

Cover Story: Our Men’s ministry ventured to southern Arkansas last week-end and backpacked through the Ouachita Mountains. For a few of our men, this was their first time carrying their own food, water, and shelter on their backs for a two-day trek through the woods. The men worked together to orienteer, navigate river crossings, build their camp, and prepare meals. They also saw some beautiful waterfalls along the Little Missouri River, prayed the Liturgy of the Hours together, and spent time reveling in God’s natural majesty. Check out the rest of our photos from the trip on Facebook!

F.I.R.E.

F.I.R.E. (Family Intergenerational Religious Education) is a fun, alternative model of religious education. A number of “families”—singles, seniors, and couples with or without children—comprise a home group that meets 16 times a year for lessons designed to focus on the main truths of the Catholic faith. If you are interested in participating in a new group that is forming, please contact Ellen Ruppel at eruppel@sbcglobal.net.

COMMUNITY EDUCATION: GUN VIOLENCE AS A HEALTH CARE ISSUE

Did you know that Texas leads the nation in lethal gun accidents in children? Did you know that 30 hospitals nationwide (none in Texas) have adopted programs that help victims of gun violence with education, job training, addiction counseling, and skills training with families to be healthier in their communication patterns and in their support of one another?

On Nov 6 at 10:30 AM at the Neuhoﬀ Catholic Center, explore how our Catholic faith and its expression in our daily lives embrace the sanctity of life and how gun violence fits with the Catholic idea of the sanctity of life with Sheila Madigan Levatino, marriage and family therapist, spiritual director, and hospital chaplain.
