FAITH DIRECT

eGiving with Faith Direct

Dear Parishioners,

To strengthen our parishes for the busy months ahead, I am setting a Welcome Summer! eGiving Goal! My goal is to increase the number of families at St. Mary's/St. Boniface that use eGiving by 10% before summer starts. If you make the switch today, you'll be giving steady, consistent support to the parish ministries you care about most in the months ahead - even if you're out of town during summer weekends. These warm-weather adventures will be joyful times for our parish families - but a fun, fast-paced summer can slow down our offertory when people give with checks and envelopes.

That's why I've set this Welcome Summer! eGiving Goal!

Helping us to reach this goal is simple. Signing up with a recurring gift is easy, just go to faith.direct/TX1144 for St. Boniface and faith.direct/TX1143 for St. Mary's. The more parishioners we have signed up for eGiving, the more consistent and predictable our offertory will be each month.

May God bless you and your loved ones this summer and all year long.

In His name,

Father Michael

JUNE – MONTH OF THE SACRED HEART

On the Friday following the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus because this solemnity usually falls in June, this month is also known as the "Month of the Sacred Heart." Devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus is all about pondering Christ's love and meditating on Christ's suffering.

Embody your faith

Being church is a different identity than simply going to church. If we are truly the Body of Christ, then we embrace this identity with a sense of purpose. Saint Paul describes the church as a body with many parts that function for the sake of the whole. Some of us have obvious gifts like preaching, teaching, or offering a healing presence. Others may benefit from prayer, spiritual direction, faith sharing, or a discernment retreat to come to an awareness of the particular service to which we're called. Joy is in the discovery of the Spirit's personal invitation to you.

SOLEMNITY OF PENTECOST

TODAY'S READINGS: Day: Acts 2:1-11; 1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13 or Romans 8:8-17; John 20:19-23 (63). "There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord."

You will not be orphaned

Although the devotion to Mary as "Mother of the Church" is ancient, today's memorial is relatively new—having been instituted in 2018 by Pope Francis when he decreed it will be celebrated annually on the Monday after Pentecost Sunday—to "encourage the growth of the maternal sense of the church." Reflect on how you can "mother" the church—as well as your family and friends, your community and work place, and even yourself. You don't have to be or have a mother in the traditional sense to know how to offer loving care. Standing beneath the cross, said Francis, Mary "welcomed all people in the person of the beloved disciple as sons and daughters"—that means you, too.

MEMORIAL OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY, MOTHER OF THE CHURCH

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 3:9-15, 20 or Acts 1:12-14; John 19:25-34 (572a). "He said to his mother, 'Woman, behold, your son.'"

Let go and let God

On this day in 1925, Blessed Matt Talbot—40 years sober—died enroute to Sunday Mass. Though Alcoholics Anonymous wouldn't exist for another 10 years, Talbot had already discerned the central truth of AA's Twelve Steps. "It's as hard to give up the drink as it is to raise the dead to life again," he said. "But both are possible and even easy for our Lord. We have only to depend on him." Talbot is the patron of those who struggle with alcohol addiction. Ask his intercession for yourself or another who needs to kick a harmful habit.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Kings 17:7-16; Matthew 5:13-16 (360). "Your light must shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your heavenly Father."

Honor and emulate a trailblazer for racial justice

On this day in 1910, Father Stephen Theobald was ordained for the Archdiocese of Saint Paul-Minneapolis, the first black diocesan priest ordained on U.S. soil. Theobald was born in Guyana in 1874 and later worked as a journalist in Canada before being recruited to Minnesota by Archbishop John Ireland, a fierce racial justice advocate. For his entire priestly career, Theobald served at Saint Peter Claver Catholic Church in Saint Paul, the only black parish in the state. He also served in the local chapter of the NAACP, advocating tirelessly for black lives. May we all follow his lasting example of saying "Yes!" to God and "No!" to injustice.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Kings 18:20-39; Matthew 5:17-19 (361). "Let it be known this day that you are God in Israel and that I am your servant."

Sing with the Syrian saint

Although you may never have heard of him, today's saint left a lasting imprint on the church. Ephrem of Syria (306-373) is known for his writing—primarily for works that battled heresies—but even more so for introducing singing as a form of worship and education. Known as the Harp of the Holy Spirit, he cleverly wrote lyrics that educated the faithful against false teaching. Syriac churches still sing hymns that originated with him. The next time a hymn moves you, say a prayer of thanksgiving to Saint Ephrem.

