Our Lady of Guadalupe

According to tradition, the Virgin Mary appeared to an indigenous man named Juan Diego on Dec. 9, 1531. The Virgin asked that a shrine in her name be built on the spot where she appeared, Tepeyac Hill, which is now in a suburb of Mexico City. Juan Diego told the bishop about the apparition and request, but he didn't believe him and demanded a sign before he would approve construction of the church.

On Dec. 12, the Virgin reappeared to Juan Diego and ordered him to collect roses in his tilmátli, a kind of cloak. Juan took the roses to the bishop and when he opened his cloak, dozens of roses fell to the floor and revealed the image of the Virgen of Guadalupe imprinted on the inside. The tilmátli with the image is on display in the Basilica de Guadalupe.

The appearance of the Virgin of Guadalupe to an indigenous man is said to be one of the forces behind creating the Mexico that we know today: a blend of Spanish and native blood. Her dark skin and the fact that the story of her apparition was told in the indigenous language of Nahuatl and in Spanish are said to have helped convert the indigenous people of Mexico to Christianity at the time of the conquest. She is seen as having a blend of Aztec and Spanish heritage.

Her image has been used throughout Mexican history, not only as a religious icon but also as a sign of patriotism. Miguel Hidalgo used her image when he launched his revolt against the Spanish in 1810. She could be seen on the rebels' banners and their battle cry was "Long Live Our Lady of Guadalupe."

Pope John Paul II canonized Juan Diego in 2002, making him the first indigenous American saint, and declared Our Lady of Guadalupe the patroness of the Americas.

Reflection

Revelations of Divine Love

He did not say: You will not be troubled, you will not be belabored, you will not be disquieted; but He said: You will not be overcome. God wants us to pay attention to these words, and always to be strong in faithful trust, in well-being and in woe, for He loves us and delights in us, and so He wishes us to love Him and delight in Him and trust greatly in Him, and all will be well.

Pope Francis on Advent

"In this season of Advent, we are called to expand the horizons of our hearts, to be amazed by the life which presents itself each day with newness. In order to do this, we must learn to not depend on our own certainties, on our own established strategies, because the Lord comes at a time that we do not imagine. He comes to bring us into a more beautiful and grand dimension."

Ask Sr. Rose

In the Catholic Church is there only the Latin Rite?

There are Eastern Rite Churches who are in union with Rome under the Holy Father – (They celebrate Liturgies (Mass) in different languages and their own unique Liturgies: Maronite Rite, Syrian Rite, Armenian Rite, Chaldean Rite, Melkite Greek Rite, Romanian Rite, Ruthenian Rite, Russian Rite, Ukranian Rite, Syro-Malabar Rite.

Blessing of Infant Jesus Statues from Nativity Scenes

All are invited to bring the statue of the infant Jesus from the Nativity Scene in your homes to the Masses on Saturday/Sunday, December 16th and 17th. The Statues will be Blessed at the end of the Masses

St. John's Contemporary Music Group

We're looking for school age children to participate as angels, shepherds and the Holy Family in our Children's Procession at the 6:00PM Christmas Eve Mass. The procession will take place just prior to the start of Mass. All children who want to participate must attend the rehearsal on Wednesday, 12/20/17 at 6:30PM in the main Church and come to Church early on Christmas Eve to get their costumes and line up.

To sign up or for more information, please contact Betsey Vrabel 845-598-0572 or Laura Aquina 845-519-0553

Respect Life

Thank you for attending the 28th National Night of Prayer to end abortion. During Advent, you might like to pray this National Prayer for Life

Eternal Father, Source of Life, open our hearts to see and desire the beauty of your plan for life and love. Fill us with your Holy Spirit so that our love will be generous and self-giving and we may be blessed with joy. Grant us great trust in your mercy. Forgive us for not receiving your gift of life and heal us from the effects of the culture of death. Instill in us and in all people a sense of the sacredness of every human life. Inspire our efforts to protect and care for the most vulnerable, especially women who are pregnant and their unborn children, the sick and the elderly. Strengthen us in the hope that with you nothing is impossible. We ask this in the name of Jesus, who by his Cross makes all things new. Amen.
Our Lady of Guadalupe, Mother or Life, pray for us.

St. John of the Cross

The 16th-century Spanish saint is known as one of the greatest mystical theologians in the history of the Church. After joining the Carmelites, he found the order to be suffering from excessive laxity. Encouraged by St. Teresa of Ávila to stay within the order, the two became close friends and worked together toward reform. St. John founded the first Discalced monastery and devoted his life to pushing for reforms and to writing. In 1579, he achieved the separation of the Discalced and Calced communities, but he was tormented by those who opposed his reforms and refused to acknowledge the validity of the order. He died in 1591 after being stripped of all offices and banished by the order's general superior. He is known as the Doctor of Mystical Theology, and in his work, he expounded on the development of the soul through purgation, illumination and transforming union. His notable works include "Spiritual Canticle," "Ascent of Mount Carmel," "Living Flame of Love" and "Dark Night of the Soul."

