TODAY BEGINS VOCATION AWARENESS

WEEK. As Catholics, we firmly believe that God has a plan for our lives! He calls some to marriage, some to the priesthood, and others to religious life or to live as generous single people. Fully living our own vocations –and teaching young people how to discern God's call—is a serious duty, but also a joyful one. During this week, please encourage the young people in your life—children, grandchildren, students, and friends—to be open if God calls them to the priesthood or religious life.

"Jesus has a specific task in life for each and every one of us. Each one of us is hand-picked, called by name by Jesus! There is no one among us who does not have a divine vocation! Some are called audibly by God, but the usual kind of call is internal, through the inner working of the Spirit." – Homily by Pope Saint John Paul II

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS – O Jesus, truly present in the Blessed Sacrament, draw all people to yourself, especially those you are calling to the priesthood and consecrated life.

Give your Church, we pray, fervent priests to serve at your altar, and holy men and women who will devote their lives to prayer and service as consecrated brothers and sisters.

May the Heart of Jesus in the Most Blessed Sacrament be praised, adored, and loved with grateful affection at every moment in all the tabernacles of the world, even until the end of time. Amen

THE WISDOM OF SAINTS – "Let books be your dining table, and you shall be full of delights." -St Ephrem

"The first degree of humility is prompt obedience." -St. Benedict

“Humility is the virtue that requires the greatest amount of effort.” -St Rose Philippine Duchesne

DAILY CATHOLIC WISDOM – “The Church sprang from the Cross at the moment when the Son returned to the Father to become the Word in the beginning. It lives from the Word that was with God in the beginning, that is with God and is God.” -Adrienne von Speyr from her book The Word: A Meditation on the Prologue to Saint John's Gospel

“Some people are so foolish that they think they can go through life without the help of the Blessed Mother. Love the Madonna and pray the Rosary, for her Rosary is the weapon against the evils of the world today. All graces given by God pass through the Blessed Mother. -St. Padre Pio

“More souls of the dead from Purgatory than of the living climb this mountain to attend my Masses and seek my prayers.” -St. Padre Pio

FOOD – bring your dried food products and canned food products for the Bread of Life Food Pantry and place in the basket in the entrance of the church. Thanks so much in the coming month of Thanksgiving 😊

FLOCKNOTE is a way for Fr. Jim Heiser to send a brief message (scriptural and encouraging) each morning (7am) to you via your text messaging. He might also send a reminder of a Holy Day Mass or to pray for someone who has died. If you'd like to be a part of this messaging, please let Mary Ann know and give her your correct cell number so that Fr. Jim can get this set up!

ROSARY prayed each Monday evening at 7pm in the church. Please join Joan Marshal in praying.

NOVEMBER – sheets to write down the deceased in your family and of your friends are available on the bookcase in the back of the church if you have not already filled out a sheet. These people will be remembered in Masses in the month of November.

WATCH your mailbox in mid-November for a special Wyoming Catholic Ministries Foundation (WCMF) combined end-of-year appeal for WCMF and its five principal partner ministries: Catholic Charities of Wyoming, Diocese of Cheyenne, St. Joseph's Children's Home, St. Joseph's Society and St. Paul's Newman Center. You will be able to support any or all of these ministries with one gift, designated as you choose. 100% of your donation goes directly to the ministries that you select.

Detailed descriptions of how each partner will use your donation can be found a. Please prayerfully consider generously supporting the work of the Church in the Diocese of Cheyenne.

BOXES OF JOY Thanks so much for participating 😊 THANK YOU, THANK YOU, THANK YOU for giving these children the gift of Christmas!!!

***Anyone going to Casper Tuesday, Nov. 8 – Sunday, Nov. 13 who could take all these boxes and drop them off at St. Patrick's Church as a specific time? Please contact Mary Ann in the church office.

THANK YOU, LADIES for getting your CCW dues in promptly!

CONGRATULATIONS to Bryan Bergstreser for achieving the 4th Degree in Knights of Columbus!

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS BREAKFAST

Sunday after Mass. Come and share food and fellowship!

NO KNIGHTS' meeting on Tuesday, Nov. 8 due to the elections happening in the parish hall. Next meeting is Tuesday, Nov. 22.

PARISH COUNCIL will meet on Thursday, Nov. 17 at 5pm in the rectory.

FINANCE COUNCIL will meet on Tuesday, Nov. 29 at 5pm in the rectory.

THIS BOOK – MADE THIS WAY, How to Prepare Kids to Face Today's Tough Moral Issues by Leila Miller with Trent Horn is for all parents raising children. Great read donated by a parishioner. They are on the bottom shelf of the right side of the book case upon entering the church. Free to read and share or to take!

From the pastoral constitution on the Church in the modern world of the Second Vatican Council

(Gaudium et spes, n. 78)
The promotion of peace

Peace is not the mere absence of war or the simple maintenance of a balance of power between forces, nor can it be imposed at the dictate of absolute power. It is called, rightly and properly, a work of justice. It is the product of order, the order implanted in human society by its divine founder, to be realized in practice as men hunger and thirst for ever more perfect justice.

The common good of the human race is subject to the eternal law as its primary principle, but its requirements in practice keep changing with the passage of time. The result is that peace is never established finally and forever; the building up of peace has to go on all the time. Again, the human will is weak and wounded by sin; the search for peace therefore demands from each individual constant control of the passions, and from legitimate authority untiring vigilance.

Even this is not enough. Peace here on earth cannot be maintained unless the good of the human person is safeguarded, and men are willing to trust each other and share their riches of spirit and talent. If peace is to be established it is absolutely necessary to have a firm determination to respect other persons and peoples and their dignity, and to be zealous in the practice of brotherhood.

Peace is therefore the fruit also of love; love goes beyond what justice can achieve. Peace on earth, born of love for one's neighbor, is the sign and the effect of the peace of Christ that flows from God the Father. In his own person the incarnate Son, the Prince of Peace, reconciled all men to God through his death on the cross. In his human nature he destroyed hatred and restored unity to all mankind in one people and one body. Raised on high by the resurrection, he sent the Spirit of love into the hearts of men.

All Christians are thus urgently summoned to live the truth in love, and to join all true peacemakers in prayer and work for peace. Moved by the same spirit, we cannot but praise those who renounce violence in defense of rights, and have recourse to means of defense otherwise available to the less powerful as well, provided that this can be done without injury to the rights and obligations of others or of the community."

LECTORS & EXTRAORDINARY MINISTERS OF THE CUP, please sign up ahead of time for your choice of Masses to minister in these ways!

YOUTH GROUP meets with Mr. Doug Graslie Sundays at 5pm in the parish hall. Parents, please encourage your high school youth to go learn about apologetics – how to defend their faith in this world!

YOUTH GROUP ACTIVITY NIGHT will be Wednesday, November 30 at 6:00pm. We will be honoring a small number of specific guests of service in our community.
