Thoughts from Fr. Tom

The Gospel for this weekend may seem a little confusing at first. In his encounter with the Canaanite woman, Jesus appears to be harsh in his response to her. She is asking him to help heal her daughter, but because among the Israelites she was considered a foreigner and outcast, he says: I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. When she continues her pleading, he goes even further by saying: It is not right to take the food of the children and throw it to the dogs. But believing in his compassion, she does not give up. In the end, as with all encounters with Jesus, what matters is faith. Jesus says to her: O woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish. Are there times when we give up on the compassion of Jesus? Is there something in our lives we've given up on too soon? This Gospel may be less about trying to figure out the disposition of Jesus in this encounter and more about our disposition toward Jesus..

This is Back-to-School week for the students in our parish grade school as well as many other schools in the area. This Monday, August 17, is our Back-to-School Open House from 4:30-6:30pm. Classes begin on Wednesday, August 19. This is always an exciting time of year as the students return for a new school year. We are blessed to be in a parish community that is committed to providing a quality, Catholic education for those in our area desiring a Catholic school. We are especially grateful for the continued support of our parishioners, which makes our school possible. Although our Early Childhood Center stays open all year, many of our Pre-K children will also be starting another school year. The ECC "Meet the Teacher" Open House is this Monday, August 17, from 3:30-5:30pm. Our grade school and ECC are a big undertaking as well as an incredible blessing. Please keep our students, ECC children, teachers, and staff in your prayers as they embark on another year of learning and growing.

This weekend we resume our monthly Celebrating Stewardship gatherings after Mass. While the donuts (and cookies) are a great treat, the important part of the gathering is to build community and learn about all that is happening at Presentation. Please take time to check out the ways you can get involved in our parish. This time of year many of our ministries are in need of volunteers. Please consider sharing your gifts. There are also registration tables for many of our children's and youth ministries. We are blessed with a full array of faith formation ministries for all ages, so take advantage of all that we offer.

Please plan to join us this Thursday, August 20, at 6:30pm for a presentation on Amendment 3, which will be on the Missouri ballot this November. This is an opportunity to get informed and see how our Catholic faith can inform us.

Many Blessings!

Fe Inquebrantable

Hoy celebramos el vigésimo domingo. Nuestras lecturas provienen del profeta Isaías 56: 1. 6-7 y Romanos 11: 13-15. 29-32. El Evangelio es según san Mateo 15: 21-28. El Evangelio nos dice que la misericordia de Dios es para todas las personas del mundo entero.

El escenario del Evangelio de hoy es muy importante. Describe a Jesús fuera del territorio judío. Se encuentra en Tiro y Sidón, territorio de los paganos. Este escenario nos muestra que Jesús vino para todos. Todos los pueblos están invitados a adorar al Señor y a conocer sus caminos; es decir, los dones de Dios y su llamado son tanto para judíos como para gentiles.

La humildad y la fe inquebrantable de la mujer cananea nos enseñan que toda vida humana es valiosa y que toda necesidad humana es importante para Dios; la mujer clamaba: "Ten compasión de mí... mi hija está atormentada por un demonio." El pedido que hace esta mujer, es superando el silencio inicial de Jesús y las barreras sociales de su época.

Al reflexionar sobre el clamor persistente de esta mujer, aprendemos que es necesario tener siempre presentes las necesidades de los demás. Ella sentía un amor inmenso por su hija, haciendo suya su desgracia e incluso aceptando el rechazo. Esto refleja cuánto nos ama Dios como hijos suyos.

El encuentro con Jesús transforma nuestras vidas. Nuestro contacto con Él, ya sea en la oración o en su Palabra, hace crecer nuestra fe. Al principio, la mujer era pagana; solo había oído hablar de Jesús como sanador, lo que había despertado en ella una fe incipiente. Más tarde, llegó a postrarse de rodillas y a adorar a Jesús.

Seamos persistentes en la oración. A pesar de los desprecios y el aparente abandono, la mujer persistió en presentar su petición a Jesús. De hecho, nada la hizo desistir. Comprendió que Jesús era su única esperanza y que solo ante Él podía expresar el anhelo apasionado de su alma por la curación de su hija.

Jesús muestra que el reino de Dios es abierto para toda la humanidad, rompiendo los prejuicios de los discípulos y abriendo la puerta a los extranjeros.

Puede que Dios nos esté invitando a ti y a mí a tener una fe más profunda a través de su silencio, de la espera o de la prueba. ¿Podría Dios estar llamándonos a ti y a mí, al igual que a esta mujer, a una humildad heroica y a una confianza inquebrantable?

Gracias a todos por celebrar mis 25 años de sacerdocio. Que Dios los bendiga. Seamos hermanos y amigos eternos en Cristo y en la Santísima Virgen María.

¡Feliz Domingo!

-Padre Pius Wesonga, AJ

Servant of God Nicholas Black Elk

The cause for sainthood of Nicholas Black Elk (1863–1950), an Oglala Lakota medicine man and devoted Catholic catechist, is currently under review by the Vatican. He is being considered for canonization because of his exceptional virtues, his work bringing hundreds of his people to the Catholic faith, and his seamless ability to blend traditional Native American spirituality with Christian teachings.

Black Elk's journey to sainthood features a multi-step process:

- Diocesan Phase: Spearheaded by the Diocese of Rapid City, SD, a local investigation into his life, writings, and deeds concluded in 2019. This phase gathered testimonies and historical records to demonstrate his "heroic virtue".
- Servant of God: With the diocesan phase complete, he was granted the title Servant of God, allowing his cause to be formally evaluated by the Vatican's Dicastery for the Causes of Saints.
- Venerable & Beyond: The Vatican is reviewing the documents to determine if he lived a life of "heroic virtue." If approved, he will be named Venerable. To proceed to Blessed and ultimately Saint, the Church will require the verification of two separate miracles attributed to his intercession.

If canonized, Black Elk would be the first Native American man born in North America to become a saint in the Catholic Church.
