FR. PETE:

Many thanks to Dennis Lawrence for the financial update to the congregation. It is the policy of this parish while I'm pastor that any registered parishioner is welcome to review the books. The only information that you are not permitted to see is who contributes money to the parish and the amount that person contributes.

Finance Council meets on Tuesday, September 24, 5:00 p.m. at the rectory.

Nice job choir! Last Saturday the choir under the direction of Tony Fox sang and did a wonderful job. There were a number of compliments by both parishioners and guests. Well done!

The choir can use more male voices. If you are interested in offering your voice to glorify God in the Holy Liturgy ...and do not doubt for a minute that is genuine ministry ...please contact Fr. Pete either by phone (684-7268) or by email (frpete307@gmail.com).

Many thanks to the Knights of Columbus for offering a great breakfast. It is so good to see so many people come and spend time on a Sunday morning enjoying fellowship.

Mr. Victor Hannuneh and his sons will be here to display and sell carved olive wood products made in the Holy Land on October 5 & 6. These products, produced since the time of the Crusades for pilgrims, are made by Arab Christian families. As Arabs they are distrusted by Israelis and as Christians they are distrusted by Muslims. And yet they cling to their ancestral home and tradition. Your purchase helps them to do so.

Parents of those who received the Sacrament of Confirmation. Mr. Doug Graslie has graciously offered to host a post-Confirmation group on Sunday afternoons at 5:00 p.m. beginning on October 5. This is not a CCD class. It is an opportunity to take the gift of our Faith and bring it to bear on the important issues of our time from a Catholic Christian perspective. If you are interested in joining this group, please print your name on the sign-up sheet provided at the front entrance of the Church.

Do you know a family suffering from a loved one's suicide? There is a new book from a Catholic priest, Fr. Chris Alar, MIC (Marian Fathers of the Immaculate Conception) entitled "After Suicide: There's Hope for Them and You." The book faithfully transmits what the Church teaches about suicide in easy to read language and, most importantly, it offers hope for both the one who committed this serious offense against God and for those who mourn his or her death. For additional information you can check the website SuicideandHope.com or call 1-800-462-7426. If there is enough interest, we can offer it as a formal study in the spring semester.

October is the month each year dedicated to the Most Holy Rosary – a set of prayers said in honor of the Blessed Mother. This is due to the fact that the liturgical feast of Our Lady of the Rosary is celebrated annually on October 7.

Donations to the CCW/Rosary Guild Ministry are also gratefully accepted.

Rosary recited before daily Mass on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursdays.
