A LETTER FROM FATHER

No on Proposition 1

This coming November, here in the State of California, there is an important proposition on the ballot. The Bishops of California are asking all Catholics to Vote NO on Proposition 1. Propositions on a ballot can be very confusing and ads on television can be purposely misleading. For us as Catholics we must see beyond the confusion and get at the heart of what we believe as a Church. While Proposition 1 does not seek to end abortion in the State of California, it is seeking to prevent our state from becoming even more extreme in abortion rights and end any type of limitations on abortion in the state. Here is some information provided by the CA Bishops Conference. In California, this November, voters are faced with a choice to keep abortion law in our state as it is or to vote in favor of a new constitutional amendment that would permanently expand and vastly increase abortions in our state, without doing anything to give vulnerable women a real choice. While we pray and work for the day when every human life, born and unborn, will be protected in law and welcomed in life, today we work to defeat this ballot initiative. Sadly, California already has some of the most permissive abortion policies in the nation. Our law allows abortion for any reason up to viability (around 24 weeks of pregnancy) and late-term abortion to protect the life or health of the mother. Recent court decisions do not change that reality in California. This year, our governor and legislative leaders have vowed to make California an "abortion sanctuary." They are making good on their promise through 20 bills expanding access to abortion and by allocating $200 million in the state budget to pay for abortions for women in California and those seeking abortion from out of state. The California Legislature put Proposition 1 on the November ballot, an extreme proposal that, if approved by voters, would over-ride current law and will permanently allow taxpayer-funded late-term abortions without limit. My brothers and sisters, we cannot allow for unlimited late-term abortions for any reason, at any time, even moments before birth, paid for by tax dollars. Please learn more about Proposition 1 at https://cacatholic.org/prop1. Let us vote NO on Proposition 1.

Este próximo noviembre, en el Estado de California, hay una propuesta importante en la boleta electoral. Los obispos de California están pidiendo a todos los católicos que voten NO a la Proposición 1. Las propuestas en la boleta electoral pueden ser muy confusa y los anuncios en la televisión pueden ser engañosos. Para nosotros, como católicos, debemos ver más allá de la confusión y llegar al corazón de lo que creemos como Iglesia. Si bien la Propuesta 1 no busca terminar con el aborto en el estado de California, busca evitar que nuestro estado se vuelva aún más extremista en los derechos al aborto y terminar con cualquier tipo de limitación al aborto en el estado. Aquí hay información proporcionada por la Conferencia de Obispos de CA. En California, este noviembre, los votantes se enfrentan a la opción de mantener la ley del aborto en nuestro estado tal como está o votar a favor de una nueva enmienda constitucional que expandiría permanentemente y aumentaría enormemente los abortos en nuestro estado, sin hacer nada para dar a las personas vulnerables las mujeres una elección real. Mientras oramos y trabajamos por el día en que toda vida humana, nacida y por nacer, sea protegida por la ley y bienvenida en la vida, hoy trabajamos para derrotar esta iniciativa electoral. Lamentablemente, California ya tiene algunas de las políticas de aborto más permisivas del país. Nuestra ley permite el aborto por cualquier motivo hasta la viabilidad (alrededor de 24 semanas de embarazo) y el aborto tardío para proteger la vida o la salud de la madre. Las decisiones judiciales recientes no cambian esa realidad en California. Este año, nuestro gobernador y los líderes legislativos prometieron hacer de California un "santuario del aborto". Están cumpliendo su promesa a través de 20 proyectos de ley que amplían el acceso al aborto y asignando $200 millones en el presupuesto estatal para pagar abortos para mujeres en California y aquellas que buscan abortos fuera del estado. La Legislatura de California colocó la Proposición 1 en la boleta electoral de noviembre, una propuesta extrema que, si es aprobada por los votantes, anularía la ley actual y permitiría de forma permanente abortos tardíos financiados por los contribuyentes sin límite. Mis hermanos y hermanas, no podemos permitir abortos tardíos ilimitados por ningún motivo, en ningún momento, incluso momentos antes del nacimiento, pagados con dólares de los impuestos. Obtenga más información sobre la Propuesta 1 en https://cacatholic.org/prop1. Votemos NO a la Proposición 1.

If you are my age, you may recall the following illustrated story from Sesame Street.

A mother sends her young daughter to the market to buy 3 things:
a loaf of bread, a container of milk, and a stick of butter.

Instead of accepting a written list from her mother, the daughter ensures her mother that she can remember the list… and the mother trusts her to remember and purchase the items needed, and only the items needed.

The daughter returns with the 3 items and the mother praises her.

This week, Jesus shares the story of a wealthy master who dismisses his trusted steward because the steward has not managed the master's wealth responsibly. There is an implied dishonesty similar to the tax collectors who charged exorbitant interest; for example, the steward could have peddled in stolen goods, embezzled, created a Ponzi scheme. The master demands an accounting; and the steward shrewdly arranges partial re-payments to provide his master with something instead of nothing and to curry favor for future work.

Jesus then drives home his point: "The person who is trustworthy in very small matters is also trustworthy in great ones; and the person who is dishonest in very small matters is also dishonest in great ones. If, therefore, you are not trustworthy with dishonest wealth, who will trust you with true wealth? If you are not trustworthy with what belongs to another, who will give you what is truly yours?"

The child who performed her simple task honestly is building trust with her mother and personal integrity. We can infer that, little by little, she will receive opportunities to steward more important matters.

The dishonest steward did not become dishonest overnight… he started on his crooked path by abusing simple responsibilities; and, advanced by creatively manipulating others to conceal his deceit.

God is the Giver. He entrusts us to steward his gifts in love for one another and lift up His Name.

We can either choose to:

- make a return to the Lord first, ask him to guide your use of his gifts, work hard and spend wisely, care for and uplift my family, keep promises, give freely, plan ahead, mentor colleagues;
- look out for my own desires first, quietly quit at work, spend on a whim, interact minimally with my family, break promises, hoard possessions, cheat others to get ahead, ignore others' needs.

Where we invest ourselves, our hearts, and our money speaks volumes about our values. Jesus reminds us that we will either serve God or serve mammon (money). Where do you invest the majority of your energy? How do you spend the gift of a few spare minutes? What do your spending habits reveal about what is important to you?

We only get one opportunity to live as Christ's disciples and prepare for eternal life. All of us will be asked to account for our lives. If you find yourself worrying about this, try giving your first hour of your pay to the Lord in the weekly offertory for 30 days. See how that little act will bring you closer to God and impact your life.

WHY IS IT
A man wakes up after sleeping
under an ADVERTISED blanket
on an ADVERTISED mattress and pulls off ADVERTISED pajamas bathes in an ADVERTISED shower
shaves with an ADVERTISED razor
brushes his teeth
with ADVERTISED toothpaste
washes with ADVERTISED soap puts on ADVERTISED clothes
drinks a cup of ADVERTISED coffee
drives to work
in an ADVERTISED car
and then . . . .
refuses to ADVERTISE
believing it doesn't pay.
Later if business is poor
he ADVERTISES it for sale.
