NATIONAL VOCATION AWARENESS WEEK is celebrated throughout the United States November 1-7, 2020. Please ask Our Lord for more dedicated, holy priests, deacons & consecrated men & women. May they be inspired by Jesus Christ, supported by our faith community, & respond generously to God's gift of a vocation.

Next weekend we take up a special collection for the Diocesan Seminarian Education Fund. Currently, the Diocese is supporting 32 seminarians on their discernment journey by providing funds to cover their education & formation costs & necessities of living. You can participate in this pastoral work & help them on their journey by generously supporting the Seminarian Collection.

CATHOLIC CHARITIES & KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS:

Hello everyone. Thanksgiving is right around the corner & Catholic Charities has asked the Knights of Columbus to partner with them again this year to help the rural vocation students have a Thanksgiving meal. Without your help we could not take on this charitable task. These students work hard to better themselves to beat poverty. The Knights see this as an awesome way to help these students. Over the years the community has responded above & beyond our expectations. Thanks for your influence on these students.

With covid things have changed. The past Thanksgiving and Easter, we bought gift cards instead of a meal. This year 50 family meals are needed, so a donation of $30.00 for a gift card will help Catholic Charities meet the needs of their clients. Your donations have always been appreciated & any amount is a huge help this Thanksgiving. Thank you notes have melted my heart in the past & know your donation isn't taken lightly.

If you are interested please call or text. My cell number is 940-923-9700. Checks can be made to K of C #1824. My mailing address is P.O. Box 223 Windthorst, TX 76389.

Thanks again for your donation! Brian Anderle

PLENARY INDULGENCE: The remission before God of the temporal punishment due to sin whose guilt has already been forgiven. A properly disposed member of the Christian faithful can obtain an indulgence under prescribed conditions through the help of the Church which, as the minister of redemption, dispenses and applies with authority the treasury of the satisfactions of Christ and the saints. An indulgence is partial if it removes part of the temporal punishment due to sin, or plenary if it removes all punishment.

ALL LIVES MATTER

We are so overwhelmed and shocked by all the terrible tragedies we hear about! They are happening in the United States, in Pakistan or Australia or elsewhere. They are carried out by cowardly terrorists or mentally disturbed loners or fame seekers. They attack little, defenseless, innocent children. We've had way too many children slaughtered in the schools or homes by the murderers.

Then we hear "Black lives matter," which is true! Well, "All lives matter." The "Unborn Babies lives matter," too!

Schools are not the only place where children are attacked! The most dangerous place for children to be today is in the womb of their mothers. They are being killed every single day by the thousands but that doesn't reach the news. Have we become so immune to the plight of the unborn who are being aborted! They suffer just as surely as do the school children.

When our government ruled on abortion, they made a horrible mistake. I feel it's the duty of our government to protect all the people. We are the United States of America and should be shining example to the rest of the world of how to take care of our people, young, old, and the unborn.

God help us all,

Ruth Weber - Davenport Iowa

TODAS LAS VIDAS SON IMPORTANTES

Estamos tan sobresaturados y alarmados por todas las terribles tragedias que escuchamos!

Están sucediendo en Estados Unidos, en Pakistán o Australia o en cualquier otra parte.

Son perpetradas por cobardes terroristas o personas solitarias con disturbios mentales o por quienes buscan la fama. Atacan pequeños, indefensos e inocentes niños. Hemos tenido muchísimos niños masacrados en las escuelas o casas por sus asesinos.

Entonces escuchaos 'La vida de las personas de raza negra tiene importancia,' lo cual es cierto!! Pues bien, 'Todas las vidas son importantes.' La 'vida de los bebés sin nacer tiene importancia,' también!

Las escuelas no son el único lugar donde los niños son atacados! El lugar más peligroso donde los niños pueden estar hoy en día es en el vientre de sus madres. Están siendo asesinados cada día por millares, pero eso no sale en las noticias. Nos hemos vuelto tan inmunes a la difícil situación de los no nacidos quienes están siendo abortados? Ellos sufren tan seguramente como sufren los niños en las escuelas.

Cuando nuestro gobierno dictaminó sobre el aborto, cometieron un terrible error. Yo siento que es la responsabilidad de nuestro gobierno el proteger a todo el pueblo. Nosotros somos los Estados Unidos de América y debemos ser un brillante ejemplo para el resto del mundo de como cuidar de nuestra gente, jóvenes viejos, y los no nacidos.

