Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

“The seed that falls on good ground will yield a fruitful harvest.” The parable of the sower has a twofold message: As seed our job is to get busy growing. As farmers, our job is to get busy sowing.

In speaking to us as seed, Jesus is saying, “Be careful. If you don’t make the effort to get thoroughly rooted in your Catholic faith, you might not make it. If you do manage to survive, you might produce absolutely nothing. But we are called to bear much fruit to yield a 100 fold, to be a saint, to leave a mark that will last forever.

On the other hand, we can look at the parable as if we were the farmer. We are called repeatedly to evangelize to the world, to tell all that Jesus Christ lives eternally and the place to encounter Him most fully is within the Catholic Church. We may argue that we don’t have the personality or the gift. Jesus had both, yet when He sowed “seed”, much fell on bare ground and was eaten by the birds. On Pentecost only a few remained waiting for the Holy Spirit. Yet that fruit, borne by those few, eventually filled the whole world. To get those few, much seed must be sown and by many hands, undeterred by the birds, the weeds or the scorching sun!

If there is an emergency, please contact Deacon Curt Kaufman at 701-430-3244, or call my cell phone at 701-261-4716. --- Msgr. Skonseng

Spiritual Reflection: "The seed sown among thorns is the one who hears the word but then the cares of the world and the lure of riches choke the word and it bears no fruit." - MATTHEW 13:22

Does the lure of riches and material goods choke God out of your life? Are you so caught up in earthly activities that you have no time for God? Gratitude and generosity are virtues that we should strive to do on a daily basis. Every decision we make either takes us one step closer to God or one step further away. What we receive at Mass every Sunday should be shared with others all the other days of the week as well.

If you have extra garden produce please share with your St. Rose family and put on the table in back of church. Just for weekends only will remove extra on Monday.
