CATHOLICS CARE.CATHOLICS VOTE

As Catholics it is our responsibility to participate in the civic square: To engage in the processes at the local, state and national levels that determines how our towns, state and nation are governed.

The staff of the diocesan web site and the North Texas Catholic News Magazine have created a variety of resources to assist Catholics of the Diocese of Fort Worth by applying Catholic Social Teachings to determine who to vote for in the upcoming election, what the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops describe as "Faithful Citizenship". The information includes columns by Bishop Michael Olson who explains why it is our moral responsibility to participate in the electoral process.

The resources are at: <https://fwdioc.org/faithful-citizenship-for-all-catholics>

Please exercise your civic duty to vote in the upcoming elections. Early voting is occurring from Tuesday, October 3, 2020 through Friday October 30, 2020. Election day is Tuesday, November 3, 2020.

BISHOP OLSON'S STATEMENT REGARDING POPE FRANCIS' COMMENTS RECORDED IN FRANCESCO

The Church is obliged to hand on faithfully what she has received from Christ. It is the mind of Christ that marriage is an indissoluble bond between one man and one woman. The Church preaches and acts upon this truth, regardless of the passing opinions of nations, states, or cultures.

Comments recently recorded in the making of a documentary about Pope Francis regarding civil recognition of "unions" between homosexual couples appear to have led some to the erroneous conclusion that the Church's teaching on marriage has changed or is about to change. Considering the above, faithful Catholics must insist that the Church's teaching on marriage has not changed and cannot change.

In a 2014 interview published in the Italian newspaper Corriere della Sera, Pope Francis was asked about moves across Europe to legalize gay marriage or adopt civil union laws. "Marriage is between a man and a woman," he said. "Secular states want to validate civil unions to regulate different situations of cohabitation, driven by the need to regulate economic aspects between people, such as ensuring health care. These are cohabitation pacts of various kinds, of which I could not list the different forms."

It is a misunderstanding of rights to suggest or infer that legal arrangements of civil societies can confer a status equivalent to marriage to couples who do not conform to God's intention and design for marriage.

A PRAYER FOR OUR NATION'S ELECTION

O God, we acknowledge You today as Lord, Not only of individuals, but of nations and governments.

We thank You for the privilege of being able to organize ourselves politically and of knowing that political loyalty does not have to mean disloyalty to You.

We thank You for Your law, which our Founding Fathers acknowledged and recognized as higher than any human law. We thank You for the opportunity that this election year puts before us, to exercise our solemn duty not only to vote, but to influence countless others to vote, and to vote correctly.

Lord, we pray that Your people may be awakened. Let them realize that while politics is not their salvation, their response to You requires that they be politically active.

Awaken Your people to know that they are not called to be a sect fleeing the world but rather a community of faith renewing the world.

Awaken them that the same hands lifted up to You in prayer are the hands that pull the lever in the voting booth; that the same eyes that read Your Word are the eyes that read the names on the ballot, and that they do not cease to be Christians when they enter the voting booth.

Awaken Your people to a commitment to justice, to the sanctity of marriage and the family, to the dignity of each individual human life, and to the truth that human rights begin when Human Lives Begin, and not one moment later.

Lord, we rejoice today that we are citizens of Your kingdom.

May that make us all the more committed to being faithful citizens on earth.

We ask this through Jesus Christ, Our Lord.

PRAYER

"May the road rise up to meet you. May the wind be ever at your back. May the sun shine warm upon your face. May the rains fall soft upon your fields. And until we meet again, may God hold you, in the hollow of His hand. And until we meet again, may God hold you in the hollow, in the hollow of His hand. Amen

EVER WONDER WHY...?

There is a multitude of anomalies, inconsistencies and downright deceit surrounding the abortion issue.

Why is it...one never sees the word "abortion" on the buildings or signs at abortion clinics? If abortion is such a good "choice", why hide what it is they really do?

Why is it ... when three people die from E.coli poisoning, spinach is immediately pulled off the shelf in every corner of the nation, but when eight women die from the RU-486 (the at-home abortion pill) no one even raises an eyebrow?

Why is it ... that on one floor of many US hospitals they will abort babies left and right, but on another floor, we spend tens of thousands of dollars to save a child born at the same gestational age as the children being aborted floors below?

Why is it ... when a woman goes into an abortion clinic, the champions of "choice" only offer the choice of abortion?

Why is it ... that Planned Parenthood has a budget well over $800 million a year, while pro-life organizations are forced to eke out projects and programs on a shoestring budget?

Why is it ... that we are flooded with images of violence in our media, yet it is deemed entirely inappropriate to provide any photos or images related to an abortion and even provide the public with a factual description of what takes place?

Why is it... that abortion protagonists use incomprehensible language such as "disarticulating a fetus" or....

ST. MARY'S ST. BONIFACE YOUTH NEWS

Because of the unprecedented time we are living in it is very important that all families continue to learn about their faith at home. Parents, as the primary teachers of the faith, need to be responsible for these activities. St. Mary's and St. Boniface has purchased a wonderful online program called Formed.

Formed.org is easy to access and has many books, audio talks, movies, documentaries, and studies. There is an entire section for youth. I strongly encourage all of 6th - 12th graders along with our families to visit this website and look at the materials. I will be posting on the St. Mary's/St. Boniface Youth Ministry Facebook page about movies or studies that I am watching and would love your feedback on what you are watching. Fr. Michael and I continue to pray for all of you and pray for the day we can be together.

Confirmation: We will be joining our Catholic Life Branch to put flowers on forgotten graves in the St. Mary's cemetery. Please meet on Sunday, October 25th at 12:30 pm. Pizza and drinks will be provided by Catholic Life.

