Good Liturgy begins at home

A few years ago, Fr. Rogelio reminded us that preparing for the Eucharist begins at home in our decision to attend mass. How do we prepare ourselves going before God receiving His Word and receiving His Body and Blood?

We may want to prepare by:

- ♦ Read and pray over the readings that will be proclaimed during mass. Do this as a family by going to uscbb.org and select the readings of the day.
- ♦ Consider going to the Sacrament of Reconciliation, considered as one of the sacraments of healing.
- ♦ Pick out our Sunday best attire to go into God's house and as we go before him in the Sacrament of the Eucharist. Take off those noisy keys you won't need them in church, remove hats and sunglasses, and remember to discard the gum. Help your children pick out their clothes for mass.
- ♦ Pay close attention to the Eucharistic prayer where the celebrant offers a prayer to God, the Father, by Christ in union with us.
- ♦ Be reverent in the communion line, we are about to become the living tabernacle receiving Christ in us. Our response AMEN means we are saying yes this is the body and blood of Christ. We believe.
- ♦ Stay to receive the final blessing from the celebrant, which is the conclusion of the mass with the Deacon sending us out to take God's word to the outside world.

Martin Luther King

Lord God, you led your chosen people from slavery in Egypt to the freedom of the Promised Land.

We ask you to lead us, our parish community, from any enslavement to hatred, ignorance, fear, racism, injustice or anything else that prevents us from being the community of love and respect that you want us to be.

We remember with gratitude the witness of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., and we ask that we have the courage and determination to follow his example in battling injustice and living the Gospel of love.

Help us, Lord, to make ever more the community you want us to be.

Amen

La Historia de Mission San Jose

Iglesia de Terrado

The 1st stone church at Mission San Jose was a church with a flat, earthen roof located on the site of the present church. Examination of the present church structure reveals a portion of the 1st church still survives, having been incorporated into the west wall at the NW corner of the convent. The church was 1st mentioned in 1744 by s Fr. Espinoza and then by Fr. Mariano de Los Dolores y Viana, Fr. President of the Queretaran Missions, in 1755. The church was about 97 feet long, 19 feet wide, and an interior height of 19 feet. There were 4 altars and a bell tower with 4 bells, a large and a small. The church was joined to the convent, the custom at the time. In the sacristy was a cabinet with 4 drawers which held vestments, 2 small chests, 1 large chest with a key that held more vestments, and a gilded niche on 1 wall.

Shutdown Update (01/16/2019)

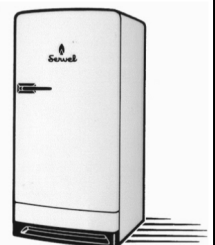

Because of security concerns our church will be closed from Monday-Thursday. The gates in our area will also be closed. We have not received any word back on offers made to us from the city and county on providing more security when the park is open.

If you know of any group or if you have visitors who would like to enter the church, please call the office and we will be more than glad to accommodate them.

Let us continue to pray this shut-down will end soon.

Refrigerator for parish center

Our refrigerator in the parish center has been diagnosed with a bad compressor. The cost to repair it is more than the refrigerator is worth. We are on the lookout for a new one so if anyone can help us your generosity would be greatly appreciated. Or if you see a sale on a freezer less refrigerator please call the office and let us know. Thanks so much
