Two thoughts this weekend:

Who are we and who am I in this parish?
Who do we want to be as a country?

Who are we and who am I in this parish?

On the front of every week's bulletin one can read the Mission Statement of Mission San Jose parish. When was the last time you noticed, read it, or considered it? Here it is:

Mission San Jose Catholic Church was founded and established to proclaim the Gospel mission of Jesus for our time and place by becoming a faith community of God's people. Through a commitment to prayer, study, fellowship and ministry, we strive to become a community of hope to all around us and a living mission to the many who choose to come to Mission San Jose.

As a newcomer to San Jose parish, I wonder what this meant to those who crafted it and agreed to it in the past, and I wonder how we live this today. To that purpose, I ask all of you to join in a parish meeting. We will talk about our experiences in the parish, the values we hold as members, and begin to create goals for ourselves as Catholics in San Antonio today and in the future.

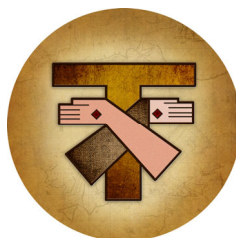

This gathering will take place on Saturday, September 7 in the parish hall. We will begin at 9:00 in the morning and finish at noon with lunch. You are the church that lives at Mission San Jose. Please come, participate and teach me what it means for us to be church here and now.

Who do we want to be as a country?

Every year we have elections in our country, and every four years we elect a president. Voting is a great gift of our constitution and a great responsibility for each citizen who enjoys our freedom in this nation. The church tells us that we must take this responsibility seriously, formed by the virtues and values of our faith. I encourage each of you to take this responsibility seriously. Get to know the issues and the candidates so that you can enter the voting booth with knowledge.

First of all, are you registered to vote? You can confirm your registration by searching "Check my voter registration status" online. There are any number of sites you can choose from. The first one that came up when I searched was the federal government and it was quite easy to find out my status. And yes, I am registered to vote!

Volunteers Needed!

Do you love art and history? Are you interested in the history of Mission San Jose Church and the other Mission churches? If you answered "YES" to these questions, then El Camino de San Antonio wants YOU for its new Docent Program. We are currently seeking volunteer docents that are enthusiastic and flexible to greet visitors and assist them in discovering the sacred space of the Missions. Training sessions to learn about the art, architecture and faith of the missions will be available. If you are interested in becoming a docent for El Camino de San Antonio please contact Nicky Mata at Camino@archsa.org or 210-275-4548.

Ta-da!

Would you like to begin playing trumpet, but don't have one? Do you play trumpet but need a better one? I have a trumpet available for someone who might need it. Preference is for younger players. I want to make sure it is used by someone who loves music. Contact me after Mass or call the parish office 210-922-0543.