Fr. Michael and I hope all of you are working thru The Search program in Formed.org. You also need to choose a Saint name and research that saint. The form for this activity was in your first meeting packet.

St. Mary's/St. Boniface Youth Ministry Is for all youth age 6th grade thru 12th grade. For more information regarding our youth ministry program contact Shelley Schlumpf at 940-423-6676.

Sunday, Oct 25, 2020
THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Worship the God of glory

Leadership earns public honors, and the best leaders exercise humility in accepting them. Pope Francis began his papacy by donning simple attire and asking for our prayers before offering his first blessing. Genuine leadership recognizes that all authority comes from God. Today is Priesthood Sunday, honoring the multitudes of pastors who did their job this year with passion, grace, and ingenuity under extraordinary circumstances. Pray the Rosary's Glorious Mysteries for those who lead us to: rise up from despair, lift our gaze upward, encounter the Spirit's power, give ourselves body and soul, and accept honor with grace.

TODAY'S READINGS: Exodus 22:20-26; 1 Thessalonians 1:5c-10; Matthew 22:34-40 (148). "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind."

Monday, Oct 26, 2020

Slow down, you're moving too fast

Too many people work too much. Some have a psychological compulsion to work incessantly. Some work excessively to acquire money and success. Some have no identity outside of their jobs. Some are driven by guilt and fear of being lazy. Some think that an overly busy work life makes them look important. And far too many are forced to work too much in order to make ends meet. None of these reasons are healthy or holy. God wants us to rest and enjoy life too—thus, the sabbath day. Let's work together to create a just society where all can get some rest.

TODAY'S READINGS: Ephesians 4:32—5:8; Luke 13:10-17 (479). "Ought she not to have been set free on the sabbath day from this bondage?"

Console the consolers

Prayerful words from the National Association of Catholic Chaplains, written by NACC member Lisa Ecks: "May the wilderness of this time, and the uncertainty we may feel, strengthen our resolve to lean on your word, abide in your presence, and be guided by your enduring and powerful Spirit." The NACC helps priests, religious women, and laypeople bring a trained, professional experience to their ministry of caring for the sick. Pray for all hospital chaplains during this Pastoral Care Week. They're consoling not just COVID-19 patients but medical workers on the front lines.

TODAY'S READINGS: Ephesians 5:21-33; Luke 13:18-21 (480). "Jesus said, 'What is the kingdom of God like? To what can I compare it?'"

FEAST OF SIMON AND JUDE, APOSTLES

Obscure but still important

Much of what we know about apostles Jude and Simon is who they are not. Simon was called the Zealot—someone passionate, and perhaps revolutionary, about his Jewish faith. Calling him the Zealot also helped to distinguish him from the more famous Simon Peter. We find Jude (along with Judas, variant translations of the name Judah) mentioned in the list of the apostles in Luke and Acts, but he is called Thaddeus in Matthew and Mark, perhaps to distinguish him from the traitor Judas Iscariot.

Regardless of their relative obscurity, Jude and Simon were chosen by Jesus to share the Good News and there is every indication they did just that. Even if your life seems quiet and unremarkable to you in some ways, the call to discipleship is your call as well. Saint Jude and Saint Simon, pray for us.

TODAY'S READINGS: Ephesians 2:19-22; Luke 6:12-16 (666). "Jesus called the disciples to himself: . . . Simon who was called the Zealot and Judas the son of James."

Do the right thing

Even in this day and age, Christians standing up for what is right have been killed for their efforts. Rev. Martin Luther King Jr. comes to mind. So does Sister Dorothy Stang, SNDdeN, of Dayton, Ohio, who was murdered in 2005 for defending the poor and protected lands in the Amazon rain forest in Brazil. Would you allow yourself to be inconvenienced (or more) to do the right thing? Look for a way to stand up for a good cause today, even if it feels inconvenient.

TODAY'S READINGS: Ephesians 6:10-20; Luke 13:31-35 (482). "Jerusalem, Jerusalem, . . . how many times I yearned to gather your children together as a hen gathers her brood under her wings."

A time for healing

One of the comforting takeaways from our experience of church during the pandemic is that people are more important than rules. The obligation to physically participate in Sunday Mass has been dispensed during the pandemic by our bishops. We are given the opportunity to make a "spiritual communion" instead. We don't have to go to Confession to be absolved of our sins. A sincere Act of Contrition and a resolve to celebrate the sacrament when it once again becomes available is sufficient. Just as Jesus set aside the sabbath commandment in order to heal, so too our bishops set aside the precepts so that we may be healed. Let's pray today for our bishops, and for a time of healing.

TODAY'S READINGS: Philippians 1:1-11; Luke 14:1-6 (483). "The one who began a good work in you will continue to complete it."

Saturday, Oct 31, 2020

Meal ministry

One of the many things to be longed for during this extended time of physical distancing is the free and easy sharing of meals with family and friends, in groups large and small. Shared meals hold a special place in family life, and in Catholic life as well. It's no mystery why meals are central. Something magical happens at mealtime, the communion among people is palpable. And in Catholic life, Communion is sacred. Pray we may safely gather again without appointment or extra precautions in the not distant future and freely share the mysteries of our faith in the bread and wine, the Body and Blood. Until then, let us raise a glass in remembrance of Christ.

TODAY'S READINGS: Philippians 1:18b-26; Luke 14:1, 7-11 (484). "On a sabbath Jesus went to dine at the home of one of the leading Pharisees, and the people there were observing him carefully."

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time
