The Holy Name of Jesus Catholic Community, one Church of many peoples, exists to praise and honor God, to embrace the dignity of every person, to grow together spiritually, and to witness to the Good News of Jesus Christ in Redlands, California. We challenge ourselves to deepen our unity as we move forward toward the vision of a new place of worship.

La Comunidad Católica del Santo Nombre de Jesús, una Iglesia de varias culturas, existe para darle honor y gloria a Dios, alimentar la dignidad de cada persona, juntos crecer espiritualmente, y a ser testigo de La Buena Noticia de Jesucristo en Redlands, California. Los desafiamos a si mismos para mejorar nuestra unidad mientras tomamos pasos mas allá, hacia nuestra nueva casa de oración.

Coordinator's Corner ~ Esquina del Coordinador

A woman recently told me her husband of over 40 years said something that surprised her. She said, "I thought I knew everything about him and what he said showed me that there are still things, after over 40 years, that I don't know or do not understand about my husband."

We are mysteries: each one of us, all of us. In relationships we come to know each other. To know each other is to understand each other's ways; to know each other is to have empathy and understanding toward another person. In the ideal order, to know someone is to accept the other person as he or she is.

In speaking of His relationship with us, Jesus says that He knows each and every one of us. He understands us. He empathizes with us. He accepts us as we are, while challenging us to become the person God calls us to be.

In turn, we can know Jesus through study and reflection on His word, through time spent in prayer, through worship, through ministry, through involvement in our faith community, we can come to know, understand, empathize with, and accept Jesus. This mutual knowing between Jesus and us is spiritual intimacy with our God.

We are told in the readings today of some of the fruit of intimacy with Jesus. In explaining to us, in the Gospel, that the Father and He are one, Jesus reminds us that He is the face of God. God is mystery, but to know Jesus is to begin to know and understand the mystery of God. We are told in the Book of Revelation that God, through Jesus, wipes away our tears. This mutual knowing between God and us helps us with all the challenges and pains of being human.

Journeying with you,
Deacon Steve

Una mujer recientemente me dijo que su esposo de más de 40 años dijo algo que la sorprendió. Ella dijo, "Pensé que sabía todo sobre él y lo que dijo me mostró que todavía hay cosas, después de más de 40 años, que no sé o no entiendo de mi esposo".

Somos misterios: cada uno de nosotros, todos nosotros. En las relaciones llegamos a conocernos. Conocerse mutuamente es entender las maneras de cada uno, conocerse mutuamente es tener empatía y comprensión hacia otra persona. En el orden ideal, conocer a alguien es aceptar a la otra persona como él o ella es.

Jesus
accepts us as we are
while challenging us
to become the person
God calls us to be

Jesús
nos acepta como somos
mientras nos desafía
a ser la persona que
Dios nos llama a ser

Al hablar de su relación con nosotros, Jesús dice que Él nos conoce a todos y cada uno de nosotros. Él nos entiende. Él se identifica con nosotros. Él nos acepta como somos, mientras nos desafía a ser la persona que Dios nos llama a ser.

A su vez, podemos conocer a Jesús a través del estudio y la reflexión sobre su palabra, a través del tiempo dedicado a la oración, a través del culto divino, a través del ministerio, a través de la participación en nuestra comunidad de fe, podemos llegar a conocer, comprender, empatizar con y aceptar a Jesús. Este conocimiento mutuo entre Jesús y nosotros es la intimidad espiritual con nuestro Dios.

En las lecturas de hoy se nos habla de algunos de los frutos de la intimidad con Jesús. Al explicarnos, en el Evangelio, que el Padre y Él son uno, Jesús nos recuerda que Él es el rostro de Dios. Dios es misterio, pero conocer a Jesús es comenzar a conocer y comprender el misterio de Dios. Se nos dice en el libro de Apocalipsis que Dios, a través de Jesús, enjuga nuestras lágrimas. Este conocimiento mutuo entre Dios y nosotros nos ayuda con todos los desafíos y dolores de ser humano.

Caminando con ustedes,
Diácono Steve

Prayer for Vocations

GOD OUR FATHER, we thank you for calling men and women to serve in your Son's Kingdom as priests, deacons, religious, and consecrated persons. Send your Holy Spirit to help us respond generously and courageously to your call. May our community of faith support vocations of sacrificial love in our youth. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Amen

Who we are and Whose we are

A young man was going away to fulfill his military obligation. His family, of course, was nervous about his departure, knowing that his time in the service would take him a long way from home and expose him to physical danger, and to multiple temptations and situations that could distract him from his Christian beliefs and responsibilities. His grandmother called him aside before he left for boot camp, and she said to him with conviction, "Just remember who you are and how you were raised. Remember to go to church every Sunday and to pray every day." The young man would later say that even given all the commands directed to him by his drill sergeant, it was the words of his grandmother that would resonate in his mind and in his heart for the rest of his life. "Remember who you are and how you were raised."

