buscan?" ellos le contestaron: "¿Dónde vives, Rabí? Él les dijo: "Venga a ver". El evangelio cuenta que ellos fueron vieron y se quedaron con el ese día, Jesús vive en el padre.

Todos estamos invitados a venir y ver dónde o mas bien dicho con quien vive Jesús, Jesús vive en el Padre y el Padre vive en Jesús. Si quieres vivir con Jesús y el Padre Dios, tú ya estas invitado o invitada la decisión es tuya. ¿Vendrás?