Que Dios nos ayude.

Ruth Weber – Davenport Iowa

THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Prudence is my co-pilot

Some of us can still recite the four Cardinal Virtues: prudence, justice, fortitude, and temperance. They're good not just to recite but also to practice. Virtues are good habits; i.e., things we don't have to surrender for Lent. Cardinal, meanwhile, means "hinge." Put together, the four hinge virtues swing open the door to a life well lived. Prudence is called the pilot of the virtues because it enables us to discern the good and how best to accomplish it. When a decision is important, reflect on it through the lens of scripture. How is God inviting you to proceed?

TODAY'S READINGS: Wisdom 6:12-16; 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18; Matthew 25:1-13 (154). "Wisdom 'is readily perceived by those who love her, and found by those who seek her.'"

Monday, Nov 09, 2020

FEAST OF THE DEDICATION OF THE LATERAN BASILICA

Open the door and look at all the people

Why would there be a feast day for a church? Because it's the "mother of all churches," one that all Catholics can call their own, and so we all celebrate its dedication in the year 324. Christianity had only recently been legalized in the Roman Empire, and the Lateran Basilica—full name: Cathedral of the Most Holy Savior and of Saints John the Baptist and the Evangelist in the Lateran—was the first church in Rome and, to this day, remains the pope's church as the bishop of Rome. Keep passing on the faith of the Mother Church that has been passed down to you through the centuries.

TODAY'S READINGS: Ezekiel 47:1-2, 8-9, 12; 1 Corinthians 3:9c-11, 16-17; John 2:13-22 (671). "His disciples recalled the words of scripture, 'Zeal for your house will consume me.'"

Tuesday, Nov 10, 2020

MEMORIAL OF LEO THE GREAT, POPE, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

The great pope who did good things

Leo the Great was the first pope to be called "Great." His diplomacy kept Attila the Hun from attacking Rome. His authoritative teaching solidified the role of the bishop of Rome as Saint Peter's successor. And his eloquent prose—detailing the two natures of Jesus Christ, both human and divine—was key to defeating heresy at the Council of Chalcedon. "Peter has spoken through Leo," marveled the bishops of Chalcedon. "The infancy of the Babe is exhibited by the humiliation of swaddling clothes," wrote Leo, while "the greatness of the Highest is declared by the voices of angels."

TODAY'S READINGS: Titus 2:1-8, 11-14; Luke 17:7-10 (492). "We are unprofitable servants; we have done what we were obliged to do."

MEMORIAL OF MARTIN OF TOURS, BISHOP

Half of what I have is yours

Fourth-century Bishop Martin of Tours was not born to the faith but chose it for himself as a young man. He followed his father into the Roman army but found that he could not remain a soldier; Martin is one of the earliest documented conscientious objectors. Yet it was while serving as a soldier that perhaps the most famous episode of Martin's life occurred. Coming upon a naked beggar, Martin took out his sword, cut his own cloak in two, and shared it with the poor soul. Martin was a founder of monasteries, a popularly acclaimed bishop, destroyer of pagan shrines and builder of churches, and most of all, he inspires us to share what we have with those most in need.

TODAY'S READINGS: Titus 3:1-7; Luke 17:11-19 (493). "Stand up and go; your faith has saved you."

MEMORIAL OF JOSAPHAT, BISHOP, MARTYR

Draw courage from Josaphat

Books of saints have long been filled with the gore of martyrs, but the story of Josaphat is shocking even in that bloody context. Josaphat, a Polish Byzantine priest and archbishop, was embroiled in controversy for much of his life because of his emphasis on reforming lax practices within the church and striving for unity among Christians. After years of wrangling, his enemies mobbed him, killed him, and tossed his beaten body into a river in 1623. With Josaphat's courage as a model, take a step today to support the ongoing reform efforts in the church, including efforts to end sexual abuse in the church we love.

TODAY'S READINGS: Philemon 7-20; Luke 17:20-25 (494). "No one will announce, 'Look, here it is,' or, 'There it is.' For behold, the kingdom of God is among you."

