PRAYER FOR THE YEAR OF CONSECRATED LIFE

O God, throughout the ages you have called women and men
To pursue lives of perfect charity through the evangelical counsels
Of poverty, chastity, and obedience.
During this Year of Consecrated Life,
We give you thanks for these courageous witnesses
Of Faith and models of inspiration.
Their pursuit of holy lives
Teaches us to make a more perfect offering
Of ourselves to you. Continue to enrich your Church
By calling forth sons and daughters who,
Having found the pearl of great price,
Treasure the Kingdom of Heaven above all things.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
Who lives and reigns with you
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
One God, forever and ever. Amen

CATECHISM IN A YEAR

Can you be a Christian and not believe in the Resurrection?

No. "If Christ has not been raised, then our preaching is in vain and your faith is in vain" (1 Cor 15:14).

How did the disciples come to believe that Jesus is risen?

The disciples, who before had lost all hope, came to believe in Jesus' Resurrection because they saw him in a different way after his death, spoke with him, and experienced him as being alive. The Easter events that took place in Jerusalem in the year 30 are not a made-up story. Following the death of Jesus and the defeat of their whole cause, the disciples fled ("We had hoped that he was the one to redeem Israel", Lk 24:21) or else barricaded themselves behind locked doors. Only their encounter with the risen Christ freed them from their paralysis and filled them with an enthusiastic faith in Jesus Christ, the Lord of life and death.

Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time Lectionary: 110

Reading 1 2 KGS 4:42-44 A man came from Baal-shalishah bringing to Elisha, the man of God, twenty barley loaves made from the firstfruits, and fresh grain in the ear. Elisha said, "Give it to the people to eat." But his servant objected, "How can I set this before a hundred people?" Elisha insisted, "Give it to the people to eat." "For thus says the LORD, 'They shall eat and there shall be some left over.'" And when they had eaten, there was some left over, as the LORD had said.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 145:10-11, 15-16, 17-18 R/ The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs. Let all your works give you thanks, O LORD, and let your faithful ones bless you. Let them discourse of the glory of your kingdom and speak of your might. R/ The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs. They eyes of all look hopefully to you, and you give them their food in due season; you open your hand and satisfy the desire of every living thing. R/ The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs. The LORD is just in all his ways and holy in all his works. The LORD is near to all who call upon him, to all who call upon him in truth. R/ The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs.

Reading 2 EPH 4:1-6 Brothers and sisters: I, a prisoner for the Lord, urge you to live in a manner worthy of the call you have received, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another through love, striving to preserve the unity of the spirit through the bond of peace: one body and one Spirit, as you were also called to the one hope of your call; one Lord, one faith, one baptism; one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all.

Alleluia LK 7:16 R/Alleluia, alleluia, A great prophet has arisen in our midst, God has visited his people. R/Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel JN 6:1-15, Jesus went across the Sea of Galilee. A large crowd followed him, because they saw the signs he was performing on the sick. Jesus went up on the mountain, and there he sat down with his disciples. The Jewish feast of Passover was near. When Jesus raised his eyes and saw that a large crowd was coming to him, he said to Philip, "Where can we buy enough food for them to eat?" He said this to test him, because he himself knew what he was going to do. Philip answered him, "Two hundred days' wages worth of food would not be enough for each of them to have a little." One of his disciples, Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter, said to him, "There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what good are these for so many?" Jesus said, "Have the people recline." Now there was a great deal of grass in that place. So the men reclined, about five thousand in number. Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed them to those who were reclining, and also as much of the fish as they wanted. When they had had their fill, he said to his disciples, "Gather the fragments left over, so that nothing will be wasted." So they collected them, and filled twelve wicker baskets with fragments from the five barley loaves that had been more than they could eat. When the people saw the sign he had done, they said, "This is truly the Prophet, the one who is to come into the world." Since Jesus knew that they were going to come and carry him off to make him king, he withdrew again to the mountain alone.

SUNDAY, JULY 19, 2015 SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME Get away from it all

Busyness can become its own fix, defining who we are and establishing our significance in the world. It is hardly a new phenomenon as we hear today that even the first disciples were so immersed in their work that it was “impossible to do so much as eat.” But here is the Lord’s invitation to each of us: Come and rest. The concept of the retreat has a long and rich history in Catholic tradition. If you can’t get away to a monastery or retreat center, take time to retreat from the world in the silence of a chapel, a bench in a park, or even behind the closed door of a bedroom. Do nothing but surrender the time to God and ask for nothing more.

TODAY’S READINGS: Jeremiah 23:1-6; Ephesians 2:13-18; Mark 6:30-34 (107). “Come by yourselves to an out-of-the-way place and rest a little.”

MONDAY, JULY 20 FEAST OF APOLLINARIS, BISHOP, MARTYR Take root in tradition

Though there are Catholics in Turkey, their numbers are few—about 35,000 in all, fewer than in many smaller U.S. cities. Having said that, what they lack in numbers they more than make up for in variety. Though all are united with the pope, Catholics worship in the Latin, Byzantine, Armenian, and Chaldean Rites. Turkey is indeed a crossroads of the world, with ancient links that go back to a likely disciple of Saint Peter named Apollinaris, born in Antioch. The church’s roots are both deep and broad. Root your own faith in this long and rich tradition.

