Christ's Resurrection was not a return to earthly life, as was the case with the raisings from the dead that He had performed before Easter. . . . In His risen body He passes from the state of death to another life beyond time and space. At Jesus' Resurrection, His body is filled with the power of the Holy Spirit: He shares the Divine Life in His Glorious State, so that St. Paul can say that Christ is "The Man of Heaven."

Respect Life Society

Meditations on the Windows of St. John's (Part 2)— Color is used to excite moods in this great wall of windows. The full spectrum is employed in the "Heaven" window. With the morning sun coming through the panes, it is filled with light, the primary colors surrounding it give a feeling of joy. Notice that all the small pieces of glass are different sizes and shapes, yet they combine beautifully to make the whole. The Kingdom of God is like that because it is all of us together, for the Kingdom of God is within. Each of us, though different, is united in Christ, the one High Priest who offers Himself for us all.

The Resurrection window is stunning—Jesus Christ bursts into glory. Death has been overcome. It is Easter and we are an Easter people . . . a people of the "new covenant" that we celebrate at every Mass. "Glory to God in the highest!" His dying that unspeakable death, in obedience to the Father, was Jesus living the doctrine He preached. In all nature there is this death/resurrection act. Life, death, and resurrection are a continuum, all one piece. The whole thing is the Father's love for us—who "has engraved us on the palm of His hand." It was Yahweh who sent His son to show us the way to eternal life. His whole life was the life of a human person, lived in perfect will of the Father. The complete panorama: death, resurrection, and heaven, are really a pictorial love letter from God saying, "Come to Me."

—Excerpts from Part 2 by Henriette Loehfelm from Our Evangelist 1984. If you are interested in reading the entire meditation, contact Peg Doherty (628-8998).

Prayer for our Troops

Almighty God and Father, hold our servicemen and women in your loving hands.
Protect them as they protect us.
Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform for us in our time and need.
We ask this in the name of Jesus,
Our Lord and Savior. —Amen

Saint Michael, the Archangel,

Please guide and protect our Police Officers, Correction Officers, Firefighters, Emergency Personnel and First Responders

"Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil;
May God rebuke him, we humbly pray*;*
And do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all evil spirits who wander through the world for the ruin of souls.
Amen."

Do Something Beautiful for God (Teachings of St. Mother Teresa of Calcutta)

I take the Lord at His word. Faith is a gift from God. Without it there would be no life. And our work, to be fruitful and beautiful, has to be built on faith. Love and faith go together. They complete each other.

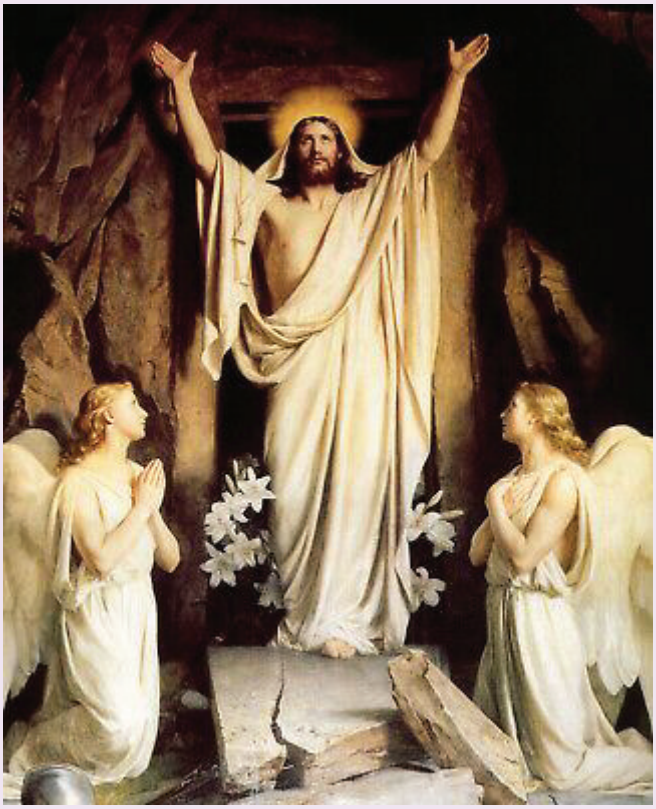
EASTER SUNDAY—April 17, 2022



Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

"Christ is risen. He is truly risen.
Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!"

We celebrate the great victory of Jesus Christ over sin and death. God the Father raised His Son from the dead. The glorious resurrection of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ is our hope for our resurrection and new life into the Kingdom of God when we are called from this world.

Our faith gives us hope, joy, peace, love, and life in Jesus Christ. May the blessings of the Risen Christ descend upon all of us, upon every family, upon our entire parish now and forever. A blessed Easter to you and your loved ones.

—The Priests, Deacon, and Parish Staff

Dear Parish Family of St. John the Evangelist,

As Father Caruso announced, my visa will expire on April 29, 2022, and I must leave the United States and return to Ghana. Before I depart, I want to take a moment to let you know how blessed I feel to have been a part of your lives, and how I will miss every one of you. I appreciate all the love and support you have shown me, and am especially grateful for the beautiful reception hosted by the Catholic Daughters after Mass a few Sundays ago. It was wonderful to see so many of our St. John's family in attendance at both the Mass and the reception. I also appreciate all the kind messages and words of support you have given to me as I head back to Africa

"Now may the Lord of peace himself give you His peace at all times and in every situation. The Lord be with you all." —2 Thessalonians 3:16