MEMORIAL OF FRANCES XAVIER CABRINI, VIRGIN

Do likewise

What would we do if a saint of God rose in our midst today and instructed us in the proper care of people who are immigrants and refugees at our borders? Would that saint's halo give us any more certitude to stand behind every effort to protect the lives of women, men, and children seeking a safe home? Just over 100 years ago we had such a saint showing us the way. Frances Xavier Cabrini was called by Pope Leo XIII to tend to the many immigrants landing on the shores of the United States in the late 1800s. She built schools, orphanages, and hospitals to tend to them. Though she met resistance, she persisted, and her legacy lives on in each of us and our ancestors, for the most part immigrants. How do we honor this legacy in our own treatment of immigrants and refugees today?

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 John 4-9; Luke 17:26-37 (495). "Look to yourselves that you do not lose what we worked for."

OPTIONAL MEMORIAL OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Let your soul proclaim greatness

Take an opportunity today to celebrate Mary, who found her voice in difficult circumstances so that we might follow her voice and find our own in these difficult times. Read her "Magnificat" (Luke 1:46-56) for a canticle to the power of trust. Imagine how she waited years to understand her son's calling, grieved his inconceivable death, and then, in the many years of her grief, nurtured the early Christian community. That's greatness!

TODAY'S READINGS: 3 John 5-8; Luke 18:1-8 (496). "Will [God] be slow to answer them?"

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time

THE BISHOP'S OFFICE

November 1, 2020

Dear Friends in Christ,

National Vocation Awareness Week, celebrated November 1-7, 2020, is an annual week-long observance of the Catholic Church in the United States. It is dedicated to foster vocations to the priesthood, diaconate and consecrated life through prayer and education, and to renew our prayers and support for those who are discerning one of these vocations.

The Diocese of Fort Worth is blessed to have 32 seminarians in various stages of the thorough discernment and formation journey. The Diocese is committed to paying for all of the costs associated with their formation and education so that these men can commit to prayer and formation during their time in seminary, a period which can be between seven and nine years and cost $50,000 annually.

To conclude National Vocations Week, we are asking you to contribute at Mass next weekend to a special collection for our Diocesan Seminarian Education Fund. Please respond generously through your parish or donate online by entering bit.ly/DioceseSpecialCollections in your web browser.

Please prayerfully consider your gift to next weekend's special collection. Even more so, I ask you to include these men in your prayers and to encourage other young people to consider the reality that Christ is calling them to follow Him as a priest, deacon, or consecrated religious. Just as our seminarians have responded to God's call to discernment, we too can respond in prayer and generosity.

Sincerely Yours in Christ,

+ Michael F. Olson

1 de noviembre de 2020

Queridos amigos en Cristo,

La Semana Nacional de Concientización Sobre las Vocaciones, celebrada del 1 al 7 de noviembre de 2020, es una celebración anual, a lo largo de una semana, de la Iglesia Católica en los Estados Unidos. Está dedicada a promover las vocaciones al sacerdocio, al diaconado y a la vida consagrada a través de la oración y la educación, y a renovar nuestras oraciones y apoyo para quienes estén considerando una de estas vocaciones particulares.

La Diócesis de Fort Worth ha sido bendecida con 32 seminaristas en varias etapas del camino extenso de discernimiento y formación. La Diócesis se compromete a pagar todos los gastos asociados con su formación en la fe y educación para que estos hombres puedan comprometerse a la oración y formación durante su tiempo en el seminario, un período que puede ser de entre siete y nueve años y costar $50,000 anuales.

Para concluir la Semana Nacional de las Vocaciones, les pedimos que hagan su contribución durante las Misas del próximo fin de semana a una colecta especial para nuestro Fondo Diocesano de Educación para Seminaristas. Por favor responda generosamente a través de su parroquia o done en línea ingresando bit.ly/ColectasEspeciales en su navegador de la red.

Por favor considere en oración su donación para la colecta especial del próximo fin de semana. Aún más, les pido que incluyan a estos hombres en sus oraciones y que animen a otros jóvenes a considerar la realidad del llamado de Cristo a seguirle como sacerdote, diácono o persona consagrada. Así como nuestros seminaristas han respondido al llamado de Dios al discernimiento, nosotros también podemos responder con oración y generosidad.

Sinceramente suyo en Cristo,

+ Michael F. Olson
