WORLD MISSION SUNDAY IS NEXT WEEK! We are called through our Baptism to be part of the Church's missionary efforts, through prayer, self-sacrifice, and support of the Mission Church through material aid. This year, Pope Francis asks us to respond to that call, saying, "Here I Am, Send Me!" To "send" ourselves, we can: PRAY for the Church's worldwide missionary work, OFFER financial HELP and CHARITY through the collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith for vulnerable communities throughout Asia, Africa, Latin America and the Pacific Islands. Giving is easy, participate during the special collection in our parish or give online at bit.ly/DioceseSpecialCollections.

La proxima semana es el Domingo Mundial de las Misiones. Estamos llamados a treves de nuestro Bautismo a ser parte de los esfuerzos misioneros de la Iglesia, a traves de la oracion, el autosacrificio y el apoyo de la Iglesia Misionera mediante la ayuda material. Este ano, el Papa Francisco nos pide que respondamos a ese llamado, diciendo: "Aqui me tienes, mandame a mi!" Para "enviarnos" a nosotros mismos, podemos: OPAR por la obra misionera mundial de la Iglesia OFRECER AYUDA financier y CARIDAD a traves de la Sociedad pata la Propagacion de la Fe par las comunidades vulnerables de Asia, Africa, America Latina y las islas del Pacifico. Dona res facil, participen durante la colecta especial en su parroquia o donen en linea en bit.ly/ColectasEspeciales.

WORLD WIDE MARRIAGE ENCOUNTER- "He dispatched his servants to summon the invited guests to the feast, but they refused to come." God invites your marriage to be filled with His graces. Accept His invitation by participating in a Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekend. The next "virtual" Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekends is Nov. 13 -

15,2020. To apply, visit our website at: <http://www.dfwme.org>. For more information e-mail apply@dfwme.org or call Brian and Tina Little 281-773-9014. THE REASON FOR HOPE 2021 ANNUAL DIOCESAN

APPEAL: The Annual Diocesan Appeal inspires us to take up the call to generosity and to support the many programs that serve people throughout North Central Texas. When we make this commitment, we are responding to our call to witness to Christ, the reason for our hope. As we strive for 100 percent participation toward our parish goal of $20,000.00, please prayerfully consider what your family will donate to support the needs of others. To learn more, please visit bit.ly/AnnualDiocesanAppeal.

Please return a pledge card even if you are unable to donate. We are striving for 100 % participation. Please help us reach both goals. There are pledge cards in the office & on tables in Church, in case you need one. Thanks.

LEAVE A LEGACY TO YOUR PARISH

Can we count on you?

FOR OUR HOPE
2021 ANNUAL DIOCESAN APPEAL

OUR CATHOLIC CHURCH

Our family is made up of every race. We are young and old, men and women, sinners and saints. Our family has spanned the centuries and the globe. With God's grace, we started hospitals to care for the sick. We establish orphanages and help the poor.

We are the largest charitable organization on the planet, bringing relief and comfort to those in need. We educate more children than any other scholarly or religious institution. We developed the scientific method and laws of evidence. We founded the college system.

We defend the dignity of all human life and uphold marriage and family. Cities were named after our revered saints, who navigated a sacred path before us. Guided by the Holy Spirit, we compiled the Bible.

We are transformed by sacred Scripture and sacred Tradition, which have consistently guided us for two thousand years. We are the Catholic Church, with over one billion in our family sharing in the sacraments and fullness of Christian faith. For centuries we have prayed for you and our world, every hour for every day, whenever we celebrate the Mass.

Jesus, Himself, laid the foundation for our faith when He said to Peter, the first pope, "You are rock, and upon this rock I will build My Church." For over two thousand years we have had an unbroken line of shepherds guiding the Catholic Church with love and truth in a confused and hurting world.

And in this world, filled with chaos, hardship, and pain, it's comforting to know that some things remain consistent, true, and strong---

Our Catholic faith, and the eternal love that God has for all creation.

TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Seek wisdom's light

If we learned nothing else this year, it's that circumstances change. Societies come together and shatter apart. Wellness comes and goes. Markets rise and fall. War and peace exchange places. We climb up and down the ladder of success. If we're wise, we learn what Saint Paul observed: Spiritual flexibility beats insisting and resisting. Today the Rosary's Luminous Mysteries guide us to wisdom: Partner with the Holy Spirit, trust grace to supply what's needed, seek the Kingdom's paradox, recognize Jesus in the faces of the poor, and know that God is present at every table.

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 25:6-10a; Philippians 4:12-14, 19-20; Matthew 22:1-14 (142). "I know how to live in humble circumstances; I know also how to live with abundance."

