FATIMA

The Message of Fatima is an invitation and a school of salvation.

It was initiated by the Angel of Peace (1916) and completed by Our Lady (1917). It was lived, to a heroic degree, by the three Little Shepherds. The Message of Fatima, which is that of the Gospel, emphasizes the following points:

- permanent conversion
- prayer, and namely the Rosary;
- the sense of collective responsibility and the practice of reparation.

The acceptance of the Message brings with it Consecration to the Immaculate Hear of Mary, which is a symbol of commitment of faithfulness and the apostolate.

The prayers taught in Fatima by the Angel and by Our Lady help us to live The Message which, as Pope John Paul II said, means conversion and living in the grace of God.

SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST (CORPUS CHRISTI)

E pluribus unum

As the United States celebrates flag day, remember that when the Revolutionary War began, no "American" flag existed. Each regiment fought under its own banner. It was another two years before the Second Continental Congress determined that 13 stars and stripes would signify the union of the colonies. An ever-expanding nation required more stars, and then more. It was wisely decided to leave the stripes alone. Holding 50 states together is a challenge in each generation. It takes even more will to hold together a church a billion strong, squatting under banners of preferred views and opinions. "One faith, one Lord, one Baptism" remains our call to unity.

TODAY'S READINGS: Deuteronomy 8:2-3, 14b-16a; 1 Corinthians 10:16-17; John 6:51-58 (167). "The cup of blessing that we bless, is it not a participation in the blood of Christ?"

Cheeky faith

There was a time when the rite of Confirmation included a tap on the cheek—symbolic of being struck—by the bishop, who at the same time wished you peace. The custom was knightly in origin. When you are confirmed, you become a "soldier of Christ," so you must be ready to risk danger for your faith. But the sacrament strengthens you for the spiritual battles of your lifetime, including for times of crisis. Turning the other cheek hardly means being passive in the face of trials, but rather never giving up in the struggle. Offer yourself over and over in the service of good.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Kings 21:1-16; Matthew 5:38-42 (365). "Should anyone press you into service for one mile, go with him for two miles."

Tuesday, Jun 16, 2020

Perfectly clear

The phrase "biblical criticism" doesn't mean to criticize Sacred Scripture, though Pope Leo XIII seemed to think so when he wrote the 1893 encyclical Providentissimus Deus, which took a dim view of the practice. Rather, it refers to the use of scholarly disciplines—such as literature and history—to uncover the Bible's deeper meanings. Fortunately, 50 years later, Pope Pius XII penned On the Most Opportune Way to Promote Biblical Studies to encourage what had been discouraged. Thanks to it, we can delve into the word "perfect" in Matthew 5:48 and learn it's an imperfect translation of the Greek "teleios," which means to have integrity. May your actions match your words.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Kings 21:17-29; Matthew 5:43-48 (366). "Be perfect as your heavenly Father is perfect."

Love leads the way

Doing good is not only what we are called to do as Christians, it is also a benefit to all human beings in the long run. Evolutionary studies show that cooperative behavior has long-term benefits for human beings; whereas selfish behavior is a short-term win. In these difficult days, let love be your guide, your inner voice, and your consolation. Doing good is indeed its own reward.

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Kings 2:1, 6-14; Matthew 6:1-6, 16-18 (367). "Take care not to perform righteous deeds in order that people may see them."

Thursday, Jun 18, 2020

Lead on

A small change in translation can be a big deal when the words of the Lord's Prayer are at stake. After years of consideration, Italian and French bishops embraced a change in the version said at Mass, from "lead us not into temptation" to "do not let us fall into temptation." The change intends to clarify the fact that God doesn't lead people toward evil. So, if you are tempted toward sin today, why not ask God to lead you elsewhere?

TODAY'S READINGS: Sirach 48:1-14; Matthew 6:7-15 (368). "This is how you are to pray: 'Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.'"

SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST SACRED HEART OF JESUS

Get to the heart of the matter

Expressions of the meaning of the Sacred Heart of Jesus have come from everywhere—from saints and theologians to singers and tattoo artists—each trying to give shape to the meaning of the unconditional love of Jesus the Christ. The Sacred Heart reminds us to allow ourselves to experience Jesus' great love for us, to dwell in Jesus' way of being in and for the world. Use your imagination to place yourself within Jesus' heart, within love. How does this shift your view of the joys and challenges of the day?

TODAY'S READINGS: Deuteronomy 7:6-11; 1 John 4:7-16; Matthew 11:25-30 (170). "Beloved, let us love one another, because love is of God."

MEMORIAL OF THE IMMACULATE HEART OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

What have we done?

During the coronavirus pandemic, some have asked why God would "do this" to us or what we have done to "deserve this punishment." A similar question was asked of Jesus in the story of the man born blind. Jesus replied that it was nothing the man did and neither was it some form of punishment. Think of the Blessed Virgin Mary, whose Immaculate Heart is the expression of her sinlessness. She did nothing wrong yet she suffered mightily. Even her Immaculate Heart is shown encircled with thorns and pierced with a sword. Many have suffered in this season of sickness and loss, through no fault of their own. Pray for those whose hearts are heavy with grief.

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Chronicles 24:17-25 (370); Luke 2:41-51 (573). "His mother kept all these things in her heart."

Who Remembers the Aborted Children

In 1999, I was deeply moved by the Memorial Day concert shown on TV from Washington D.C. honoring the men and women who fought and died for their country so we could all be free. They fought for all of us - the elderly, the middle aged, the young and all the babies.

Yes. I am proud of my country but I'm ashamed of the law that allows the killing of babies in the womb of their mothers and the laws that forbids mentioning God in public schools and buildings.

Charles Durning, an American Movie Star, gave an impassioned speech and his moving words could well be applied to the aborted babies of our country. "We grieve for each and everyone. You are precious in our eyes. We wonder what great heights you could have achieved had your life not been taken."

I couldn't help but wonder if some day we might hold a national memorial for the over 62 million babies killed, not by an enemy from a distant land, but by our own laws and by their own mothers.

¿Quién Recuerda a los Abortados?

En 1999 me emocioné mucho por el concierto del Día de la Memoria que se mostró en TV al honor de los que lucharon y dieron sus vidas por su país a fin de que fuéramos libres. Lucharon por todos – los ancianos, los de la media edad, los jóvenes y los bebés.

Si estoy orgullosa por mi país, pero tengo vergüenza por la ley que permite el matar al niño en el seno de su mamá y las leyes que prohíben el mencionar a Dios en las escuelas y edificios públicas.

Charles Durning, el estrella estadounidense del cine, presentó un discurso apasionado y creo que sus palabras emocionantes pueden aplicarse de buena manera a los abortados: "nos afligimos por cada uno de ustedes. Son preciosos en nuestros ojos. Nos preguntamos cuántas alturas habrían conquistado si no les hubieran tomado la vida."

Yo misma tengo que preguntarme si un día habrá un memorial nacional por los 62 millones de bebés matados, no por un enemigo desde un país lejano, sino por nuestras propias leyes y sus propias madres.

PRAYER TO OVERCOME RACISM

Mary, friend and mother to all, through your Son, God has found a way to unite himself to every human being, called to be one people, sisters and brothers to each other.

We ask for your help in calling on your Son, seeking forgiveness for the times when we have failed to love and respect one another.

We ask for your help in obtaining from your Son the grace we need to overcome the evil of racism and to build a just society.

We ask for your help in following your Son, so that prejudice and animosity will no longer infect our minds or hearts but will be replaced with a love that respects the dignity of each person.

Mother of the Church, the Spirit of your Son Jesus warms our hearts: pray for us. Amen.

Prayer to Overcome Racism

seeking forgiveness for the times when we have failed to love and respect one another.

