When Jesus went into the region of Caesarea Philippi he asked his disciples, "Who do people say that the Son of Man is?"

St. Philomene Parish Mission Statement

We, the parishioners of St. Philomene Parish, are a communion of brothers and sisters united by our communion with Jesus Christ who gathers us and empowers us with His Holy Spirit to worship God in faith through the celebration of the Sacraments, prayers, evangelization and loving communion and service. We rejoice and embrace the diversity of all our members as a gift from God.

Today's Readings

First Reading

Acts of the apostles 12:1-11

Now I know it is indeed true: the Lord saved me from the power of Herod.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 34:2-3,4-5,6-7,8-9

The angel of the Lord will rescue those who fear him.

Second Reading

2 Timothy 4:6-8,17-18

All that remains now is the crown of righteousness.

Gospel Reading

Matthew 16:13-19

You are Peter; and I will give you the keys of the Kingdom of heaven.

Background on the Gospel

Mark places this incident at Caesarea Philippi. Luke, because of the importance he wishes to give to prayer in his Gospel, places it in the context of Jesus praying. But Matthew keeps it at Caesarea Philippi. In today's Gospel, Jesus asks the disciples for a "field report" by asking what people are saying about him. He refers to himself as the Son of Man, a term derived from the Jewish Scriptures, found in the book of Daniel and in other apocryphal writings. Many scholars suggest that "Son of Man" is best understood to mean "human being."

As Jesus turns the question directly to the disciples and asks what they believe, Peter speaks for all of them when he announces that they believe Jesus to be the Christ. "Christ" is the Greek translation of the Hebrew word for "messiah," which means "the anointed one." At the time of Jesus, the image of "messiah" was laden with popular expectations, most of which looked for a political leader who would free the Jewish people from Roman occupation.

Because Jesus has referred to himself a number of times in Matthew by Christological titles this moment is not the revelation of who Jesus is as in Mark. Instead it marks an important moment in the development of the Church. Jesus uses this occasion to bless Peter, who represents all the disciples but also has a unique role to play in the founding of the new community. Peter is blessed not because of a personal insight but because God revealed to him who Jesus is. Peter is the rock on which Jesus will build the Church.

Lecturas de Hoy

Primera Lectura

hechos de los Apóstoles 12,1-11

Ahora sé que es verdad: el Señor me ha salvado del poder de Herodes.

Salmo Responsorial

Salmo 33,2-3.4-5.6-7.8-9

El Señor me libró de todas mis ansias.

Segunda Lectura

2 Timoteo 4,6-8.17-18

Solo nos queda la corona de justicia.

Evangelio

Mateo 16,13-19

Tú ere Pedro; yo te dare las llaves del Reino de los Cielos.

Antecedentes del Evangelio

Marcos sitúa este incidente en Cesarea de Filipo. Lucas, dada la importancia que desea dar a la oración en su Evangelio, lo sitúa en el contexto de la oración de Jesús. Pero Mateo lo sitúa en Cesarea de Filipo. En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús pide a los discípulos un informe de campo preguntando qué dicen de él. Se refiere a sí mismo como el Hijo del Hombre, un término derivado de las Escrituras judías, que se encuentra en el libro de Daniel y en otros escritos apócrifos. Muchos eruditos sugieren que «Hijo del Hombre» se entiende mejor como «ser humano».

Cuando Jesús dirige la pregunta directamente a los discípulos y les pregunta qué creen, Pedro habla por todos al anunciar que creen que Jesús es el Cristo. «Cristo» es la traducción griega de la palabra hebrea para «mesías», que significa «el ungido». En la época de Jesús, la imagen del «mesías» estaba cargada de expectativas populares, la mayoría de las cuales buscaban un líder político que liberara al pueblo judío de la ocupación romana.

Dado que Jesús se ha referido a sí mismo varias veces en Mateo con títulos cristológicos, este momento no representa la revelación de quién es Jesús, como en Marcos. Más bien, marca un momento importante en el desarrollo de la Iglesia. Jesús aprovecha esta ocasión para bendecir a Pedro, quien representa a todos los discípulos, pero también tiene un papel único en la fundación de la nueva comunidad. Pedro es bendecido no por una intuición personal, sino porque Dios le reveló quién es Jesús. Pedro es la roca sobre la que Jesús edificará la Iglesia.
