Twenty-second Sunday in ordinary Time

Jeremiah had begun his role as a prophet during easy times, during the reign of a king who stood up for goodness, and who inspired others to follow him in the way of goodness. Only years later, when a corrupt man became the king of Judah, did Jeremiah begin to realize that God had called him to be a prophet for the sake of a decaying society. He was to speak out against the evil which so many people had made their own. Yet he was initially unwilling. Jeremiah could only cry, "You duped me, Lord, and I let myself be duped." But we can be sure that God saw things differently.

Jeremiah's frustration was similar to the frustration of Peter in the Gospel. We heard last weekend how, after Peter confessed his faith in Jesus as the Messiah, Jesus handed over to him the keys to the kingdom of Heaven. It's easy to see how confusing Jesus' next words to Peter must have seemed.

Jesus seemed to have given Peter the power to make all things right with the world. But then Jesus tells Peter that he, the Messiah, would have to suffer at the hands of world leaders. What kind of power was this that Peter had been given? Not much, apparently. We can be sure, though, that Jesus saw things differently.

Suffering was brought into this world by sin. The only real way to deal with it, and so pass from this world to Heaven, is to stand solid like a rock against it. This may mean disciplining one's children more strictly than other parents. This may mean patiently and lovingly relating to one's spouse. This may mean allowing oneself to be rejected by a group of peers whenever their attitudes or actions are wrong.

Communion under Both Forms

We will return to having Holy Communion under both forms in St. William's Church on Sunday, September 10th. Jesus gave his Body under the form of bread and his Blood under the form of wine to the disciples at the Lord's Supper, when he instituted the Holy Eucharist. Receiving both forms is a fuller sign of Holy Communion. You will be free to receive the Precious Blood from the chalice, if you choose to do so. The Church teaches that you receive the whole Jesus, Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity, when you receive either form of Communion. If you have a cold, sickness, or have recently been ill, please do not receive the Blood of Christ since we drink from a common chalice. Let us show great reverence for Jesus our Lord in the Holy Eucharist and when we receive Him in Holy Communion. --- Msgr. Skonseng

We thank God, our heavenly Father, that she has received a new birth, a new life in Christ, through water and the Holy Spirit. We thank and praise God that she has become a beloved daughter of God, a disciple of Christ, a temple of the Holy Spirit, and a member of Christ's body, the Church. Prayer and Reflection on the Holy Eucharist

Do I habitually look forward to my next Holy Communion? Grant me the grace, O Lord, of continually being ready to feast on your Body and Blood.

Eucharistic Adoration during National Eucharistic Revival

We will have Eucharistic Adoration on the first Sunday of the month after the 10:30 AM Mass in both St. Rose of Lima Church and St. William's Church. This will begin on Sunday, September 3rd, after the 10:30 AM Mass at St. William's Church. We will alternate on the first Sunday every other month after the 10:30 AM Mass between St. William's and St. Rose Parishes. Adoration will be for a half hour beginning after the prayer after Communion. You may stay and pray for five minutes or for the full half hour. We will conclude with Benediction. I have decided to do this for our Parish Eucharistic Revival during the National Eucharistic Revival. The National Eucharistic Revival began on the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi) on June 19, 2022. It will end with the National Eucharistic Congress on July 17-21, 2024, in Indianapolis, Indiana. The purpose of the National Eucharistic Revival is to increase our devotion to the Holy Eucharist, deepen our union with Jesus Christ through the Holy Eucharist, heal divisions and bring about unity among the members of the Church, and empower us to bring Christ to others. I thought that having Adoration after the 10:30 AM Mass on the first Sunday of each month would provide an opportunity for more of the members of our parishes to pray to Jesus and be with Jesus in the Holy Eucharist. --- Msgr. Skonseng