We ask for your help in obtaining from your Son
the grace we need to overcome the evil of racism
and to build a just society.

We ask for your help in following your Son,

Oración para superar el racismo

MARÍA, AMIGA Y MADRE DE TODOS,
a través de tu Hijo Dios ha encontrado un camino para unirse a todos los seres humanos,
llamados a ser un solo pueblo,
hermanas y hermanos entre sí.

Pedimos tu ayuda al recurrir a tu Hijo, buscando el perdón por las veces en que hemos fallado en amarnos
y respetarnos.

Pedimos tu ayuda para obtener de tu Hijo
la gracia que necesitamos para vencer el mal del racismo y construir una sociedad justa.

Pedimos tu ayuda para seguir a tu Hijo, para que el prejuicio y la animosidad
no infecten ya nuestras mentes
o corazones
sino que sean reemplazados por el amor que respeta la dignidad de cada persona.

Madre de la Iglesia, el Espíritu de tu Hijo Jesús
alienta nuestros corazones:
Ruega por nosotros.

Amén.

THE PRAYERS TAUGHT AT FATIMA BY THE ANGEL AND BY OUR LADY AND WHEN TO PRAY THEM.

PRAYERS OF THE ANGEL

1916.

The Pardon Prayer

"My God, I believe, I adore, I hope and I love you! I ask pardon of You for those who do not believe, do not adore, do not hope and do not love You!"

(Pray this prayer anytime, any place. Eg. At the Eucharist.)

The Angel's (Trinity / Eucharist 2 Hearts) Prayer

"Most Holy Trinity, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, I adore You profoundly, and I offer You the most precious Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ, present in all the tabernacles of the world, in reparation for the outrages, sacrileges and indifference with which He Himself is offended. And, through the infinite merits of His most Sacred Heart, and the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I beg of You the conversion of poor sinners."

(Pray at visits to the Tabernacle)

PRAYERS TAUGHT BY OUR LADY

May 13, 1917

On Receiving Holy Communion Prayer/The Eucharistic Prayer

Most Holy Trinity! I adore Thee! My God, My God I love Thee in the Most Blessed Sacrament.

NOVENA FOR NATIONAL UNITY & AN END TO RACISM

SUNDAY, JUNE 7 – MONDAY, JUNE 15

“Time is cluttered with the wreckage of broken communities which have surrendered to hatred and violence.
For the salvation of our nation
and the salvation of mankind,
we must follow another way.
This does not mean we abandon our righteous efforts. ...
But we shall not, in the process,
relinquish our privilege
and obligation to love. ...
This is the only way to create beloved communities.”

PRAYER TO THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

Heavenly Father, you so loved the world that you sent us your only begotten Son as our Redeemer. The Holy Spirit rested upon your Beloved Son as he preached the Good News, cured the sick, and gave his life to break down each sinful barrier that separates us from you and from one another. With your Son, O Father, you sent the Holy Spirit upon your Church that she might extend your saving truth and love to every race and nation.

So it is that we praise you, O Glorious Trinity, One God in Three Persons, united in one Divine Nature yet distinct in each Person — Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. As you are united in one Divine Nature, we ask you to bring together in your love all whom hatred and racism have separated. Pour your love into our hearts, that we may speak the truth boldly and in a spirit of charity, and labor unceasingly for justice, peace and reconciliation in our divided nation and world. O Father, source of every blessing, O Son, Radiant Truth, O Spirit of Love, enable us to respect and love those who are different from ourselves and remove from our hearts, our homes, our Church, and our society every trace of racism.

Grant us, in your mercy, renewed and lasting resolve ‘to mend our ways, to encourage one another, to agree with one another, and to live in peace.’ (cf. 2 Cor 13:11) Grant us the wisdom to create a civilization of truth, justice and love, worthy of your Kingdom. Then we shall know that you are truly with us, O God of life, truth and love, living and reigning forever and ever. Amen.