The Church celebrates his feast on December 14th.

SECOND WEEK OF

ADVENT

ARRIVAL OR COMING OF CHRIST

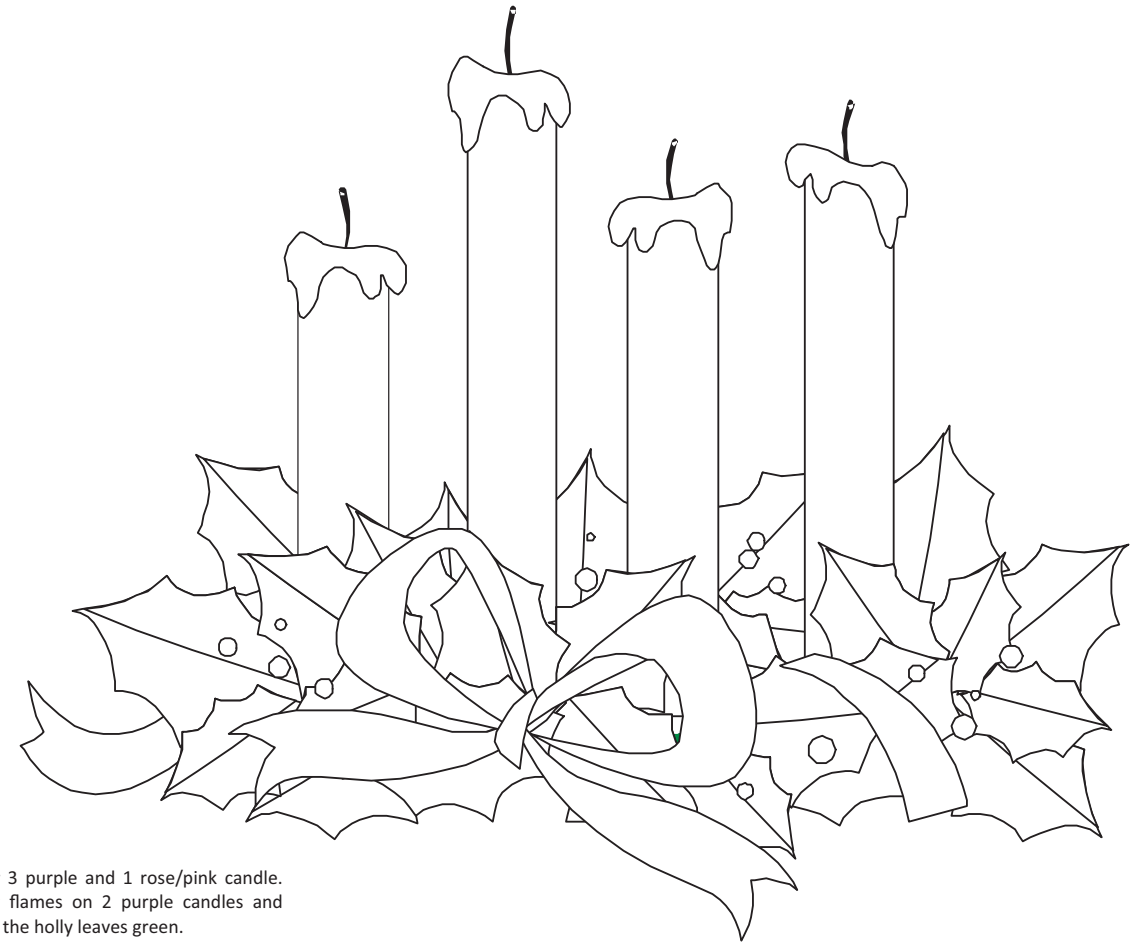
We begin the second week of Advent preparing ourselves for the Messiah. Our Advent wreath has 4 candles (3 purple, 1 rose/pink) for the four Sundays, or weeks before Christmas. The more candles we light, the brighter it gets, and the closer we are to the birth of Christ.

WEEK 2, evening lighting prayer

Prayer said by Father or head of household

"O Lord, stir up our hearts that we may prepare for Thy only begotten Son that through His coming we may be made worthy to serve Thee with pure minds. Through Christ our Lord, Amen".

Oldest child lights 2 purple candles.



Color 3 purple and 1 rose/pink candle. Draw flames on 2 purple candles and color the holly leaves green.
