My dear parishioners,

As we gather to celebrate the Eucharist on the Lord's Day we come to the 30th Sunday in Ordinary Time. On most Sundays I focus on the Gospel reading along with the Old Testament lection for the day in my "Pastor's Article". However this Sunday I would like to highlight a phrase from the epistle reading which is taken from the Letter to the Hebrews. The words, "...offer gifts and sacrifices for sins" I believe say something to us on this Sunday when we are making our annual pledge to the DIOCESAN MINISTRIES APPEAL, formally known as "The Bishop's Annual Appeal." It will be my duty and my privilege at all Masses this Sunday to encourage all the members of Saint Cecilia's to participate in this annual event which comes to the aid of so many people within the Diocese of Paterson. Today we shall view a short video which will inform us of the various groups and agencies which will be assisted by the appeal thanks to our generosity.

The primary beneficiary from this appeal is Catholic Charities in the Diocese of Paterson. Countless numbers of people who find themselves in very difficult situations come to this agency for help. We, because of your generosity, are able to provide food, emergency housing, clothing, counseling, and so much more. We maintain a number of group homes for adults with intellectual disabilities providing them with a safe and clean environment in which to live.

In addition, the appeal supports our seminarians and maintains a residence for our retired priests in Chester. The appeal also provides the means for children of the inner city to attend Catholic schools with the promise of a hope-filled future.

In the theology of the Church we believe that when we are generous with our tithes and offerings that these help to remove our sins. The Lord looks kindly upon those who "offer gifts and sacrifices for sins". The help which we give to those in need is the sign of a benevolent heart and faith in the God who is Father of all.

Please join with me today in making a SACRIFICIAL GIFT to the Diocesan Ministries Appeal. Together we are doing such good and holy work which benefits our brothers and sisters in need. We have always been generous at Saint Cecilia's-let this year be the same!

As you make your pledge pray that the Lord will accept your sacrificial gift for the remission of your sins and that He may bless you for the generosity you show.

GLORY TO JESUS CHRIST-GLORY FOREVER!

Father Zig

ST. MARCELLUS THE CENTURION, Martyr
October 30

IN THE year 298, the birthday of the Emperor Maximian was celebrated with extraordinary solemnity. St Marcellus, a Christian centurion in one of the legions then stationed in Spain, refused to take part in the sacrifices offered to the gods, and declared himself a Christian. He threw down his arms and the vine-branch, which was the mark of his dignity.

Anastasius Fortunatus, the Prefect of the legion, having learned the fact, commanded St. Marcellus to be cast into prison. After the feast, the prisoner was brought before the Prefect, who asked the reason for his conduct. St. Marcellus replied that it was his religion. Hereupon the Prefect declared that he would have to lay his case before Maximian and Caesar Constantius.

The latter ruled over Gaul and Spain, and he was most favorable to the Christians. However, St. Marcellus was sent under a strong guard to Aurelianus Agricola, vicar to the Prefect of the praetorium, who was then at Tangier in Africa. When St. Marcellus admitted the truth of the accusation, he was condemned to death for the desertion and impiety. Cassian, the notary of the court, refused to write the sentence, which he declared to be unjust. In consequence to this, he, too, was condemned to death. St. Marcellus was beheaded on October 30, and St. Cassian suffered death on the 3rd of the following December.

PRAYER Almighty, ever-living God, You enable St. Marcellus to fight to the death for justice. Through his intercession enable us to bear all adversity and with all our strength hasten to You Who alone are life. Amen.