MEMORIAL OF EPHREM OF SYRIA, DEACON, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Kings 18:41-46; Matthew 5:20-26 (362). "[B]e reconciled with your brother, and then come and offer your gift."

Let's get our bearings

"Why are we here?" is an age-old question. As Dostoyevsky writes in The Brothers Karamazov: "The mystery of human existence lies not in just staying alive, but in finding something to live for." One might think that Christians have it easy because Jesus clearly spells out our purpose for living: "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind . . . [and] you shall love your neighbor as yourself" (Matt. 22:37-39). But on a day-to-day basis in any given situation, it is not always obvious what the loving response is and whether we are prepared to offer it. That is where prayer comes in. It can provide just the right environment for hearing God's finest whispers leading to the path of love.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Kings 19:9a, 11-16; Matthew 5:27-32 (363).

"There was a tiny whispering sound. . . . A voice said to him, 'Elijah, why are you here?'"

One, holy, catholic, apostolic

In our recitation of the Nicene Creed at Sunday Mass, we profess our belief in "one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church." Those four adjectives are called the four "marks" or "attributes" of the church. One, because despite the many divisions and denominations of Christianity all worship one God, one Spirit, and one Lord, Jesus Christ. Holy, because, like sacred objects, the church is set apart for God's purpose. Catholic, from the Greek word for "universal," because it is for all without excluding any group or class of people. Apostolic, because it arises out of the efforts of the apostles, both the original 12 and others, like today's saint, Barnabas, who were later named apostles. And like you and me, called today to embody these same attributes.

MEMORIAL OF BARNABAS, APOSTLE

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 11:21b-26; 13:1-3; Matthew 5:33-37 (580; Gospel 364). "Let your 'Yes' mean 'Yes,' and your 'No' mean 'No.'"

Growing in FAITH™

Discovering hope and joy in the Catholic faith.

June 2022

St. Mary's/St. Boniface

Fr. Michael Moloney, O.F.S., Pastor

One Minute Meditations

Take your rightful place

As a baptized Catholic, your parish is your home by right.

As such, you have the right to a seat at your parish table.

You take it when you attend weekend Mass, and seek peace from sacraments such as the Sacrament of Reconciliation or Holy Matrimony.

Times change; God doesn't

The Bible tells of countless times when God gave his people victory in otherwise hopeless circumstances, provided for them when they had no resources, and guided them in their decisions. God is ready to work as powerfully for you.

"Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right. 'Honor your father and mother' (this is the first commandment with a promise), 'that it may be well with you and that you may live long on the earth.' Fathers, do not provoke your children to anger, but bring them up in the discipline and instruction of the Lord" (Ephesians 6:1-4).

God waits for our "Yes"

God loves us and wants us to be happy with Him in Heaven forever, but He won't force Himself on us. Out of respect for our free will, God asks that we cooperate with His grace to save us, but leaves it up to us to say, "Yes!"

Cultivate your faith. The better we know our Catholic Faith the easier it is to know how to live it. The Catechism of the Catholic Church summarizes all major teachings of the Catholic Church. Read an article in it each day and learn a new term from the glossary weekly. Then, there will be no guessing about what Catholics believe.

Keep your conscience in shape.

A well-formed conscience signals us when a choice is virtuous (good) or sinful (bad). Review what the Ten Commandments and the Beatitudes require. Meditate on the examples of Jesus and Mary in the Gospels and how your behavior compares.

Stay close to the Sacraments. Through the Sacraments we directly encounter Christ. Attend Confession monthly and Mass at least weekly. This is the best way to stay close to God and His Heart.

Perform Works of Mercy. God uses these opportunities to conform us more fully to Christ. Find ways to serve your parish in time, resources, or gifts. It is Jesus who ultimately receives our gift (Matthew 25:40).

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do Catholics use the different titles when we address the clergy?

After Jesus ascended, the Church grew so quickly that the spiritual needs of the Christian community demanded a global hierarchy of clergy to minister to them while maintaining the unity of the Faith. In response, the Apostles ordained deacons to assist so they could focus on liturgy (Acts 6:2-4). Today, there are different titles for different roles and levels of authority. For example, we are most likely to encounter priests ("Father"), deacons, and bishops ("Your Excellency," or "Your Grace").

