St. Frances of Rome-Religious

St. Frances was born at Rome in Italy. Her parents Paul Bussa and Jacobella de' Roffredeschi were wealthy, but they taught Frances to be concerned about people and to live a good Christian life. Frances was an intelligent little girl who informed her parents when she was eleven that she had made up her mind to be a nun. Her parents encouraged her to think of marriage instead. As was the custom, they selected a good young man to be Frances' husband. The bride was just thirteen. Frances and her husband, Lorenzo Ponziano, fell in love with each other. Even though their marriage was arranged, they were happily married for forty years. Lorenzo admired his wife and his sister-in-law, Vannozza. Both women prayed every day and did penance for Jesus' Church, which faced many difficulties at that time. Frances and Vannozza also visited the poor. They took care of the sick. They brought food and firewood to people who needed it. Other rich women were moved by their example to do more with their lives too. All the while, Frances became more and more prayerful and really grew close to Jesus and Mary. Frances and Lorenzo were kindhearted people. They knew what it was like to suffer as two of their three children died from the plague. This made them even more aware of the needs of the poor. During the wars between the rightful pope and the anti-popes, Lorenzo led the armies that defended the true pope. While he was away at battle, his enemies destroyed his property and possessions. Even then, Frances cleaned up a part of the family villa that had been wrecked and used it for a hospital. As hard as things were for her family, the people out on the street were in greater need. Lorenzo was wounded and came home to be nursed back to health by his loving wife. He died in 1436. Frances spent the remaining four years of her life in the religious congregation called the Collatines which she helped to start. St. Frances of Rome died on March 9, 1440.

What are the books of the New Testament?

The Four Gospels of St. Matthew, St. Mark, St.

Luke and St. John

Narrate the life of Christ on earth.

The Acts of the Apostles

A History of the works of the Apostles after the Ascension of the Lord, written by St. Luke

The Twenty-one Letters

Paul, James, John and Jude.
The last book is called Revelation to John written by St. John the Evangelist

Reflection

"Take Lord, and receive all my liberty, my memory, my understanding, and my entire will, all I have and call my own. You have given all to me. To you Lord, I return it. Everything is yours; do with it what you will. Give me only your love and your grace, that is enough for me." Amen

(St. Ignatius of Loyola)

Good Friday Juxta Crucem Tecum Stare! (Standing with you at the Cross)

Today I stood with you beneath the Cross, and felt more clearly than I ever did that you became our mother only there. Even an earthly mother faithfully seeks to fulfill the last will of her son. But you became the handmaid of the Lord; The life and being of the God made man was perfectly inscribed in your own life. So you could take your own into your heart, and with the lifeblood of your bitter pains you purchased life anew for every soul. You know us all, our wounds, our imperfections: But you also know the celestial radiance that your son's love would shed on us in heaven. Thus carefully you guide our faltering footsteps, no price too high for you to lead us to our goal. But those whom you have chosen for companions to stand with you around the eternal throne, they here must stand with You beneath the Cross, and with the lifeblood of their own bitter pains must purchase heavenly glory for those souls whom God's own Son entrusted to their care.

- DIRECTIONS -

Knead on floured surface, 10 minutes (add more flour if needed). Rub dough ball with vegetable oil & place in oiled bowl. Cover and put in warm place to rise, 1 hour or double in size. Punch dough and cut into 6 equal parts (do not flour surface). Roll each piece into a strip about 15-18" long, place raw, colored egg* in center, bring ends together and twist. Place on flat baking tray. Brush with egg white and dust with colored sprinkles or sugar. Cover and let rise, bake at 350° 20-25 minutes until golden brown.

*Colored eggs - use food coloring dye to color 6 raw in-the-shell eggs. 1 cup warm water, 1 tbsp. white vinegar, 5-6 drops food color. Egg will cook while bread bakes.

GETTING READY FOR EASTER...

It is a tradition to wear something NEW next week for Easter. New shoelaces, hairclips, socks, tie, a new "Easter bonnet" or new clothes reminds us of our new lives in Christ, through the resurrection.

The egg in our Easter bread is also a symbol of our new life!
