

Cover Story: The SMU Knights of Columbus led a group of 10 students in the American Heart Association's Dallas Heart Walk last weekend to raise funds and awareness for cardiovascular disease. The Knights of Columbus are a service-oriented Catholic brotherhood at SMU, who lead and organize service events for the SMU Catholic community (and compete against each in a super competitive fantasy football league). Interested in joining the Knights of Columbus? Contact Grand Knight Brian O'Donnell at bodonnell@smu.edu.

WHY DO CATHOLICS DO THAT?

Ever wondered “why do Catholics do that?” Interested in learning more about the faith? Considering joining the Church, or know someone who is? The Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA) just might be the place for you! RCIA meets weekly to learn about what it means to be Catholic, and to form students in knowledge and love of Christ and his Church. We’re kicking off our first RCIA session Sunday, September 25, 3-4:30 PM on the third floor of the Catholic Center. Come see what RCIA is all about, meet other inquirers to Catholicism, and bring a friend! Questions? Contact Deacon Jake Schroepfer at jschroepfer@smu.edu.

LAST CALL: ADULTING 101

“Real life” post-grad is scary. Last Call is here to help. Last Call is a group just for seniors and graduate students, all about how to transition from college life to full-time “adulting,” while making faith a part of the process. We’re hanging out and having senior-status fun and fellowship every other Monday at 9 PM (last week was Bowl and Barrel!). Bring a fellow senior, grab a drink, and come hang out with us! Questions? Contact Jose de Labra at jdelabra@smu.edu.
