Saint Peter Claver, Priest

"We are at Jesus' disposal. If he wants you to be sick in bed, if he wants you to proclaim his work in the street, if he wants you to clean the toilets all day, that's all right, everything is all right. We must say, 'I belong to you. you can do whatever you like.' And this is our strength. This is the joy of the Lord."
-Mother Teresa

"PRAISED BE JESUS CHRIST!"
"PRAISE HIM NOW AND ALWAYS!"

DAILY CATHOLIC WISDOM – "When it comes to explaining the Blessed Virgin Mary, having a lot of love is more important than having a lot of answers. When we come up lacking, she'll make greater goods out of our deficiencies, as only a mother can do." -Dr. Scott Hahn

"In the Davidic Kingdom, it was the mother of the king who ruled as queen, not the king's wife...the queen-mother theme can serve as an important biblical basis for understanding why Mary...might be considered a queen in Christ's kingdom." -Dr. Edward Sri from his book Queen Mother: A Biblical Theology of Mary's Queenship

“A society without mothers would be a dehumanized society, for mothers are always, even in the worst moments, witnesses of tenderness, dedication, and moral strength.”
– Pope Francis from his book On the Family

"I think of how mothers can also and especially knock at the door of God's heart! Mothers say so many prayers for their children, especially for the weaker ones, for those in the greatest need or who have gone down dangerous or erroneous paths in life... I celebrated Mass in the Church of St Augustine, here in Rome, where the relics of St Monica, his mother, are preserved. How many prayers that holy mother raised to God for her son, and how many tears she shed! I am thinking of you, dear mothers: how often you pray for your children, never tiring! Continue to pray and to entrust them to God; he has a great heart! Knock at God's heart with prayers for your children."

Pope Francis

"The day men forget that love is synonymous with sacrifice, that day they will ask what selfish sort of woman it must have been who ruthlessly extracted tribute in the form of flowers, or what an avaricious creature she must have been who demanded solid gold in the form of a ring, just as they will ask what cruel kind of God is it who asks for sacrifice and self-denial."

—Venerable Fulton Sheen

"...the Eucharist is the Incarnation continued on earth until the end of time." -Justin Martyr, 2nd century

POPE FRANCIS' SEPTEMBER PRAYER INTENTION – "for people living on the margins". He lamented the "throw away" culture of today's world which prioritizes economic growth over the wellbeing of people.
