Pastor's Column

Fr. Thomas Keller

Assumption is no stranger to funerals and normally the pastor's column is not the place to eulogize individuals; but this week we buried Chris Maloney, the husband of Staci Maloney. He was the father of a recent 8th grade graduate, Jacob. Chris' parents John and Therese are active Assumption parishioners, too. Chris' family was committed to attending Holy Mass and he was a constant help to our parish and school.

Chris helped with almost every parish event. He co-chaired our Parish Gala and Auction and he helped organize our Fish Fry to name just two of the many things he did here. No matter the occasion, whether he organized the event or simply attended it, he was often one of the first to arrive for set-up and one of the last to leave during clean-up. He gratefully thanked all the other volunteers like it was his responsibility. He had creative ideas to help the parish and never-ending strength to help others. Chris was a strong supporter of our parish ACTS retreats and willingly served on parish committees. I don't know if Chris helped his friends become great supporters of the parish, or if committed parents and parishioners just gravitate together around a common cause, but Chris is one of so many incredible parishioners. We will all miss him.

I want to take this opportunity, on behalf of Mrs. Skyora, our grade school principal, and our entire parish, school and ELC staff to thank Chris for being an amazing co-worker and friend. The average parishioner may not know the incredible effort Chris put into making Assumption a success, but every parishioner benefited from his work and we certainly owe him appreciation and prayers.

Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord.
And let perpetual light shine upon him.

God bless, Fr. Keller