Three invaluable lessons from the Sacred Heart devotion

Attaining holiness can seem overwhelming and complicated, but Jesus makes it simple: "Learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart" (Matthew 11:29). Follow the lessons of His Sacred Heart.

Focus on Jesus. We often get in trouble when we lose sight of who Jesus is (God) and how much He loves us. Actually, God is always close and loves us with an infinite, intense, burning love. Keep an image of the Sacred Heart nearby for when you feel discouraged or disconnected from Him.

Give Him your "Yes." Instead of relying on your own strength and strategy, consecrate yourself to Jesus' Sacred Heart and let Him form and direct you. He is patient, gentle, and knows what we can handle. Say "Yes" to whatever He asks.

"Love is not loved!" Jesus wants our love but is often rejected by our sins. Love Jesus for those who won't. Spend time with Him and thank Him for what He's done for you. Offer Him your sufferings for a soul in need.

from Scripture

Luke 9:51-62, the cost of discipleship

Jesus' listeners often got swept up by his charismatic manner and professed eagerness to follow him. But they weren't always prepared for what it took to be a true disciple.

In this Gospel passage, a young man asked to follow Jesus but was deflated when Jesus pointed out that He had no home and none of the things considered necessary for a happy life. Jesus warned that it wouldn't always be comfortable to follow him.

The timing wasn't right for the second man. He promised to follow Jesus but said he needed to fulfill his duty to his dying father first. In truth, Jesus sets the priorities we follow. Our duty is to obey.

Finally, Jesus used the example of plowing a field to make His point. If you look back while plowing it can ruin the job. He used that example to help the third man understand that we need to have a singleness of purpose to be His disciple. We will have to make sacrifices to follow Jesus. But He promises us that the rewards will be worth much more.

Q & A Why are there different lists of Apostles?

Ever wonder why there seem to be different Apostles in different Gospels? For instance, there's a "Judas, not the Iscariot" at the Last Supper (John 14:22) who isn't mentioned anywhere else.

Likewise, Nathanael, who asked "Can anything good come out of Nazareth?" (John 1:46), is absent in the other Gospels.

Usually, the difference is because some of the Apostles had two names. For example, St. Matthew the tax collector, before joining Jesus, is "Levi" (Mark 2:14; Luke 5:27). The "other" Judas is called Thaddaeus. Nathanael is in the other Gospels, too, but under his Jewish surname, Bartholomew (Bar-Tolomai, "son of Tolomai").

Considering that half of the Twelve Apostles would have shared a name with another Apostle, some may have changed names to avoid confusion, e.g. Judas-not-the-Iscariot changing his name to Thaddaeus. All these differences show that the Apostles, who came from diverse backgrounds, were called for one mission of building up the Kingdom. Likewise, God calls us to build up the Kingdom, and gives each an important role in it.

Feasts & Celebrations

June 4 – St. Francis Caracciolo (1608). St. Francis was born in the Abruzzo region in Italy. He went on to found the Minor Clerks Regular with St. John Adorno. The Order was approved in 1588, and St. Francis became its superior for life.

June 6 – Mary, Mother of the Church (2018). On the Cross, Jesus gave us His mother to be our mother (John 19:27). Even in Heaven, she prays and cares for us as our spiritual mother.

June 19 – Corpus Christi Sunday.

On this solemnity, we celebrate the transformation of the bread and wine into Jesus' Body and Blood in the Holy Eucharist. This solemnity was established by Pope Urban IV in 1264 in response to the need for a Eucharistic feast day.

June 23 – The Nativity of St. John the Baptist (1st century). Before St. John was born, his father, Zechariah received a message from the angel Gabriel foretelling his birth. His doubt was punished by his being struck speechless until John's birth.

Meditaciones breves

Ocupen el puesto que les corresponde

Como católicos bautizados, su parroquia es por derecho su hogar. Por lo tanto tienen el derecho de sentarse a la mesa de su parroquia. Lo hacen cuando asisten a la misa dominical o buscan paz en sacramentos como el sacramento de la Reconciliación o el Santo Matrimonio.

Los tiempos cambian, Dios no

La Biblia nos habla de numerosas ocasiones en las que Dios dio la victoria a su pueblo en circunstancias desesperadas, los sacó adelante cuando carecían de recursos y los encaminó en sus decisiones. Dios está listo para asistirnos con todo su poder.

