SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

When he reached the place, Jesus looked up and said, "Zacchaeus, come down quickly, for today I must stay at your house." And he came down quickly and received him with joy. - Lk 19:5-6

Assumption Parish Mission

Our Mission:

-Worship God -Share the Good News of Jesus -Serve Christ in others

Our Vision:

-Continue the work of Jesus Christ

Our Goal: Every parishioner - a saint!

Planning for the Future

One powerful way of supporting Assumption is giving to our endowments. An endowment is a fund that is invested in financial markets to increase over time. An endowment's initial investment (known as "principal") cannot be withdrawn. Each year, the parish may decide to withdraw a portion of the interest known as "total return spending policy" (TRSP) or we can reinvest the return back into the endowment. Endowments are intended to provide stable income to charitable institutions into perpetuity.

St. Louis Archdiocesan Fund "Assumption Parish Endowment": During Fr. Seper's time as pastor, Assumption established an endowment for $264,000 with the Archdiocese of St. Louis. That endowment has grown to $459,692 and will give the parish a TRSP of $19,060.65 this year.

Last year, we withdrew some of the return to renovate the kitchen in the Church Lower Level. The new kitchen is practical, beautiful and when you see it, you see the power of an endowment!

Additionally, the Grant family has contributed to this endowment in memory of their son, Brett Grant; the annual TRSP supplies scholarships to two Assumption grade school families and also annually provides two, one-time $1,000 scholarships to Assumption graduates who choose Vianney or Nerinx High Schools.

Roman Catholic Foundation: Archbishop Carlson recently established the Roman Catholic Foundation (RCF). Each parish can create its' own endowments with the RCF. Assumption currently has two endowments with the RCF. We hope to let these grow before we withdraw the TRSP.

The first is the "Assumption General Parish Endowment." A generous anonymous parishioner started a RCF general parish endowment with an initial gift of $25,000 in 2017. With interest and additional deposits by the parish, it has already grown to $52,090.

The second is the "Assumption Catholic Education Endowment." This year, the parish appropriated $100,000 from our Partners in Education fund to create a second RCF endowment for Catholic education at Assumption.

You can contribute! If we are able to grow our endowments, Assumption will always have a sizable guaranteed income. I invite all parishioners to consider contributing to our endowments.

Donations are tax-deductible. It is possible to designate a cash gift at anytime no matter how small or large. Some parishioners make donations of stock and other investments or they remember the endowments in their will or trusts. It is also possible to designate a new endowment for a particular ministry of the parish or to contribute to an existing one.

All RCF endowments remain with the parish and are legally separated from the Archdiocese; they are professionally managed, and all decisions to withdraw the return are made in consultation with the Parish Council, Finance Council, as well as the Stewardship and Development Committee to guarantee parishioner consensus. You can learn more at refstl.org or assumptionstl.org.

God bless, Fr. Keller

RECLAIMING MY CATHOLIC FAITH

Praying for the Dead Week 31

Since the earliest times of Christianity, believers have prayed for the souls of the dead. Christians also respect the mortal remains of the deceased because we believe that the body will be raised up and reunited with the soul in the resurrection of the dead on the "Last Day."

Christians believe the soul is meant for perfection with God. The whole of the Christian life, beginning with baptism, then by growing in grace through the sacraments, developing habits of virtue, avoiding sin, and performing penances for past sins all help to perfect the soul. But realistically, no one's soul is perfect when they die. This means that the soul is still lacking what it needs to enter fully into the beatific vision of God.

The remedy the Church has always offered for dying with imperfection or the stain of sins on one's soul are the prayers for the dead that call on the mercy of God to make perfect whatever has not become perfect through grace, virtue and penance. This is the experience of Purgatory. Purgation from sin strips one of whatever love for sin or effects of sin that remains in one after death.

The resurrection of the dead means that Christians believe that their mortal bodies, often imperfect from birth or increasingly deteriorating with age, are glorified with Christ and are raised up on the "Last Day" when Christ will come again to judge the living and the dead. Only our imaginations can create an image of what that will be like, for nothing in our experience up to now can give our minds guidance. Yet, St. Paul and the New Testament authors believed in the resurrection so deeply that everything hinged on this truth. St. Paul even says, "without the resurrection, your faith is in vain."

Funeral Masses are intended as moments when family and friends pray for the repose of the soul and they honor the body of a loved one in the hope of the resurrection. Today there are a lot of options pushed by the funeral industry, but Catholics should always choose an option which encourages prayer for the deceased, preferably Mass, and which honors the body of the deceased by burial, even if cremation occurs. Catholics also should be buried in a blessed grave because it is a sign of hope in the resurrection. Catholic cemeteries are always blessed at the time they are inaugurated. The priest can bless the grave at the time of burial if the person is not buried in a Catholic cemetery.

The Church recommends offering of Masses, praying the rosary or offering other prayers on behalf of the deceased. Many don't realize it, but at almost every Mass, the priest carries the intention of someone who has died to the altar in his heart.

November is a special month dedicated to praying for the dead. All Souls Day (November 2nd) is dedicated to offering special Masses for the dead. There is also a special indulgence granted, once a day, to anyone who visits a cemetery to pray for the repose of the soul of a deceased person from November 2-10.

It is an act of charity to pray for the dead. It is also encouraged to pray for the souls of the "poor souls" in Purgatory who have no one to pray for them, as this is a very charitable activity.

Questions for Reflection:

Do I remember my deceased loved ones in prayer?

Do I pray for the souls who have no one to pray for them?

Have I encouraged family to remember our loved ones in prayer?

WINE (Women In The New Evangelization) 6-week Book Study:

WINE: Women In the New Evangelization is a creative and inspired ministry to invigorate women's groups and parishes through encouraging, supporting, and nurturing women in the Catholic faith and by equipping and mobilizing women as intentional disciples of Christ. The first meeting is 10/29/2019 in the Lower Level of the Church at 7-9 p.m. This is a 6 week study and will require reading 2 pages a day of the book. The book is "33 Days to Morning Glory" – author is Fr. Michael E. Gaitley, MIC. There is a work book as well. Please consider purchasing the book from Pauline Bookstore~ The study concludes on 12/3/2019 and on 12/9/2019 is the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary. There will be two meetings, 11/12/19 and 11/26/19, that will be in the lower level of the RECTORY -same time 7–9 p.m.

Sponsor-A-Family 2019

It's time to call and sign up to sponsor a family for 2019! There are families in great need of your help! If shopping and wrapping is not your thing, or if you simply cannot fit it into the budget this year, please consider making a cash donation of any size to this worthy program. Checks can be payable to Assumption, with sponsor a family noted in the memo, and dropped at the parish office at any time. Please consider getting your donations in early so that the elves have time to shop and wrap! Thank you for being a Christmas angel to those in need! Contact Amy Craig at 314-416-7388 or amycraig1133@yahoo.com