TODAY’S READINGS: Exodus 14:5-18; Matthew 12:38-42 (395). “At the judgment the queen of the south will arise with this generation and condemn it.”

TUESDAY, JULY 21 FEAST OF LAWRENCE OF BRINDISI, PRIEST, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH Speak across boundaries

One of the most remarkable qualities of 16th-century Franciscan Lawrence of Brindisi was his amazing knack for languages. Such a gift allows one not just to understand the words of “foreigners,” but break down the borders between peoples. As an emissary of the pope, Brindisi traveled to many countries where his gift served him well. Many of us speak only English, but perhaps you could broaden your own capacity to serve by learning another language or by tutoring others endeavoring to learn English. “Not so much to be understood, but to understand.”

TODAY’S READINGS: Exodus 14:21-15:1; Matthew 12:46-50 (396). “Whoever loves me will keep my word, and my Father will love him and we will come to him.”

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 22 FEAST OF MARY MAGDALENE Beauty is in the eye of the beholder

The image of Jesus held in his mother’s arms after his death is captured famously in Michelangelo’s marble sculpture, the Pietà. But the great Renaissance artist also made another pietà, this one adding the figures of Mary Magdalene and Nicodemus. Known as the Florence Pietà, its ability to draw beholders into the experience of Jesus’ death and the depth of love of the mourners is remarkable. Like this masterpiece, art has the capacity to help us enter into the stories of our faith. What kinds of art help you engage more deeply with God?

TODAY’S READINGS: Exodus 16:1-5, 9-15 (397); John 20:1-2, 11-18 (603). “Mary Magdalene went and announced to the disciples, ‘I have seen the Lord.’”

THURSDAY, JULY 23 FEAST OF BRIDGET, RELIGIOUS Parenting: a path to sainthood

At the end of a long day, parents might quip that their children are preparing them for sainthood. With eight children, Saint Bridget of Sweden may have felt like that sometimes. It’s all part of the sacred vocation of parenthood. In the Second Vatican Council’s Pastoral Constitution, Gaudium et Spes, the church recognizes parents as “cooperators with the love of God the Creator, and ... interpreters of that love.” Bridget allowed her love for God to overflow into her family life, the church, and the entire world. Let us thank God for parents and pray that we too may allow God’s love to overflow in our lives!

TODAY’S READINGS: Exodus 19:1-2, 9-11, 16-20b; Matthew 13:10-17 (398). “To anyone who has, more will be given.”

FRIDAY, JULY 24 FEAST OF SHARBEL MAKHLUF, PRIEST Wisdom from the east

Pope John Paul famously said of the eastern and western branches of Catholicism that the church has two lungs and must learn to breathe with them both. Though Saint Sharbel, born in a Lebanese village, never traveled far from home, his legacy reminds those of us in the west of the great diversity of the church worldwide. When Sharbel was canonized in 1977, Bishop Francis Zayek, head the U.S. Diocese of St. Maron, wrote: “Saint Sharbel is called the second Saint Anthony of the Desert . . . the honor of our Aramaic Antiochian Church, and the model of spiritual values and renewal. Sharbel is like a Cedar of Lebanon standing in eternal prayer, on top of a mountain.” Give thanks for holy witnesses in far-off places.

TODAY’S READINGS: Exodus 20:1-17; Matthew 13:18-23 (399). “The seed sown on rich soil is the one who hears the word and understands it, who indeed bears fruit.”

SATURDAY, JULY 25 FEAST OF JAMES, APOSTLE Which ladder will you climb?

James’ request (along with his brother John) to sit at Jesus’ right and left in the Kingdom show him to be anything but sheepish. In fact, his ambition was outrageous even to Jesus: “You do not know what you are asking!” This wasn’t lost on the other disciples either, angry that James was seeking higher status. Jesus corrects them all by reminding them that authority is not lording it over others from one’s lofty prestige, but to be down on one’s knees washing feet. “Fire in the belly” can be a noble quality, but it’s thorny for a Christian. When was the last time you acted out of ambition? Was service even a part of your motivation?

TODAY’S READINGS: 2 Corinthians 4:7-15; Matthew 20:20-28 (605). “Do you know what you are asking?”

ST. MARY'S ST. BONIFACE YOUTH NEWS

Youth Trip to Subiaco: Thank you to everyone who supported the Youth Ministry trip to Subiaco, AR. Thank you to 4th Degree Knights of Columbus, Scotland Knights of Columbus, Catholic Daughters, Junior Catholic Daughters, Deacon & Helen Brown, George & Ida Hoff, and Windthorst Catholic Life Branch. We had 38 youth and 6 adults go on this beautiful retreat. Fr. Nick met with us throughout the weekend and had mass for us Sunday morning. He looks good and is still very sharp. We had a great time. Thanks again for making this trip possible.

REBIRTH begins this Wednesday, July 22 till Sunday July 26. We have 15 high school youth attending this retreat. Please keep all of them in your prayers during this time for a successful retreat.

Youth ministry is beginning to plan for our new year. We are looking for adults to help with this ministry. We need adults to help with religion classes on Wednesday nights, Second Sundays, retreats, or chaperoning events . If you feel a calling to serve in this ministry please contact Shelley Schlumpf at 940-237-6676.

St. Mary's/St. Boniface Youth Ministry Is for all youth age 6th grade thru 12th grade. For more information regarding our youth ministry program contact Shelley Schlumpf at 940-423-6676.
