RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION FOR ADULTS

We have begun this year's process of welcoming adults to RCIA (preparation for Baptism) and including adults seeking Confirmation and Eucharist in the Catholic Church. Our four inquiry sessions are now completed. But it's not too late to join us.

For this preliminary period our focus topics overviewed Catholic understanding of these basics for potential members before they make any commitments.

Living Baptism – (about Sacraments)

Knowing and Meeting Jesus – (about Scripture)

Living Catholic – Commandments & Beatitudes – (about Moral teachings)

New members can review this material at home under the direction of the RCIA Director and discern their readiness to join the preparation process.

True Love Waits

Parents, do your teens know God's plan for love and relationships in their lives? True Love Waits teaches middle and high school students how to be happier (and safer) in relationships by following Christ's plan for them using skits, speakers, multimedia presentations, discussions, personal reflection and, of course, snacks! Sessions will run every Sunday, 6 – 9:00 pm, from January 21st to February 4th and there will be a commitment ceremony during the 7:00 pm Mass on February 10th. A parents' meeting covering the entire program will be held on January 16th, 7-8 pm in the Divine Mercy Academy cafeteria and is strongly encouraged due to the detailed nature of the information teens will receive. The program fee is $20 and pre-registration is required Please call Jenny at 862-219-2028 with any questions and to register.

ARE YOU REGISTERED? – Saint Cecilia's is the best parish in the Diocese of Paterson! I know that I am prejudiced but I truly believe this and I hope you do too! We welcome all people to our parish and are delighted each time new members join our faith community. My question is to all, ARE YOU REGISTERED AS A PARISHIONER? If you are not sure, please give the parish office a call (973.627.0313) and speak with Janet or Diane to check and to update any information regarding yourself, such as phone number and e mail address, etc. This information is most helpful for me in providing pastoral care to you and your family. Your parish registration is also necessary when you may be asked to submit a "certificate of eligibility" to serve as a godparent/sponsor. If I do not have your registration information then this can become a difficulty. The Registration form may be found on line by going to the parish website or by receiving a copy from the parish office. Your completed registration form may be mailed to the parish office or placed in the collection basket on Sunday. Register and be counted among those who love and support Saint Cecilia's! – FATHER ZIG

My dear parishioners,

Today is the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time as we gather to celebrate the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass on the Lord's Day. The Sacred Texts which are proclaimed to us this Sunday contain the sense of urgency in responding to the Lord's call. In the Old Testament reading the Prophet Jonah announces the message of repentance to the people of Nineveh who respond immediately with fasting and contrition. Their behavior is a compliment to their trust in God's messenger and the message which was announced to them. In the epistle reading the Apostle Paul writes to the Corinthian Christians warning them of the rapid passage of time and that they should not be caught off guard when all comes to a conclusion. Their conduct should correspond to those who look forward to the world to come and that this anticipation must be a constant awareness. The Evangelist Mark records the call by the Lord Jesus to the first four Apostles; Peter and his brother Andrew; James and his brother John, all of them fishermen in Galilee. The Evangelist reports the immediate response of the brothers who leave their family and livelihood to join up with Jesus. We hear of no discussions but are told that "they left" and "followed Him."

The Latin phrase, "memento mori" is translated REMEMBER YOU MUST DIE! Most of us as adults know how true this is and yet we live as if this will not apply to us. We are very good at putting things off especially in regard to our spiritual life, we always feel we have time and can take care of that later. Today we are being reminded that the time to act is NOW because tomorrow may never come. The Apostle Paul reminds us that the time to do something is NOW, "...NOW is a very acceptable time; behold, NOW is the day of salvation." (2 Corinthians 6:2)

The Lord requires an immediate response to His invitation to discipleship and the turning away from former things which keep us from Him. He is calling us to holiness as He did to the citizens of Nineveh and it is the prophetic voice of the Church today announcing the message that we must not delay but rather respond NOW.

Let our response be found in our celebration of the sacraments in which we meet Christ and receive His grace. Let our response be seen in the manner in which we live at home and in the world. Let our participation in good works and charitable acts define us so that we may one day join with Christ in His eternal kingdom.

MEMENTO MORI! The time to respond to God is now!

GLORY TO JESUS CHRIST – GLORY FOREVER!

Father Zig

ST. ANGELA MERICI, Virgin
January 27

Born in 1474 at Desenzano on the shore of Lake Garda, Italy, St. Angela Merici became a tertiary of St. Francis at fifteen years of age. In a vision God revealed to her that she would establish a "company" to promote the welfare of souls. At Desenzano she established a school for the instruction of young girls and a second school at Brescia. She gathered around her twelve religious companions and founded the Ursulines at Brescia.

St. Angela was of a reflective bent and possibly the first to grasp the changed role of women in the society transformed by the Renaissance. She envisaged that those who joined her would remain in the world but devote themselves to every type of corporal and spiritual work of mercy, with special emphasis on education.

However, her idea of education was very different from that of a convent school. She preferred to send her followers to teach girls in their own families. Through this she hoped to effect an improvement in social conditions. For it was her belief that "disorder in society is the result of disorder in the family." Her idea of a religious order of women without distinctive habit and without solemn vows and enclosure was also in advance of her times —although her Order was obliged to adopt the canonical safeguards then required of all nuns.

On November 25, 1535, the solemn canonical institution of the company of St. Ursula took place in the Oratory of the Piazza del Duomo. As a patron, St. Angela chose St. Ursula because ever since her martyrdom, St. Ursula was regarded as the ideal type of Christian virginity.

In the year of her death, 1540, it was estimated that at least half the town of Brescia was Lutheran or Calvinist. However, the schools of the Ursulines did their share in strengthening and extending Catholicism and in safeguarding Italy from what we now term "modern unbelief." She was canonized in 1807 by Pope Pius VII.

PRAYER: Lord, let St. Angela never cease commending us to Your kindness. By always imitating her charity and prudence may we succeed in keeping Your teaching and preserving good morals. Amen