Mothers, Grandmothers, Aunts, and Godmothers often speak the truth to us at critical times in our life's journey — whether we like it or not. Even if we do not appreciate what is said at the time, their words resonate years later as truth.

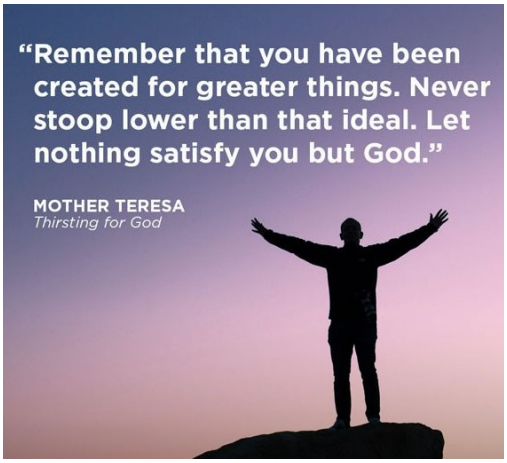
We are baptized into Christ's body; this makes us brothers and sisters whose "citizenship is in Heaven". We belong to Jesus Christ, the Good Shepherd, who calls us to follow Him and leads us to eternal life. "Remember who you are and how you were raised."

The life of a Christian steward is that simple. The world presents many things to us that are attractive to the senses but deadly to the soul. We must always remember who we are. In times of temptation we must remember that we do know better than others who do not share our moral convictions. Just because it is popular or accepted does not make it right. We know better. We are not like other people because our citizenship is in Heaven. If it feels from time to time that our morals are out of place in this world, it is because they are. There is a kingdom of this world and a kingdom of heaven, and we get a glimpse of this heaven from the book of Revelation today:

"a vision of a great multitude, which no one could count, from every nation, race, people, and tongue"

You and I belong to this vast multitude of all different kinds of people where Jesus will "shepherd us to life-giving water, and God will wipe away every tear from our eyes." When I attended the Parish Renewal Retreat 2 years ago, I came to understand the incredible peace and joy of this kind of unity… where each of us is loved and the many become one. All division, heartache, and turmoil in my restless heart fell away. On that weekend, I glimpsed heaven — others did, too.

It is easy to get wrapped up in busyness and forget that Heaven exists. It is then even easier to forget that we are called to build the Kingdom - Heaven - on this earth. That is why it is important to remember to go to church every Sunday and to pray. We need each other. We need Jesus. The substantial presence of Jesus in the Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist gives us the ability to remember who we are: citizens of a kingdom not of this world. Then, we can persevere in the fundamental decisions we make to follow the Lord and to follow Him unreservedly.



We must remember who we are and whose we are.

We can build the kingdom. We really can.

After retirement I always wanted to focus my efforts and time on teaching biblical studies and theology to fellow Catholics in my parish. I am fortunate and blessed to have been given that opportunity. Our Tuesday night class at Holy Name of Jesus Church is a wonderful spirit filled and vibrant group!

The class forum consists of commentary and lecture on the scripture along with faith sharing and prayer. It's an excellent opportunity to grow spiritually in your Catholic faith, acquire knowledge about the Bible, and build friendships with people from the parish.

Since October, we have studied many Old Testament books, learned about current Catholic biblical scholarship and the Church's teaching on reading and interpreting scripture. Though we have grown to 30+ people since October, there is still room for you! No previous experience needed. Just an open heart!

We have just begun the book of 2 Samuel and plan to complete our study of the Old Testament by the end of November. Join us for all or part of the journey. If you have a New American Bible (NAB), please bring it; if not, we will lend you one.

We look forward to meeting you,
Jesse Del Rio

Children gather in an "atrium," a room prepared for them, which contains simple yet beautiful materials they use to help them absorb the most essential proclamations of the Catholic Christian faith.

Reducing waste shares God's abundance with others. One idea...learn how to politely say no to things you don't need at a restaurant, such as extra utensils, or packets of ketchup and soy sauce. Those items are offered out of generosity and desire to provide good service, but often add unnecessarily to our landfills and waste management systems. Bring your own utensils when using take-out, so that you don't need to take disposable items. Reflect this week: How can I reduce the use of take-out items that rely on a lot of packaging?.

Our gifts to the Diocesan Development Fund (DDF) directly support Catholic Charities as well as other ministries that feed, clothe, and assist the poor throughout San Bernardino and Riverside counties.

Our DDF gifts also make possible: diocesan workshops, adult formation, ministry leader training, pro-life and family ministries, and more for 92 parishes; and funds directly support seminarian education and Catholic schools.

If you would like to donate to the DDF online, please use our convenient Online Giving Program!

Find it on the parish website:

"If Catholic Charities was not here, I would still be living in my car. I'm stronger and more sufficient to where I can get around a little better from what I used to do, to now go out there and seek employment. I don't know what else I would do… I have hope with Catholic Charities because I know they're a good organization and they reach out to people that need help. It's a good thing."
