

TODAY'S SCRIPTURE READINGS

Reading 1 2 SM 5:1-3

In those days, all the tribes of Israel came to David in Hebron and said: "Here we are, your bone and your flesh. In days past, when Saul was our king, it was you who led the Israelites out and brought them back. And the LORD said to you, 'You shall shepherd my people Israel and shall be commander of Israel.'" When all the elders of Israel came to David in Hebron, King David made an agreement with them there before the LORD, and they anointed him king of Israel.

Responsorial Psalm PS 122:1-2, 3-4, 4-5

R. (cf. 1) Let us go rejoicing to the house of the Lord.

Reading 2 COL 1:12-20

Brothers and sisters: Let us give thanks to the Father, who has made you fit to share in the inheritance of the holy ones in light. He delivered us from the power of darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of his beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins. He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. For in him were created all things in heaven and on earth, the visible and the invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or powers; all things were created through him and for him. He is before all things, and in him all things hold together. He is the head of the body, the church. He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in all things he himself might be preeminent. For in him all the fullness was pleased to dwell, and through him to reconcile all things for him, making peace by the blood of his cross through him, whether those on earth or those in heaven.

Gospel LK 23:35-43

The rulers sneered at Jesus and said, "He saved others, let him save himself if he is the chosen one, the Christ of God." Even the soldiers jeered at him. As they approached to offer him wine they called out, "If you are King of the Jews, save yourself." Above him there was an inscription that read, "This is the King of the Jews." Now one of the criminals hanging there reviled Jesus, saying, "Are you not the Christ? Save yourself and us." The other, however, rebuking him, said in reply, "Have you no fear of God, for you are subject to the same condemnation? And indeed, we have been condemned justly, for the sentence we received corresponds to our crimes, but this man has done nothing criminal." Then he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom." He replied to him, "Amen, I say to you, today you will be with me in Paradise."

ABOUT SMU CATHOLIC

Since 1932 SMU Catholic Campus Ministry has served SMU students, faculty, staff, alumni, and the local Catholic community. SMU Catholic is committed to being a profound presence on campus as inspired by the Gospel of Jesus Christ. We strive to form servant leaders of SMU’s future “world changers” to live their Catholic faith professionally and personally. By becoming an active member of SMU Catholic, students gain intimate knowledge of self, the love of God, and our faith tradition. All are welcome at SMU Catholic, the loving home-away-from-home for many students on campus.

COVER STORY

This past weekend was Mustang Awakening XII, and it was a blast! Thank you for all those who prayed for us, especially for the retreaters. Throughout the weekend, you could see friendships forming and our community strengthening. There was so much joy in the room. Most importantly, it was clear that the retreaters were encountering Jesus. The MAXII verse—“Now this is eernal life, that they should know you, the only true God, and the one whom you sent, Jesus Christ.” John 17:3

GUATEMALA MISSION TRIP

Project Esperanza will host two opportunities to serve in Guatemala. Over spring break (March 14-21), the student-focused trip will be returning to Tecpan Guatemala to install stoves and water filters in families’ homes. If spring break is not an option, consider the Team Legacy trip (April 25-May 3). This is a life-changing opportunity to inspire hope in families in Guatemala and expand your global outlook. For more information, email Lezlie Vlasimsky at stan.lezlie.kids@vlasimsky.org.

REPORT ABUSE

If you believe that you or someone you know is a victim of past or present abuse or sexual abuse, please notify law enforcement. In the event the abuse involves a minor, please also contact the Texas Department of Family and Protective Service through the Texas Abuse Hotline (1-800-252-5400 or www.txabusehotline.org). Finally, if the abuse involves a member of the clergy, a parish employee, or diocesan employee, please also notify the Diocese of Dallas Victims Assistance Coordinator, Barbara Landregan, at 214-379-2812 or blandregan@cathdal.org

THANKSGIVING HOURS

The Catholic Center will close at 5PM on Tues, Nov 26—Fri, Nov 29 for the Thanksgiving holiday. There will be no daily Mass or Adoration starting with the 5:10PM Mass on Tues. We'll have our full schedule of Masses Sun, Dec 1, at 9AM, 5PM, and 8PM, along with our regularly scheduled Sunday Supper.

AQUINAS 101 PROGRAM

The Thomistic Institute has launched its new Aquinas 101 program! Aquinas 101 is a series of free video courses that help you to engage with life’s most urgent philosophical and theological questions with the wisdom of St. Thomas Aquinas. The course is completely free. Once you sign up, you’ll receive two emails per week that include a video, recommended further listening, and related readings. Enroll at aquinas101.thomisticinstitute.org.

WE’RE ON VENMO

SMU Catholic is on Venmo! Venmo makes it easy to securely send and share money online or through the free mobile app. You can use Venmo to send a gift to SMU Catholic any time, for Mass collections, general gifts, etc. You can find SMU Catholic by searching for our username: @smucatholic

SECOND COLLECTION

Today’s second collection is for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development, which is the national anti-poverty program of the U.S. Catholic Bishops. CCHD works to break the cycle of poverty. Please consider giving to the second collection.

CELEBRATION OF LIGHTS

Come by our Open House at SMU Catholic before walking over to Dallas Hall Lawn for the Celebration of Lights! It’s a family friendly event! All alumni, community members, board members, and students are invited. We will have sweet treats, hot chocolate and Christmas fun. The open house at the Catholic Center is on Mon, Dec 2, from 5-7PM followed by Celebration of Lights from 7-8PM at Dallas Hall Lawn. Celebration of Lights is a time where the entire SMU and surrounding communities gather for this joyous occasion to watch the famous Dallas Hall be lit with thousands of lights in all its wonder. People proceed to gather on Dallas Hall Lawn and listen to carols performed by SMU students. SMU’s President, Gerald Turner, reads the Christmas Story from his own family Bible! Silent Night ends the program with the lighting of SMU’s stunning Dallas Hall and its surrounding trees.