"Hijos, obedezcan a sus padres en el Señor porque esto es lo justo, ya que el primer mandamiento que contiene una promesa es este: Honra a tu padre y a tu madre, para que seas feliz y tengas una larga vida en la tierra. Padres, no irriten a sus hijos; al contrario, eduquenlos, corrigiéndolos y aconsejándolos, según el espíritu del Señor" (Efesios 6:1-4).

Dios aguarda nuestro "Sí"

Dios nos ama y quiere que seamos felices para siempre con él en el Cielo, pero no se nos impondrá. Por respeto a nuestro libre albedrío, Dios nos pide que cooperemos con su gracia para salvarnos, pero deja en nuestras manos el decir "¡Sí!"

Cultive su fe. Cuanto mejor conozcamos nuestra fe católica, más fácil nos resultará saber vivirla. El Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica resume las enseñanzas más importantes de la Iglesia católica. Lea un artículo del catecismo a diario y aprenda semanalmente un nuevo término del glosario. Así no tendrá que hacer suposiciones sobre lo que creen los católicos.

Mantenga en forma su conciencia. Una conciencia bien formada nos indica cuándo optamos por algo virtuoso (bueno) o por algo pecaminoso (malo). Repase lo que requieren los Diez Mandamientos y las Bienaventuranzas. Medite en el ejemplo de Jesús y María en los Evangelios y cómo se compara el comportamiento de usted con el de ellos.

No se aleje de los sacramentos. Nos encontramos directamente con Cristo mediante los sacramentos. Vaya a confesar mensualmente y asista a misa por lo menos semanalmente. Es la mejor manera de estar cerca de Cristo y de su corazón.

Haga obras de misericordia. Dios usa estas oportunidades para que nos ajustemos más plenamente a Cristo. Busque formas de servir a su parroquia con tiempo, recursos o donativos. En definitiva es Jesús quien recibe nuestra dádiva (Mateo 25:40).

¿Por qué hacen eso los católicos?

¿Por qué usamos distintos títulos los católicos para dirigirnos al clero?

Después de la ascensión de Jesús, la Iglesia creció tan rápidamente que las necesidades espirituales de la comunidad cristiana requerían una jerarquía global del clero que las atendiera al mismo tiempo que mantenía la unidad de la fe. En consecuencia los Apóstoles ordenaron diáconos que les ayudaran para poderse concentrar en la liturgia (Hechos 6:2-4).

Hoy existen distintos títulos para distintas funciones y niveles de autoridad. Por ejemplo, probablemente nos encontremos con sacerdotes ("Padre"), diáconos y obispos ("Su excelencia").

Tres inapreciables lecciones de la devoción al Sagrado Corazón

Puede parecer abrumador y complicado alcanzar la santidad, pero Jesús lo simplifica: "Aprendan de mí, que soy paciente y humilde de corazón" (Mateo 11:29). Sigamos estas lecciones de su Inmaculado Corazón.

Concéntrense en Jesús. A menudo nos metemos en problemas cuando perdemos de vista quién es Jesús (Dios) y cuánto nos ama. Dios está siempre cerca y nos ama con un amor infinito, intenso y ardiente. Tengan cerca una imagen del Sagrado Corazón para cuando se sientan desanimados o desconectados de él.

Denle su "Sí". En lugar de confiar en su propia fuerza y estrategias, conságrense al Sagrado Corazón de Jesús y permítanle que los forme y los dirija. Él es paciente, amable y sabe lo que podemos sobrellevar. Díganle "Sí" a cuanto les pida.

"¡El amor no es amado!" Jesús quiere nuestro amor pero es a menudo rechazado por nuestros pecados. Amen a Jesús por los que no lo hacen. Pasen tiempo con él y agradézcanle lo que ha hecho por ustedes. Ofrezcan sus sufrimientos por un alma que lo necesite.

de las Escrituras

Lucas 9:51-62, el precio del discipulado

Los que escuchaban a Jesús a menudo se dejaban llevar por su carisma y declaraban su entusiasmo por seguirlo. Pero no siempre estaban preparados para lo que conlleva ser un auténtico discípulo.

En este pasaje evangélico, un hombre joven pidió seguir a Jesús pero se decepcionó cuando Jesús le indicó que él carecía de hogar y de las cosas consideradas necesarias para una vida feliz.

Jesús le advirtió que no siempre sería cómodo seguirlo.

