FRAY ANTONIO MARGIL DE JESUS

PATRON SAINT OF TEXAS

In 1720, Fray Antonio Margil de Jesús (1657-1726) was the founder of San Antonio's flagship mission, Mission San José y San Miguel de Aguayo. This humble man, who signed himself La Misma Nada (Nothingness Itself), was famous during his lifetime as an exemplary Franciscan friar, a devoted evangelist, a gifted scholar of indigenous languages, and a fearless worker for the Church.

Born in Valencia, Spain, Fray Margil entered the Franciscan Order in 1673. A decade later, he traveled to Mexico and became a founding member of the famous Franciscan Missionary College of Santa Cruz in Querétaro, later serving as its Guardian or President. Fr. Margil's true devotion, however, was to apostolic fieldwork, and soon he traveled south to Central America. After working diligently with the indigenous people of Costa Rica, Nicaragua, Yucatán and Guatemala, Fr. Margil returned to Mexico to found the Apostolic College of Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe in Zacatecas (1706). From there, he set out to establish missions in northern New Spain, especially in parts of Coahuila, Nuevo León and in what is now Texas. Fr. Margil founded several missions in east Texas, including one in Nacogdoches, but when forced from east Texas by a coalition of French and Native American forces, he moved to San Antonio, where he established Mission San José. Within two years, Fr. Margil's already poor health began to deteriorate further, and he returned to Zacatecas and Querétaro. He died in 1726 in Mexico City, where his remains are in the National Cathedral. Fr. Margil's beatification and canonization began in the late eighteenth century, a process that continues today.

November 3 & 4, 2023

After six days Jesus took Peter, James, and John his brother, and led them up a high mountain by themselves. And he was transfigured before them; his face shone like the sun and his clothes became white as light. And behold, Moses and Elijah appeared to them, conversing with him. Then Peter said to Jesus in reply, "Lord, it is good that we are here. If you wish, I will make three tents here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." While he was still speaking, behold, a bright cloud cast a shadow over them, then from the cloud came a voice that said, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him." ~Matthew 17:1-5

This Sunday's Readings

First Reading

Daniel 7:9–10,13–14

The prophet Daniel describes his vision of one like the Son of Man who received dominion from God.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 97:1–2,5–6,9

A Song of Praise to God our King

Second Reading

2 Peter 1:16–19

Peter says that the voice heard from Heaven confirmed the truth of his testimony about Christ.

Gospel Reading

Matthew 17:1–9

Jesus is transfigured on the mountain in the presence of Peter, James, and John.

Background on the Gospel Reading

Today's liturgy invites us to celebrate the feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord. This feast calls to our attention the importance of this event in Jesus' life, further affirmed by its report in each of the Synoptic Gospels: Matthew, Mark, and Luke. In Cycle A, the reading for this feast is taken from the Gospel of Matthew. The Transfiguration occurs after Peter confesses his belief that Jesus is the Messiah and after Jesus predicts his Passion. In each of these Gospels, a discussion of the cost of discipleship precedes the Transfiguration.

In each Gospel, Jesus takes three of his disciples—Peter, James, and John—to a high mountain. While they are there, Elijah and Moses appear and converse with Jesus. Elijah and Moses are both significant figures in the history of Israel. Moses led the Israelites out of slavery in Egypt and received from Yahweh the Ten Commandments. Moses represents the Law, which guides the lives of the Jewish people. Elijah is one of the most important prophets of Israel who helped the Israelites stay faithful to Yahweh, and some believed that Elijah's return would signal the coming of the Messiah for the Jewish people. The appearance of these two figures from Israel's history indicated Jesus' continuity with the Law and the prophets. They also reveal that Jesus is the fulfillment of all that was promised to the people of Israel.

Upon witnessing Jesus' Transfiguration and seeing Jesus with Elijah and Moses, an awestruck Peter offered to construct three tents for them when a voice from Heaven affirms that Jesus is "my beloved Son" and commands the disciples to listen to him.

In each of the reports of the Transfiguration, Jesus instructed the disciples to keep secret what they had seen until after "the Son of Man has been raised from the dead." Until they witnessed Jesus' Passion and Death, the disciples could not possibly understand what he meant by being "raised from the dead." We, however, have the benefit of hindsight. In our hearing of the Transfiguration Gospel, we see an anticipation of Jesus' Resurrection, a foreshadowing of Christ's glory in Heaven, and the promise of our own resurrection.