The past calls us to a more just future

Indigenous Peoples' Day is celebrated in many communities to honor Native Americans and their histories and cultures. Today is also a U.S. federal holiday, Columbus Day. Many want the former to replace the latter, while others are dismayed by the growing trend. We can acknowledge the complicity of colonial church leaders in the exploitation and abuse of native peoples (though there were notable exceptions like Bartolomé de las Casas). At the same time, we can work to right those wrongs in the present and forge a more just future together, building the reign of God here and now.

TODAY'S READINGS: Galatians 4:22-24, 26-27, 31—5:1; Luke 11:29-32 (467). "Just as Jonah became a sign to the Ninevites, so will the Son of Man be to this generation."

Ponder the mystery

For centuries the Catholic Church has honored Mary in both May and October. So perhaps it wasn't surprising that Our Lady of Fatima reportedly began to appear once a month to three children in Portugal in 1917—beginning on May 13 and ending on this day, October 13. On the last day, with more than 70,000 people gathered in anticipation, many reported seeing an unusual heavenly phenomenon that has been called the "dance of the sun." Ponder today what Pope John Paul II identified as Fatima's significance: "conversion and repentance, the nucleus of the message of the gospel."

TODAY'S READINGS: Galatians 5:1-6; Luke 11:37-41 (468). "Through the Spirit, by faith, we await the hope of righteousness."

MEMORIAL OF CALLISTUS I, POPE, MARTYR

Differences of opinion are nothing new

Callistus I was elected pope by the clergy and laity of Rome in 217. The election results did not sit well with that election's runner-up, Hippolytus. The two men disagreed on church doctrine and Hippolytus accused Callistus of leniency in enforcing church rules. Callistus' tolerance imitated Jesus' compassion but Hippolytus did not see it that way. He became the first anti-pope in church history, a schism that lasted 18 years. Eventually, Hippolytus reconciled with the church but not before Callistus I was martyred in a local Roman disturbance in 222. This piece of history is a reminder that differences will occur among church leaders, but the promised Holy Spirit remains with us. Pray for peaceful resolution of differences, in church and in society.

TODAY'S READINGS: Galatians 5:18-25; Luke 11:42-46 (469). "If you are guided by the Spirit, you are not under the law."

Thursday, Oct 15, 2020

MEMORIAL OF TERESA OF JESUS, VIRGIN, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

Seek some mystic reform

Today we honor one of the great women of the church, Saint Teresa of Ávila, also known as Teresa of Jesus. Teresa's life seemed rather routine on the surface—she was a cloistered nun in the 1500s. But as her mystical encounters with Jesus emerged, along with her desire for a simpler, less "worldly" way of being, she began to write about the spiritual life and advocated for reform of her religious order, against strong opposition. Declared a doctor of the church in 1970, Teresa's reforms and enduring spiritual insights still carry weight. What reform, small or large, can you work toward today that can help bring about peace and spiritual growth for yourself and others?

TODAY'S READINGS: Ephesians 1:1-10; Luke 11:47-54 (470). "Woe to you, scholars of the law! You have taken away the key of knowledge."

MEMORIAL OF MARGARET MARY ALOCOQUE, VIRGIN

Put your heart into it

From stained glass windows to tattoos, the Sacred Heart of Jesus has been an enduring, powerful symbol to many people from all walks of life. In the 17th century, particular attention to the heart of Jesus began to be promoted. Saint Margaret Mary Alcoque, a French Visitation nun, had a special tenderness for Jesus' Sacred Heart and often shared her prayers and visions of it. In the heart of Jesus—imaged as pierced with thorns, flames, and a cross atop—she experienced the burning love of Christ for all people and the trust that Jesus held all of our joys and suffering in his heart. With Margaret Mary, what joys and sufferings might we entrust to the Sacred Heart of Jesus?

TODAY'S READINGS: Ephesians 1:11-14; Luke 12:1-7 (471). "In Christ we were . . . chosen."

MEMORIAL OF IGNATIUS OF ANTIOCH, BISHOP, MARTYR

Journey with courage

Map the distance between Antioch, Syria, and Rome: 3,716 kilometers, 39 hours by car—without traffic. Now imagine traveling that distance in chains around the year 107, with hungry lions awaiting your arrival. Even with all that, Ignatius of Antioch, approaching a brutal martyrdom, writes from the road to the Ephesians: "I do not issue orders to you, as if I were some great person. For though I am bound for His name, I am not yet perfect in Jesus Christ." His focus is on the privilege of dying for God's glory: "Being blessed in the greatness and fullness of God," he sends readers "abundant happiness through Jesus Christ, and His undefiled joy." Call on Ignatius when you face the really frightful realities life confronts us with at times.

TODAY'S READINGS: Ephesians 1:15-23; Luke 12:8-12 (472). "I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love toward all the saints."

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time
