

Cover Story: SMU Catholic students involved in Mustangs for Life and other pro-life SMU organizations had a busy week this week promoting a culture of life on campus.

The SMU student organization Mustangs for Life held their annual “Memorial of Innocents” on Dallas Hall lawn this week. The memorial consists of 2,500 small wooden crosses, each of which represents a life lost to legal abortions everyday in the United States. Many SMU Catholic students were involved in creating, protecting, and teaching with the display, including Mustangs for Life President and SMU Catholic SLC member Camille McCarty '17, and Mustangs for Life Vice President and SMU Catholic SLC member Marisa Rosa '17. Mustangs for Life also partnered with other student organizations to bring 2016 Presidential candidate Carly Fiorina to campus last Wednesday to speak on pro-life issues as a part of their week’s activities. Throughout the week, SMU Catholic and Mustangs for Life students showed a lot of courage and commitment to protecting the lives of the unborn, standing firm for their faith, responding with love to detractors, and living their Gospel call to servant leadership.

MINISTRY SPOTLIGHT: Knights of Columbus Fish Fry

Friday March 24, the SMU Knights of Columbus hosted a Lenten Fish Fry at the Catholic Center, and the event was a huge success! 60 students, friends, community members and alumni gathered at SMU for fried fish and sides, all prepared by the SMU Knights of Columbus. Members of the St. Thomas Aquinas Knights of Columbus showed up to help our SMU chapter, and to loan their fish frying equipment. Despite a number of setbacks including a grounds requests from the university and a freak rain storm, the men of our SMU chapter never faltered, and in the end they provided a shining example of servant leadership to our community—along with some really great fish!

The Knights haven't slowed their role just yet though! Saturday, March 25, following their highly successful Fish Fry, the SMU Knights of Columbus inducted 10 new members, and received the "Star Council Award" from the Supreme Council, in recognition of their significant growth, as well as their service to the SMU Community. SMU Catholic couldn't be prouder of the commitment these men have made to being a light for Christ to SMU, and their service to our community. Keep up the great work, men!
