ANGEL TREE FOR RESIDENTS OF UNIVERSITY PARK MANOR, WICHITA FALLS

– St. Mary's will once again sponsor an angel giving tree for 75 of the residents that reside in University Park Manor. The angels show a generalized list, you do not have to get everything that is listed. Please purchase items and return the gift bag to the Christmas tree. Please attach the angel on the outside of the gift bag. It would be most helpful to return gifts as soon as you can. The gifts need to be delivered no later than Sunday, December 16, 2018. We need time to have the gifts delivered so the staff has the chance to label or mark all items with the resident's name. Please no aerosol cans, only the pump kind for any kind of body sprays, hair sprays etc. All deodorants should be the roll on or stick kind. Not all of these residents have families that can provide some of the basic items or extra special treats that we take for granted. We are truly blessed to live in our community where we are looked after by family and friends. Your generosity to these residents is most appreciated. Each person would love to receive a Christmas card and mailed to them in care of the University Park Manor, 4511 Coronada Ave, Wichita Falls, Texas 76310. If you have any questions contact Joyce Vieth @ 423-6404 or 733-3788, or Melinda Schneider @ 423-6731 or 733-7741. Please help us in this charitable endeavor. Tree will be put up for Thanksgiving weekend.

FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT

A sober reckoning

Happy Advent! Although this season shares Lent's purple color, it's not meant to evoke the penitential atmosphere of that other preparatory season. Yet Advent does invite us to a more contemplative mood. Apart from the dizzying holiday pace of December, we make room to ponder a mystery. God is with us: as a baby born to mortal limits, as the boundless Lord of the end-times, and as the Spirit that accompanies us right now, through all our days. Our times give us many reasons to be afraid. The perfect love of God-with-us casts out every fear.

TODAY'S READINGS: Jeremiah 33:14-16; 1 Thessalonians 3:12-4:2; Luke 21:25-28, 34-36 (3). "People will die of fright in anticipation of what is coming upon the world."

MEMORIAL OF FRANCIS XAVIER, PRIEST

Dress to impress

One of the founding members of the Jesuits, Saint Francis Xavier (1506-52) is considered to have been one of the greatest missionaries since the apostles. Appointed to re-evangelize portions of the Far East, Francis placed himself with the outcasts, preaching to the sick and dying at hospitals and orphans and slaves in the street. He understood that, were the fire of Christianity to spread through the East, the kindling must begin at the base of society. Rather than arriving like a royal ambassador, Francis clothed himself with rags and made his home in the lowliest shelters. His example shows us how humble appearances can be the greatest tool for bringing the message of Christ to others.

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 2:1-5; Matthew 8:5-11 (175). "Amen, I say to you, in no one in Israel have I found such faith."

MEMORIAL OF JOHN DAMASCENE, PRIEST, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

Your cup will overflow

God does not send us away hungry. Remember this promise of faith the next time you find yourself feeling empty. During times of spiritual dryness, trust that you will eventually be fulfilled. As Saint John Damascene observed, as created beings, humans are subject to flux: "By flux," writes this seventh-century church doctor, "I mean . . . depletion, for dry things and wet things and spirit suffer depletion, and require repletion." The best thing you can do to restore your soul is to continue to pray and to do good works. As you feed others, you will soon find yourself satisfied as well.

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 11:1-10; Luke 10:21-24 (176). "Blessed are the eyes that see what you see."

ADVENT WEEKDAY

On top of the world

"We've got some difficult days ahead. But it doesn't matter with me now. Because I've been to the mountaintop," Martin Luther King Jr. said in his last public speech. "I just want to do God's will. And He's allowed me to go up to the mountain. And I've looked over. And I've seen the Promised Land." In scripture, mountains are sacred places; the mountaintop is the epitome of the experiences that show us the glory of God. From that vantage point, everything fades away and we see like God—with a clarity that gives glory and can change the world.

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 25:6-10a; Matthew 15:29-37 (177). "On this mountain the Lord of hosts will provide for all peoples."

MEMORIAL OF NICHOLAS, BISHOP

He comes bearing gifts

Saint Nicholas spoke out against heresies and was imprisoned for a time for his beliefs. His faithfulness is exemplary, but charity remains his signature virtue. What started with Nicholas tossing a few bags of coins into a poor family's yard has been transformed over centuries of retelling, embellishing, grafting, and adapting into the magical tales of Ole Saint Nick (Father Christmas, Santa Claus, Kris Kringle), whose yearly ambition is to deliver gifts to every girl and boy. We may not bring out our best robes and a fatted calf for the annual return of Santa, but cookies and milk serve nicely to show our gratitude to Saint Nick for inspiring ole souls of every stripe to be jollier and more generous.

