Thoughts from Fr. Tom

In the Gospel today, Jesus acknowledges that sin exists among members of the community and that people will hurt one another. But instead of holding grudges or holding on to anger, Jesus offers some helpful steps for conflict resolution. Start by dealing with things one-on-one, if that doesn't work, involve one or two others, if that doesn't work, then tell the church. Only as a last resort is the person who has done the hurtful act to be treated as an outsider. And remember how Jesus treated outsiders? He welcomed them and extended God's mercy and love to them. The important thing in Jesus' eyes is that members of the community be reconciled and all feel valued by one another. Although not easy to follow, think how many conflicts and hurts could be cleared up if we were willing to listen to Jesus' instruction. Let us remember that Christ is on our midst and go forth to imitate his love and mercy.

This Friday marks the 25th Anniversary of the tragic events of September 11, 2001. Most of us who were around and old enough then, remember where we were when the news of the horrific terrorist attacks flooded the media that morning. We mourned as a nation for the thousands of innocent men, women, and children who perished in the events of that day. September 11th has become a solemn day of remembrance for our country and has been etched in our collective memory. As people of faith, it is also a time to remember the importance of prayer. Although politics and patriotism, along with all of the stories and remembrances, are visible realities on this anniversary, we also take time to pray for the end of violence, hate, and war and long for the peace, especially the peace that only Christ can give. I encourage all of us to take some time this Friday in prayer. You can join us for our regular 8:15am daily Mass, spend some time in our Adoration Chapel between 9am-8pm, stop by the church during the day for some quiet prayer, or gather with family and friends to pray the Rosary, Divine Mercy Chaplet, or other prayer. Let us shower the evil of that day with the power of prayer.

The annual Parish Fiesta is next Saturday, September 12. Tickets can still be purchased after Mass this weekend or at the Parish Office this week. Please join us in the north parking lot after the 4:30pm Mass next week and enjoy some great food and entertainment. You can also purchase food to go. We are grateful to the members of our Hispanic community who organize and plan this event.

Have a blessed Labor Day weekend. Don't forget that we have a special Mass for the Labor Day holiday this Monday, September 7, at 9:00am. Please join us as we give God thanks for the work of our hands and the blessing of labor and pray that all workers will be treated with dignity.

Many Blessings!

El amor nunca calla

Al celebrar este vigésimo tercer domingo, las lecturas provienen del profeta Ezequiel 33, 7-9; Romanos 13, 8-10, y el Evangelio es según san Mateo 18, 15-20. Estas lecturas nos invitan a ser una familia donde la verdad y la caridad caminen juntas hacia la unidad.

Todos pertenecemos a familias y toda familia atraviesa momentos de tensión, malentendidos, discordias o heridas. Las lecturas de este domingo nos recuerdan que la santidad no se encuentra evitando el conflicto, sino afrontándolo con caridad y comprensión. Cuando elegimos el diálogo paciente frente al distanciamiento, el perdón frente al resentimiento y la unidad frente a la división, Cristo mismo se hace presente entre nosotros.

Cuando Dios nombró a Ezequiel centinela de Israel, su misión era alzar la voz cuando el peligro amenazaba las relaciones personales. El silencio, cuando se necesita la verdad, se convierte en una falta de amor. Somos responsables del bienestar espiritual, emocional y moral de los demás.

Jesús nos traza un camino sencillo para sanar las relaciones fracturadas: dice que, cuando un hermano peque contra ti, hables inmediatamente y directamente con él. Dar vueltas a la ofensa en nuestra mente es fatal; envenena el pensamiento, y la vida, porque crece el resentimiento, causando daño personal. Jesús nos indica que involucremos a otros solo cuando sea necesario como testigos de ese diálogo; y que busquemos siempre la restauración. El objetivo nunca es ganar una discusión, sino recuperar a un hermano o hermana que se haya distanciado y regresarlo a la vida cotidiana y normal como todos merecemos vivir.

San Pablo nos recuerda: “No tengan deudas con nadie, fuera del amor mutuo.” El amor es la única deuda que nunca deja de estar pendiente. El amor es la única fuerza lo suficientemente poderosa para reparar lo que está fracturado.

Que nuestros corazones no se endurezcan en el amor y la reconciliación mutuos. Que tengan la valentía de buscar la reconciliación, la honestidad de llamar a las cosas por su nombre cuando algo se rompe y la humildad de escuchar para recuperar esa amistad de hermanos que estaba rota. Como dijo san Pablo: “El amor es el cumplimiento de la ley.” El amor cristiano auténtico busca el bien del otro, evita el daño y construye la unidad. Dios nos confía los unos a los otros. Seamos hermanos y amigos eternos en Cristo y en la Santísima Virgen María.

¡Feliz Domingo!

Venerable Fulton Sheen

Born Peter John Sheen on May 8, 1895, to farmer Newt Sheen and his wife, Delia, in El Paso, Illinois, Sheen went to high school at Spalding Institute, then studied at St. Viator College in Illinois and attended Saint Paul Seminary in Minnesota before his ordination to the priesthood on September 20, 1919.

In 1920, he came to The Catholic University of America to continue his studies, then pursued advanced study in philosophy at the Catholic University of Louvain, Belgium. Five years later, he returned to The Catholic University of America to teach.

From 1930 to 1950, Father (then Monsignor) Sheen's weekly talks on The Catholic Hour presented Catholic teaching in a way that had never been done before. Drawing from the deep well of his faith and scholarship, Professor Sheen addressed topics ranging from devotion to the Blessed Mother to the dangers of Communism. Rooted in his thorough knowledge of the philosophical thought of St. Thomas Aquinas, he preached the Gospel and showed how it applies to personal moral decisions and the great social issues of the time.
