Did you know?

When is the first mention of Jesus in the Bible?

We hear about Jesus a lot in the New Testament, particularly about His life in the Gospels, but as we discussed on Easter Sunday, the Old Testament is actually filled with tons of foreshadowing about Jesus' coming. The first reference to Jesus in the Bible actually comes right in the beginning, in the Book of Genesis. Adam and Eve commit Original Sin and are banished from the Garden of Eden, but God does not let them despair for long. In Genesis 3:15, He says to the serpent (who is the devil), "I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your seed and her seed." This may not sound like anything all that grand, but it's actually the promise of God that He will send Jesus to fight against sin (Jesus is the seed of the woman who crushes the serpent – a.k.a sin). This verse is known as the protoevangelium, which means first Gospel, since it is the Good News of the coming of Christ that we hear echoed throughout the rest of the Old Testament.

In our weekly "Did you know?" section, we'll try to explain "mysteries of the Mass" and other parts of the Catholic faith. If you have a question you'd like to submit, please email emily.dibiase@sjtemahopac.org.

YOUnite Church Buddy Reveal Dinner

Throughout the year, several members of the parish have been praying for a teen in the youth group through our new Church Buddy program. These "Church Buddies" only knew the name of the teen for whom they were praying, and the teens did not know who their prayer buddy was. Last Friday, April 21, the teens and their prayer buddies finally got to meet and spend some time getting to know each other. The teens had an opportunity to meet some of the members of our various ministries at SJTE and learn about their service to the church, as well as make a new friend they can say hello to at Mass and keep in touch with as a spiritual prayer partner. As a group, we definitely felt their prayers throughout this year, and it was beautiful to see all of the new relationships forming between these teens and their buddies at the reveal dinner. Thank you to all of our Church Buddies for your prayers, and welcome to our YOUnite family!

Saint Joseph the Worker

To foster deep devotion to Saint Joseph among Catholics, and in response to the "May Day" celebrations for workers sponsored by Communists, Pope Pius XII instituted the feast of Saint Joseph the Worker in 1955. This feast extends the long relationship between Joseph and the cause of workers in both Catholic faith and devotion. Beginning in the Book of Genesis, the dignity of human work has long been celebrated as a participation in the creative work of God. By work, humankind both fulfills the command found in Genesis to care for the earth (Gn 2:15) and to be productive in their labors. Saint Joseph, the carpenter and foster father of Jesus, is but one example of the holiness of human labor

Jesus, too, was a carpenter. He learned the trade from Saint Joseph and spent his early adult years working side-by-side in Joseph's carpentry shop before leaving to pursue his ministry as preacher and healer. In his encyclical Laborem Exercens, Pope John Paul II stated: "the Church considers it her task always to call attention to the dignity and rights of those who work, to condemn situations in which that dignity and those rights are violated, and to help to guide [social] changes so as to ensure authentic progress by man and society."

Saint Joseph is held up as a model of such work. Pius XII emphasized this when he said, "The spirit flows to you and to all men from the heart of the God-man, Savior of the world, but certainly, no worker was ever more completely and profoundly penetrated by it than the foster father of Jesus, who lived with Him in closest intimacy and community of family life and work."

Gospel Today

Third Sunday of Easter | Luke 24:13-35

On the way to Emmaus Jesus appeared as a stranger to two of His disciples and spoke to them on the scriptures. That evening during dinner He took bread, said the blessing, broke it and gave it to them. (Luke 24:30) At once they recognized Him and He disappeared from their view. Knowing in their hearts it was Jesus, they returned to Jerusalem to tell the others.

Place round biscuits on a baking tray according to directions on box.

- A With a plastic knife and help from an adult, put a cut into the top 1/3 of each biscuit and pull dough slightly apart to form a V.
- B Press top of each side of the V to round out the top.
- C Slightly pinch together lower half of biscuit and then tightly pinch bottom to form a heart (they do not have to be perfect).

Bake according to directions. Enjoy!
