CHASTE HEART OF ST. JOSEPH

Hail, Most Chaste Heart of St. Joseph, beating with love for the God who created you! Hail, Virginal Heart, lover of the Immaculate Heart of Mary! Hail, Paternal Heart, whose beating comforts the Sacred Heart of Jesus! Hail, you who are the Reflection of God the Father, Guardian of God the Son, Friend of God the Holy Spirit,, and Spouse of the Immaculate Handmaiden!

Most Chaste Heart of St. Joseph, beloved by God and His angels, I consecrate this day to your honor! In you I confide my joys and my sorrows, my pains and my pleasures. I know that you are always delighted to pour forth your graces to those who ask for them with confidence.

Therefore, confident in your goodness, I entrust myself, and the following person(s) to your care: name(s). I ask that you please grant us the graces we need in order to become faithful reflections of you. I pray that you shower upon us all the graces necessary for our spiritual and temporal welfare. And I pray that you grant the Holy Catholic Church, Our Mother, every available grace to bring about Her glorious triumph! All for love of the two greatest treasures entrusted to your care: The Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary. Amen.

How You Can Help

PRAY

Pray for the Holy Father, those he reaches out in compassion to serve, and the ongoing activities of the Holy See, all of which will benefit from this collection.

SHARE

Share this bulletin insert with anyone who might be interested. More information is at www.vatican.va/roman_curia/secretariat_state/obolo_spietro/documents/actual_en.html and www.peterspence.va/en.html.

GIVE

Give generously to this collection as a sign of mercy to those who suffer around the globe and in support of the ongoing work of the Holy See. By doing so, you help build up the Church so that it will continue to minister to all for generations to come.

The Peter's Pence Collection occurs yearly on the Sunday closest to June 29, the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul, as a sign that Catholics around the world are joined together in support of the Holy Father.

A Concrete Sign of Mercy

The concrete participation in the needs of the universal ecclesial community has taken different forms throughout history. Collections and donations by the individual faithful or entire local churches raise awareness that all the baptized are called to materially sustain the work of evangelization and, at the same time, to help the poor in whatever way possible. By doing so, they build up the Church so that it will continue to minister to all for generations to come.

During his apostolic visit to Bangui in the Central African Republic in 2015, Pope Francis visited the city's pediatric hospital with a donation of medicines and a promise that he would not forget the country's children. With contributions raised to support Peter's Pence, the Holy Father kept that promise to the children of Bangui by founding a new facility in 2017. The existing hospital was renovated, and a new facility specifically for malnourished children was constructed. In a March 2019 message, Pope Francis described the hospital as "a concrete sign of mercy" originating with his 2015 visit.

A Tradition of Support for the Holy Father

Support for such papal efforts has its roots in the scriptural message to take care of the poor and is an expression of unity with the Holy Father. Peter's Pence expresses this unity in two ways: through the ongoing activities of the Holy See and through the charitable works of the Holy Father on behalf of those most in need.

Sea un signo de misericordia.

JESÚS RECORRÍA LAS CIUDADES Y LOS PUEBLOS, PREDICANDO Y ANUNCIANDO LA BUENA NOTICIA DEL REINO DE DIOS. LO ACOMPAÑABAN LOS DOCE... [Y] MUCHAS OTRAS [PERSONAS], QUE LOS AYUDABAN CON SUS BIENES. —Lc 8:1, 3

Como pueden ayudar

ORANDO

Oren por el Santo Padre, por aquellos a quienes él ayuda y sirve con compasión y por las actividades en curso de la Santa Sede que se beneficiarán con esta colecta.

COMPARTIENDO

Compartan este inserto para el boletín con cualquier persona que pudiese estar interesada. Más información en www.vatican.va/roman_curia/secretariat_state/obolo_spietro/documents/actual_en.html y en www.peterspence.va/es.html.

DANDO

Contribuyan generosamente a esta colecta como un signo de misericordia hacia aquellos que sufren en todo el mundo y a quienes la Iglesia les ofrece esperanza y como un apoyo a la continua labor de la Santa Sede. Al hacerlo, están ayudando a construir la Iglesia para que pueda continuar haciendo su ministerio con todas las futuras generaciones.

La Colecta Peter's Pence se realiza anualmente en el domingo más cercano al 29 de junio, en la Solemnidad de San Pedro y San Pablo, como signo de que los católicos en todo el mundo se unen para apoyar al Santo Padre.

Un signo concreto de misericordia

La participación concreta, incluyendo la económica, en las necesidades de la comunidad eclesial universal, ha tomado diferentes formas a lo largo de la historia. Estas colectas y donaciones por los fieles ya sea en forma individual, o por las iglesias locales en pleno, nos concientizan y nos llaman a todos los bautizados a sostener materialmente la labor de evangelización y, al mismo tiempo, a ayudar a los pobres en toda forma posible. Al hacerlo, ayudamos a construir la Iglesia para que pueda continuar haciendo su ministerio con todas las futuras generaciones.

En el 2015, durante su visita apostólica a Bangui, en la República Centroafricana, el papa Francisco visitó el hospital pediátrico de la ciudad, donando medicamentos y con la promesa de que no se olvidaría de los niños de ese país. Gracias a las contribuciones recaudadas en la Colecta Peter's Pence, el Santo Padre mantuvo su promesa a los niños de Bangui, fundando un nuevo local en el 2017. Se renovó el antiguo hospital y se construyó un local nuevo específicamente para los niños que sufren de malnutrición. En su mensaje en marzo del 2019, el papa Francisco describió al hospital como “un signo concreto de misericordia”, el cual tuvo se originó durante su visita en el 2015.

