WYOMING CATHOLIC MEN'S RETREAT is an opportunity to get away from all the stress of the outside world and enjoy all that God has to offer. This retreat concentrates on fellowship, music, and most importantly growing in your faith. This year's speaker is Paul George. Paul has spent over 25 years helping people discover the "art of living" through searching themselves, discovering a personal relationship with Jesus Christ, and finding true happiness.

August 19-21 in Casper at St. Patrick's Catholic Church Commons. Register at <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/2022-wyoming-catholic-mens-retreat-registration-322669201267>

CCD (Confraternity of Christian Doctrine) – Interested in helping teach our faith to children? Contact Carol Gagliano, 684-5751 at home.

THE WISDOM OF SAINTS – "If you are angry at your neighbor, you are angry at God...Honor your neighbor and you have honored God." -St. Ephrem the Syrian

"Without the struggle of afflictions, it is impossible to reach the height of grace. The gift of grace increases as the struggles increase." -St. Rose of Lima

BREAD OF LIFE FOOD PANTRY – new phone number, 307-216-1800. Their new Operational Manager is Cindy Moldenhauer. On August 16 they will have their annual Zombie Run with the race profits split with the BHS Cross Country team. Labor Day/Back to THANK YOU to Nolcha Fox and Nancy Garland for their donations of gifts for the WCCW Convention in Pinedale which will become our parish CCW donation for the raffle room items at convention!

DAILY CATHOLIC WISDOM – “Mary’s gift of clothing is just a simple garment, sufficient to cover the traces of original sin in us, but its very simplicity is also a witness to the fact that her own beautiful mantle covers our souls.” - Venerable Fulton J. Sheen

“Jesus understood well that true power must always serve the needs of others in love and humility, and that we are only entrusted with talents, gifts, authority, knowledge, and wealth so that we can become servant leaders who bring others to the fullness of their human potential by our own witness to holiness, love, humility, and service. -Bishop Donald Hying from his book Love Never Fails

LEGACY PREGNANCY CENTER will host its 13th Annual Fundraising Gala “Breathe” on Thursday, November 10, 2022. The evening features guest speaker, Mikala Albertson, a wife, mother, doctor, writer and Jesus follower. Her writing has been published in Her View From Home, NBC’s Today Parents, For Every Mom and Inspire More.

Makala is a family practice doctor, and author of Ordinary on Purpose in which she shares about appearing to be living a “perfect” life, while her whole world was falling apart. Married seven years to an alcohol and drug addict while raising two young children and finishing residency, Mikala eventually reached a breaking point. And surrendered. In sifting through the shattered pieces of her life, she realized she had been chasing something that doesn’t exist. Perfect is pretend. And what she desperately needed to embrace was ordinary.

While this will inspire guests, the primary purpose of the Gala is to raise funds for Legacy’s growth, development and sustainability.

More information to come.

Ross Elliot is on the board of Legacy if you wish more details.

THINKING ABOUT SEPARATION OR DIVORCE?

Is your marriage or that of a relative or friend heading for divorce? Do you feel helpless? Retrouvaille is designed to help troubled marriages regain their health. It helps spouses uncover or re-awaken the love, trust and commitment that originally brought them together. The program is highly successful in saving hurting marriages, even bringing reconciliation to couples who have already separated or divorced.

For confidential information about or to register for the program beginning with a weekend on Sept. 9-11, 2022, call 303-317-5111 or email: retrouvaille.co@gmail.com or visit the website at www.HelpOurMarriage.com

DEACON LETTER – Fr. Jim Heiser, Greetings from Buffalo!

July 1st rolled around and I have a new parish assignment. New digs. New names to remember. New local customs to learn. A steep learning curve! Among the new things that I have come to truly appreciate in my new assignment has been the opportunity to again work with an amazing deacon. I've worked with a few admirable deacons in prior assignments and have appreciated immensely their gifted ministries. And it's been a pleasure to once again be privileged with working alongside another gifted deacon! Now, at the beginning of my time here at St. John the Baptist Parish, Deacon Jay Garland has been, and I'm sure will continue to be, a Godsend! Always anxious to be with, work for, minister to, and journey with the people of our Parish, he has been a most helpful partner in ministry for me! I have come to learn of and share in the appreciation the people here have for Deacon Jay. I hope such appreciation is had by all the members of our Diocese for the deacons with whom they have been blessed, and especially shared by my brother priests! I thank God and ask for continued blessings on the ministry of all our deacons! Peace be with you all!

AUGUST HOLY HOUR will be on Monday, August 15, Feast of the Assumption of Mary – NOT a holy day of obligation this year.

3 Incredible Quotes about the Eucharist from St. Peter Julian Eymard

“The Eucharist is the supreme proof of the love of Jesus. After this, there is nothing more but heaven itself.”

“The eucharist is everything, because from the Eucharist, everything is.”

“In one day, the Eucharist will make you produce more for the glory of God than a whole lifetime without it.”

POPE FRANCIS prayer intention for the month of August – prayers for small businesses. He asks Catholics to pray for small and medium-sized businesses so that “in the midst of economic and social crisis, they find ways to continue operating, and serving their communities.”