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 26:1-6; Matthew 7:21, 24-27 (178). "Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only the one who does the will of my Father in heaven."

MEMORIAL OF AMBROSE, BISHOP, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

We're expecting!

Expectant mothers and fathers hear the stories of the coming of the Christ child with new ears. They know what it was like for Mary, large with child and focused on an inward life; and for Joseph, large with anxiety and focused outward on protecting and providing for this expanding family. Yet even those of us who do not anticipate carrying an infant in our arms anytime soon are Christ-bearers, as Saint Ambrose (c. 340-397) reminds us: "Christ has only one mother in the flesh, but we all bring forth Christ in faith." Prepare a place for the newborn!

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 29:17-24; Matthew 9:27-31 (179). "Let it be done for you according to your faith."

SOLEMNITY OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Past and present

Advent is a good time to ponder the mysteries of Mary, and the Feast of the Immaculate Conception (which celebrates Mary's conception) is a good place to start. According to Pope Pius IX's 1854 solemn decree on the Immaculate Conception, "Mary was preserved exempt from all stain of original sin by a singular privilege and grace granted by God, in view of the merits of Jesus Christ." Here's the mystery: God preserved Mary from sin through the love of her son. What does this mean? It means that God works in the past as well as the present. It means further that our own past wounds and deeds—which we thought were cast in stone—are available to be transformed, too. What in your past needs healing?

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 3:9-15, 20; Ephesians 1:3-6, 11-12; Luke 1:26-38 (689). "The angel said to her, 'Nothing will be impossible with God.'"

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time

JERUSALEM & JUDEA

Thursday, Dec 6

- Judean Desert, Jordan River (Baptism of Jesus)
- Ein Kerem where Mary visited Elizabeth (Visitation)
- Jerusalem

Check out of hotel after breakfast to drive south to Jerusalem. On the way, renew our baptismal promises in the Jordan River where John baptized Jesus. After lunch, pass through the Judean wilderness, recalling where Jesus was tempted by the devil. Travel to Ein Kerem, birthplace of John the Baptist and where Mary visited Elizabeth (Luke 1:46-55). Pray the Magnificat in this place where Our Lady first recited it. Mass there at 4 p.m. After our visit, we drive to the holy city of Jerusalem. Check-in to our hotel there, the Dan Jerusalem. After dinner, we have a short meeting to prepare your heart and mind for walking in Jesus' footsteps as we pray the stations of the cross and pray at Calvary and Jesus' tomb early the next morning.

Friday, Dec 7

- Via Dolorosa (Scourging at Pillar, Crowning with Thorns, Carrying Cross)
- Church of the Holy Sepulcher: Calvary & Christ's Tomb (Crucifixion & Resurrection)
- Mt. Zion & the Upper Room (Institution of Eucharist & Pentecost)
- Dormition Abbey (Mary's Assumption & Coronation)
- St. Peter Gallicantu (house of Caiaphas, where Jesus was imprisoned)

For the best prayerful, peaceful experience of the Via Dolorosa and Church of the Holy Sepulcher, we have an early morning departure at 6:00 a.m. to avoid the crowds (light breakfast on the way). Walk through the 14 stations of the Via Dolorosa, Christ's route to Calvary, meditating at each station, culminating at the Church of the Holy Sepulcher built over Calvary and Christ's tomb. Like Mary on Good Friday, we go to the foot of the cross. After lunch on our own in the old city, we have brief visits to Mount Zion, Dormition Abbey (site of Mary's dormition: Assumption & Crowning), and the Cenacle "Upper Room" (Last Supper & Pentecost). Mass at 4:00 p.m. at St. Peter Gallicantu, the house of Caiaphas and where Jesus was imprisoned Holy Thursday night.

Saturday, Dec 8

- Mount of Olives (Ascension), Dominus Flevit Chapel, Gethsemane, Basilica of the Agony (Agony in Garden)
- Bethlehem: Church of the Nativity & Shepherd's Fields (Nativity)

On Mt. of Olives is the Church of the Ascension (now on site of a Muslim mosque), marking where Jesus ascended to heaven. View from outside. Walk down the mount as Jesus did on Palm Sunday. Visit Dominus Flevit Chapel, traditional site where "Jesus Wept" before entering the city (Luke 19:41, 44). Panoramic views of the city of Jerusalem and temple mount. Enter the Garden of Gethsemane and the Basilica of the Agony to contemplate the first sorrowful mystery right where it took place.