Una tradición de apoyo al Santo Padre

El apoyo para dichos esfuerzos papales tiene sus raíces en el mensaje bíblico de cuidar a los pobres y es una expresión de unidad con el Santo Padre. Peter's Pence expresa esta unidad de dos maneras, a través de las actividades en curso de la Santa Sede y de las obras de caridad del Santo Padre a favor de los más necesitados.

TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Heal the human family

Fathers are an unpredictable lot. Some are lovingly remembered as protective and dependable captains who sailed their families to calmer waters through every domestic storm. Others may be lamented as the source of many a squall themselves. We pray this day for both kinds of fathers: those who stayed and those who abandoned ship, the faithful and the faithless, the tender and the tyrant. The church teaches that our world can't be whole until our families are healed. This Father's Day, we pray especially for those who volunteer as benevolent father figures for children in need of one.

TODAY'S READINGS: Job 38:1, 8-11; 2 Corinthians 5:14-17; Mark 4:35-41 (95). "[Jesus] woke up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, 'Quiet! Be still!'"

MEMORIAL OF ALOYSIUS GONZAGA, RELIGIOUS

Sometimes you have to swim upstream

Discerning one's vocation can be tricky enough, but once you've figured out God's call, you might encounter resistance from others in answering it. Saint Aloysius Gonzaga can relate. As an aristocrat in Renaissance Italy, he was expected to join decadent courtly life and have an accomplished military career. But even in his early teens, Aloysius was dismayed by the violence and licentiousness of his time. Deeply devout, he bucked family and societal expectations and sought a different path. He renounced his inheritance and became a Jesuit. When we encounter pressure to ignore God, may Aloysius help us all stay true.

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 12:1-9; Matthew 7:1-5 (371). "The measure with which you measure will be measured out to you."

MEMORIAL OF JOHN FISHER, BISHOP AND THOMAS MORE, MARTYRS

Truth trumps tyranny

Thomas More shares this feast day with John Fisher—both beheaded for daring to cross England's King Henry VIII in his power grab. Significantly, Henry moved up Fisher's execution day so it wouldn't fall on the feast of another sainted John—John the Baptist, who likewise was beheaded by a king for opposing royal tyranny. It's always the right time to speak truth to power, even when the cost is high.

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 13:2, 5-18; Matthew 7:6, 12-14 (372). "Enter through the narrow gate; for the gate is wide and the road broad that leads to destruction."

Let's make the world a better place

Today the United Nations celebrates Public Service Day to honor the public servants who selflessly work to promote the common good. Each of us, however, is called to make the world a better place through service. As Pope Francis says in Fratelli Tutti: Service means caring "for the vulnerable members of our families, our society, our people . . . Service always looks to their faces, touches their flesh, senses their closeness . . . and tries to help them." Whether as emergency responders, sanitation workers, public advocates, teachers, community volunteers, or whatever your vocation or profession may be, take the opportunity to recognize the humanity of the vulnerable and offer your help.

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 15:1-12, 17-18; Matthew 7:15-20 (373). "So by their fruits you will know them."

SOLEMNITY OF THE NATIVITY OF SAINT JOHN THE BAPTIST

Catch fire

Although American Catholics in general don't tend to make a fuss over the Nativity of John the Baptist, today's solemnity is one of the church's earliest, and it used to be widely celebrated in Europe with bonfires and outdoor festivities. Some regions still hold celebrations for John, who prepared humanity for the coming of Christ. The bonfires recognize the fire within this zealous, outspoken saint. Do you harbor a fire for Christ? If your passion has ebbed, pray to Saint John the Baptist to intercede that you might reignite your fire for the kingdom of God.

TODAY'S READINGS: Day: Isaiah 49:1-6; Acts 13:22-26; Luke 1:57-66, 80 (587). "He asked for a tablet and wrote, 'John is his name.'"

Confirm your spiritual identity

Most seventh-graders are thrilled by two things about Confirmation: the possibility of having a tongue of fire hover over their heads and choosing a new name. It's not that anything is necessarily wrong with their given names, but it seems awesome to choose one's very own name. Many spiritual traditions and rites employ the custom of taking a new name, signifying a new moment in our life with God. Though a sacrament and public witness in the church, Confirmation is also a personal confirmation of our own selves as unique and beloved of God. What can you do today to confirm your relationship with God?

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 17:1, 9-10, 15-22; Matthew 8:1-4 (375). "Do not call her Sarai; her name shall be Sarah. I will bless her."

We are worthy of healing

In these divisive times, it is heartening to have examples of the healing power of a word. The gospels tell the story of a centurion, a powerful military leader of the Roman army that occupied Jewish lands, who had such great faith in Jesus that he only needed Jesus to speak a healing word. No ordinary centurion, this fellow had been a great friend of the Jewish people of Capernaum, even building their synagogue. Where are such examples today? Speak a word of healing across all that seems to divide: across the aisle, the religions, the races and ethnicities, the neighborhoods, languages, genders, and sexualities that distinguish us but do not have to divide us. Only say the word and healing shall begin.

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 18:1-15; Matthew 8:5-17 (376). "Only say the word and my servant will be healed."

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time
