SMU CATHOLIC ALUMNI SPOTLIGHT ABBY MARCHESSEAU '15

"It would be easy for me to look back on the many hours I spent studying, volunteering, laughing, and praying at SMU Catholic with a twinge of nostalgia. I can't even begin to count the number of times as a dance student that I "just dropped by the C" to grab a cup of coffee and left with a heart as full as my thermos. A smile, a hug, a quick conversation with a friend, a blessing from Father Arthur before an exam - the joyful peace of Christ is as overflowing as the first-floor cafes. But, to say that SMU Catholic was merely a comfort and a home, would be an injustice.

SMU Catholic is a challenge. While here you become part of a community striving to truly live the Gospel, and find yourself asking yourself questions such as, "Am I sincerely serving Christ in every person around me?" and "Do I really treat the Eucharist as the source and summit of my faith?" These questions and this determination to set the world on fire for Christ continue to shape my life, even as a free-lance dancer in New York City. Although I miss the late-night rosaries, the service opportunities, Sunday Suppers, and all the other beautiful examples of Love in action, I know that I will always be part of this ever-growing Body of Christ. And just like my cup of coffee, I will carry this knowledge wherever the Lord leads me."
