Be Praised My Lord!

Over the last weeks, with the warming of the temperatures, the earth has come to new life and flowers are blooming and nurseries are selling plants for our gardens. In this time of renewed life, the world celebrates Earth Day on April 22, which is a Monday this year. How do we as people of faith take up this celebration? What are our responsibilities to the earth?

In the book of Genesis, at the end of the first story of creation God tells humans to multiply, fill the earth and take charge of creation. Sadly, for too long we have treated creation as something to be used, to be exploited for our own pleasure. It is important that we recognize the interconnectedness and interdependence that are vital among all of creation. Can we humble enough to recognize God as the ultimate source and support of creation? Can we be humble enough to recognize we are caretakers of creation and are responsible to God for how we take care? I offer you the Canticle of the Creatures, written by St. Francis. As we pray along with Francis (both the saint and our pope), may we see the face of God in all that we encounter in creation.

Peace and all good things,

Fr. Dennis

Canticle of the Creatures

by St. Francis of Assisi

Most High, all-powerful, good Lord,
Yours are the praises, the glory, and the honor, and all blessing,
To You alone, Most High, do they belong,
and no human is worthy to mention Your name.
Praised be You, my Lord, with all Your creatures,
especially Sir Brother Sun,
Who is the day and through whom You give us light.
And he is beautiful and radiant with great splendor;
and bears a likeness of You, Most High One.
Praised be You, my Lord, through Sister Moon and the stars,
in heaven You formed them clear and precious and beautiful.

Praised be You, my Lord, through Brother Wind,
and through the air, cloudy and serene, and every kind of weather,
through whom You give sustenance to Your creatures.
Praised be You, my Lord, through Sister Water,
who is very useful and humble and precious and chaste.
Praised be You, my Lord, through Brother Fire,
through whom You light the night,
and he is beautiful and playful and robust and strong.
Praised be You, my Lord, through our Sister Mother Earth,
who sustains and governs us,
and who produces various fruit with colored flowers and herbs.

Praised be You, my Lord,
through those who give pardon for Your love,
and bear infirmity and tribulation.
Blessed are those who endure in peace
for by You, Most High, shall they be crowned.

Praised be You, my Lord, through our Sister Bodily Death,
from whom no one living can escape.
Woe to those who die in mortal sin.
Blessed are those whom death will find in Your most holy will,
for the second death shall do them no harm.

Praise and bless my Lord and give Him thanks
and serve Him with great humility.