El momento no era oportuno para el segundo hombre. Prometió seguir a Jesús pero dijo que debía cumplir la obligación debida a su padre moribundo. Lo cierto es que Jesús establece las prioridades que seguimos. Nuestra obligación es obedecer.

Finalmente Jesús usó el ejemplo del arado de un campo para insistir en su mensaje. Si al arar se mira hacia atrás se puede arruinar el surco. Usó este ejemplo para ayudar a que el tercer hombre entendiera que para ser discípulo de Jesús nuestro objetivo debe ser único. Tendremos que hacer sacrificios para seguir a Jesús. Pero nos promete que las recompensas valdrán mucho más.

P & R ¿Por qué hay distintas listas de Apóstoles?

¿Se ha preguntado alguna vez por qué parece que hay distintos Apóstoles en los distintos Evangelios? Por ejemplo, hay un "Judas, no el Iscariote" en la Última Cena (Juan 14:22), que no se menciona en ninguna otra parte. Así mismo, Natanael que preguntó "¿Acaso puede salir algo bueno de Nazaret?" (Juan 1:46), está ausente de los otros Evangelios.

Generalmente la diferencia radica en que algunos de los Apóstoles tenían dos nombres. Por ejemplo san Mateo, el recaudador de impuestos, antes de conocer a Jesús es Leví (Marcos 2:14; Lucas 5:27). El "otro" Judas se llama Tadeo. Natanael está en los otros Evangelios también, pero con su apelativo judío, Bartolomé (Bar-Tolomai, "hijo de Tolomai").

Teniendo en cuenta que la mitad de los Doce Apóstoles habría compartido un nombre con otro Apóstol, es posible que alguno cambiara el nombre para evitar confusiones, por ejemplo, Judas "no el Iscariote" a Tadeo. Todas estas diferencias muestran que los Apóstoles, que provenían de entornos diversos, fueron llamados para una misión, la de construir el Reino. Dios nos llama también a nosotros para construir el Reino y nos da una importante función en esta misión.

Fiestas y celebraciones

4 de junio – San Francisco Caracciolo (1608). San Francisco nació en la región italiana de los Abruzzos. Fundó la Orden Regular de Clérigos Menores con san Juan Adorno. La orden fue ratificada en 1588 y san Francisco fue el superior por vida.

10 de junio – María, Madre de la Iglesia (2018). Cuando estaba en la Cruz, Jesús nos dio a su madre para que fuera nuestra madre (Juan 19:27). Incluso desde el Cielo reza y se ocupa de nosotros como nuestra madre espiritual.

19 de junio – Domingo de Corpus Christi. En esta solemnidad celebramos la transformación del pan y el vino en el Cuerpo y la Sangre en la Sagrada Eucaristía. Esta solemnidad fue establecida por el papa Urbano IV en 1264 como respuesta a la necesidad de una festividad eucarística.

23 de junio – El nacimiento de san Juan Bautista (siglo I). Antes de que san Juan naciera, su padre Zacarías recibió un mensaje del ángel Gabriel profetizando su nacimiento. Por dudar fue castigado con la mudez hasta el nacimiento de Juan.

Be with the families of those who are sick or have died. As they worry and grieve, defend them from illness and despair. May they know your peace.

Jesus Christ, you traveled through towns and villages "curing every disease and illness."

At your command, the sick were made well. Come to our aid now, in the midst of the global spread of the coronavirus, that we may experience your healing love.

Heal those who are sick with the virus. May they regain their strength and health through quality medical care.

Heal us from our fear, which prevents nations from working together and neighbors from helping one another.

Heal us from our pride, which can make us claim invulnerability to a disease that knows no borders.

Jesus Christ, healer of all, stay by our side in this time of uncertainty and sorrow.

Be with those who have died from the virus. May they be at rest with you in your eternal peace.

Be with the doctors, nurses, researchers and all medical professionals who seek to heal and help those affected and who put themselves at risk in the process. May they know your protection and peace.

Be with the leaders of all nations. Give them the foresight to act with charity and true concern for the well-being of the people they are meant to serve. Give them the wisdom to invest in long-term solutions that will help prepare for or prevent future outbreaks. May they know your peace, as they work together to achieve it on earth.

Whether we are home or abroad, surrounded by many people suffering from this illness or only a few, Jesus Christ, stay with us as we endure and mourn, persist and prepare. In place of our anxiety, give us your peace.

Jesus Christ, heal us. Amen.
