

TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME | OCTOBER 17, 2021

FROM THE ARCHBISHOP

My dear friends,

Peace and All Good Things!

We have been invited to participate in an unprecedented moment in our Church's history beginning this fall. On Sunday, October 10, Pope Francis opened a two-year process called Synod 2021-2023—For a Synodal Church: Communion, Participation and Mission that will uniquely engage not only Catholics but God's people all over the world. I want to personally encourage you, your family, and all those who are dear to you to join with me and our brothers and sisters in north and central Georgia on this extraordinary journey of faith.

I will celebrate a very special Mass on Sunday, October 17, at the Cathedral of Christ the King to open the archdiocesan phase of the Synod. I hope you will join me in your own parish by praying fervently for its success and committing to active personal participation as we move ahead. Whether you are seated in the pews or virtual, have been here for decades or moved yesterday, speak a different language(s), are feeling close to God or not, are young or old, I hope to hear from you.

A synod is a "journeying together"—a shared journey of prayer, listening and discernment. When we engage in this process, we go back to the very roots of what it means to be Christians as a pilgrim Church together on the way, following Jesus who is the way. What's more, this synod aims to reframe our journey moving forward. "The objective of this Synodal Process is not to provide a temporary or one-time experience of synodality, but rather to provide an opportunity for the entire People of God to discern together how to move forward on the path towards being a more synodal Church in the long-term" (Vademecum, 1.3).

In the words of the Holy Father, "... the purpose of this Synod, and therefore of this consultation, is not to produce documents, but to 'plant dreams, draw forth prophesies and visions, allow hope to flourish, inspire trust, bind up wounds, weave together relationships, awaken a dawn of hope, learn from one another and create a bright resourcefulness that will enlighten minds, warm hearts, give strength to our hands'" (Preparatory Document, 32).

In the coming weeks and months, your pastors, ministry leaders and brothers and sisters will be inviting you to speak and to listen as part of this process. The archdiocese will provide resources about the process throughout our communities. Look for opportunities to participate in a listening session or contribute to a survey and to join us in prayer, study, and reflection as we journey together. As we continue our Eucharistic Renewal, I invite each of you to spend time with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, praying that this Synod will bear abundant fruit. Come Holy Spirit!

Yours in Christ,
Most Reverend Gregory J. Hartmayer, OFM Conv.
Archbishop of Atlanta

ANNOUNCEMENT

Masks are once again strongly recommended for everyone at mass regardless of vaccination status, and required for those who are not fully vaccinated.

Holy Communion will continue to be offered in the hand only until it is safe for us to resume our pre-pandemic norms.

THE 2021 IHM APPLE CHALLENGE!

IN RESPONSE TO FATHER AL'S HOMILY, a very generous parishioner is offering a $50,000 matching gift, if other parishioners will donate an additional $50,000 over and above their regular parish support in the next week. As the bulletin goes to press, we've received $32,000 toward the challenge!

THIS EFFORT WOULD ERASE OUR $100,000 OFFERTORY SHORTFALL vs. the pre-pandemic year 2019, and would allow us to retain all our dedicated parish staff through the current fiscal year.

JOIN THE CHALLENGE TODAY by making your gift through the parish website www.ihmatlanta.org/apple-challenge or by sending your donation to the parish office with the notation "2021 Apple Challenge".

THANK YOU for your good stewardship of IHM during this challenging time!

CHRISTMAS IN OCTOBER!

It's time to think about decorating for the holidays! The IHM Mustard Seed Ministry will be selling Christmas greenery for the 12th year in a row. Support Mustard Seed by purchasing quality, live Christmas greenery at our online store. We will be offering a Noble Fir wreath, Noble Fir door swag, 10' garland, and a beautiful centerpiece.

In the past, the funds raised from our greenery sales supported the spring IHM mission trip to Mustard Seed Communities in Jamaica. However, due to these unprecedented times, it is not clear if our missionaries will be allowed to travel next spring. Nonetheless, MSC still desperately needs our support! All funds raised through these sales will support the mission of MSC.

Our Online IHM MSC Greenery store is live NOW through November 7. Go to <https://ihm-msc-greenery.square.site> to order online or fill out a form from the narthex and leave it with payment at the parish office by November 7. Orders will be available for socially distanced, contactless pick-up between November 29 and December 6. An email will be sent with specific pick up dates.

For more information please contact Marty Bova-Banks at 404-403-3952.

ALL SOULS MASS OF REMEMBRANCE

November 2

The annual Mass of Remembrance for those who have died in the last year and for all our beloved departed will be celebrated on All Souls Day, Tuesday, November 2 at 7:00 p.m. All are welcome.

ALL SOULS NOVENA

Monsignor Al and Father Robbie will celebrate a novena of Masses for the intentions of our beloved dead beginning on All Souls Day, November 2. If you would like to participate in this novena, please submit the names of your deceased loved ones on the form enclosed with your church envelopes. Extras are available in the narthex and at the parish office.

AROUND THE ARCHDIOCESE

FROM THE RESPECT LIFE OFFICE

Three weeks ago, the U.S. House of Representatives voted to pass the most radical abortion bill ever. Among other extreme actions, the Women's Health Protection Act would:

- Allow abortion on demand nationwide throughout every stage of pregnancy
- Ban pro-life laws in every state and local government
- Force Americans to support abortions with tax dollars
- Likely eliminate conscience protections for doctors

Please contact your Representative today—either to express gratitude for voting against the bill or to express strong, but respectful, disagreement for voting for it, while urging him or her to reconsider support for this radical bill.

Additionally, it is likely that the Senate will also vote on this bill in the very near future. Please also contact your two Senators to strongly urge them to oppose the Senate version of this bill when it comes up for a vote.

Pre-written messages are ready for you to edit or send. It just takes a moment! Go to <https://www.votervoice.net/USCCB/Campaigns/88618/Respond>.

COMING UP AT THE AQUINAS CENTER

After Dostoevsky: What is Catholic and Orthodox literature in the Age of the Nones?

Tuesday, October 26, 7:30-9:00pm

Speaker: Katherine Kelaidis, Ph.D.

Free Registration and Webinar Link: https://bit.ly/aquinas_orthodox

This year commemorates the 200th anniversary of the birth of Fyodor Dostoevsky. Dostoevsky is not only one of the greatest novelists of all time, he is also a specifically Orthodox Christian writer whose work is infused with the culture, theology, and spirituality of the Orthodox Church. Nor is Dostoevsky the only great Christian novelist: between the early 19th and mid-20th century, both Orthodoxy and Catholicism nurtured and inspired some of the greatest writers—and works of literature—the world has ever known. Today, that is hardly the case. But why? Is religious fiction dying out, as some have lamented, or simply becoming “pious trash,” as Flannery O’Connor feared? Or must we reimagine the boundaries of Orthodox and Catholic belonging in order to discover new streams of religious and artistic creativity?

Katherine Kelaidis is a writer, scholar and historian at Loyola University, Chicago.