Travel to Bethlehem for lunch and then visit the Church of the Nativity, where Jesus was born. At the Shepherds' Fields, ponder the Gospel accounts of the Nativity amid caves similar to the one in which Jesus was born (Luke 2:1-19). Anticipatory Mass in Bethlehem at Shepherd's Field at 4:00 p.m. After dinner at the hotel, a farewell social event for our last night in Jerusalem.

Sunday, Dec 9

- Temple Mount: Southern Steps & Western Wall (Presentation & Child Found in the Temple)
- St. Anne's Crusader Church (birthplace of Mary) and Pools of Bethesda

Check out of hotel after breakfast and go to the Temple Mount. There, we sit on the Southern Steps that led to the Jerusalem Temple, where Simeon prophesied that "a sword" would pierce Mary's soul in the Presentation scene (Luke 2:35) and where the 12-year-old Jesus was lost (Luke 2:41-51). After Scriptural teaching on these dramatic events in Mary's life, pray at the Western Wall. Then we visit the Pools of Bethesda and St. Anne's Crusader Church, revered as the site of Mary's birth and have Mass there at noon. After lunch on our own, we set eyes on our last sites of Jerusalem as we drive to Joppa for a "last supper" together before proceeding to Tel Aviv airport for our overnight flight back to USA (United 85 departing 11:10 p.m. arriving into Newark 4:35 a.m. early Monday morning on Dec 10).

GALILEE

Monday, Dec 3

- Mount Carmel
- Sea of Galilee
- Tabgha & Church of Peter's Primacy (Proclamation of the Kingdom)

Arrive in Tel Aviv 9:35 AM. Board our bus for our first views of Israel. Drive to Mount Carmel, where Elijah defeated the false prophets of Baal (1 Kings 18). Mass there. From on top, enjoy the panoramic view of the Jezreel Valley which reminds us of Elisha & Elijah's ministries. Lunch on own at a local restaurant and then drive east to the Sea of Galilee. Visit Tabgha, the site of the multiplication of the loaves and fishes and the Church of Peter's Primacy, commemorating Jesus' conversation with Peter, asking him three times, "Do you love me?"

Check in and dinner at hotel Ein Gev, on the shores of the Sea of Galilee. Walk out of your room for a stroll along the Sea of Galilee before going to bed for a good night's rest!

Tuesday, Dec 4

- Nazareth: Church of the Annunciation, Joseph's workshop, Mount of the Precipice (Annunciation)
- Cana (Wedding at Cana)

Drive to Mt. Tabor, site of the transfiguration (Mt. 17:1-8) for Mass at 9 a.m. Drive to Nazareth to visit the Church of the Annunciation, built over Mary's childhood home where Gabriel appeared to her. Also see Joseph's workshop, and pass by site of "Mary's Well." Experience the breathtaking view from Mt. of Precipice, traditional site where the people of Nazareth tried to throw Jesus over the cliff. Travel to Cana, site of Jesus' first miracle. After exploring the Biblical account of this scene, couples can renew their wedding vows in the church.

Wednesday, Dec 5

- Boat Ride on Sea of Galilee (Proclamation of the Kingdom)
- Capernaum: Synagogue remains & Peter's House (Proclamation of the Kingdom)
- Mount of Beatitudes – Sermon on Mount (Proclamation of the Kingdom)

Travel to Capernaum the way Jesus and his disciples often did—by boat! We take a boat ride on the Sea of Galilee from our hotel area to Capernaum, the center of Jesus' ministry (Matthew 4, 8-9). Visit the remains there of the house of Peter and the 1st century synagogue where Jesus gave the "Bread of Life" discourse about the Eucharist (John 6). After a "St. Peter Fish Lunch" on the shore of the Sea of Galilee, we visit Magdala and the first century synagogue there. End the day with Mass at 3:30 p.m. on Mount of Beatitudes where Jesus gave the Sermon on the Mount. After dinner at the hotel, we have a bonfire on the shore for our last night in Galilee. While Confession will be available throughout the pilgrimage, we will have it available on the shore on our last night in the region where Jesus forgave people's sins.
